

IN THE LOCAL FIELD.

BROOKLINE.

L. W. Bush attended the convention at Burlington last week as delegate. E. W. Bush is to be congratulated by his friends in town this week. See marriages. Mrs. C. M. Robbins's Sunday school class had their annual picnic at Marlboro pond on Wednesday.

DUMMERSTON.

Samuel Wheeler was 90 years old June 28 and is the oldest person in town. Mrs. Wm. O. Miller has been quite ill for several weeks and is still under the care of a physician.

The W. C. T. U. and church workers will meet in the vestry Thursday, July 7, at 2:30 P. M. All are invited. School in district No. 5 closed Friday, July 1. Pupils having no marks were Clifford L. Stockwell, Austin V. and Adin H. Jilison.

The school at Dummerston centre, taught by Miss Etta S. Lynde, closed on Friday after a session of eight weeks. The whole number of scholars was 29, most of whom were very regular attendances. Several pupils were not absent or tardy during the term, and six were not absent more than one day each.

EAST DOVER.

Mrs. L. J. Ramsey of Hartford, Conn., is at A. B. Roberts's. Children's day was observed at the Methodist church last Sunday.

D. S. Prouty is putting up the building for his steam mill this week. Milton and Mary Halladay are home from school for the summer vacation.

J. H. Metcalf is suffering from a severe injury received while leading a large black cow on his wheelbarrow. The black slipped and struck him in a way to throw him over a saw horse standing near, and he was badly hurt in the ribs.

WEST DOVER.

E. R. Cook has been attending the soldiers' reunion at Strasburg. Miss Rose Estabrook of Loomister, Mass., is visiting at Dea. Estabrook's.

Frank Gallup has bought the David Spencer farm in the edge of Wilmington and is moving his goods and family there this week.

Orrin Johnson is moving his steam mill from Stratton on to D. N. May's lumber lot, where a large amount of lumber is to be sawed.

GUILDFORD.

David Baker, recently lost a valuable three-year-old cow. Divine service in Christ church and celebration of the holy communion at 2:30 P. M.

A daughter of Mr. Sweet fell from a hammock on Sunday, breaking her collar bone. Mrs. S. A. Smith entertained the ladies of the Universalist sewing society at her home on Thursday.

There will be the usual service in the Congregational church on Sunday next, conducted by Mr. Jackson.

GUILDFORD.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitcomb of Holyoke, Mass., are guests of E. W. Miner. Mrs. Conrad Miner and her little son Everett are visiting in Turners Falls, Mass.

The dance at the town hall the 24th inst. was largely attended and enjoyed by every one. The delegates to the Republican county convention were S. A. Richmond, Will Robb, Russell Thomas, George Houghton.

A special gospel service will be held in the town hall on Sunday afternoon next at 3 o'clock, conducted by Mr. Jackson, who held similar services last year.

The library, which the committee have been getting ready for the public, will be opened Saturday afternoon, when all who wish can call. Miss Lula M. Adams is to be librarian.

School in district No. 1, taught by Miss Mamie Clark, closed on the evening of the 24th inst. with an exhibition. School in No. 14, taught by Miss Lula M. Adams, closed with the same day, and in both cases the exercises were greatly enjoyed.

JACKSONVILLE.

Dr. Rice of Wilmington has several patients here now. Franklin E. Heald closed a successful term of school here last Friday.

James W. Hotal and Mrs. Daniel Gallup are both in feeble health. Dr. Scudder has not yet moved to Wilmington, but is on a vacation at Orange, Mass.

Many friends of Rev. R. B. Fay were glad to meet last Sunday and hear him preach. H. S. Blanchard had a slight shock of paralysis last Monday morning, but is able to be out at this writing.

Laurel beach is open for the season. All are invited to a basket picnic at the beach July 4, when a good time is expected.

Rev. Joseph Narramore, a recent graduate from Williamsburg college, preaches at the Methodist church next Sunday at 10:30 A. M., and it is expected that he will remain and serve the church for the year.

Forty or more friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Shepardson called upon them Tuesday in remembrance of the fifth anniversary of their wedding day. The afternoon and evening were pleasantly spent. Cake and ice cream were served, in the evening the grounds were illuminated and some fire works displayed.

JAMAICA.

The post-office has a new clerk, Frank Dobbin of Shuabun, N. Y. Mr. Holten, the postmaster, is improving.

W. F. Gleason continues to make improvements on his hotel, paint and blinds, which greatly improve its looks, being the latest.

Many summer visitors are in town, among them Mrs. W. H. H. Holton of New York, Mrs. E. L. Waterman of Brattleboro, Mrs. McLean and daughter of Brookton, Mass.

The W. C. T. U. lecture Wednesday evening, by Mrs. Helen G. Rice of Boston, brought out a good house. She spoke impressively on "The child in our midst." The children sang finely, and a good collection was taken.

SOUTH LONDONBERRY.

The village school, which should have closed July 1, was closed on Tuesday instead, on account of the illness of one of the children with scarlet fever, hoping in this way to prevent the spread of the disease. There have been several other light cases.

At a meeting of their creditors, held last Friday, Livermore Bros. offered to pay 15 cents on a dollar in 90 days, and to make out all unincumbered property, but neither offer was accepted. The liabilities of the firm are between $5000 and $6000. An Orange, Mass., concern, manufacturers of chair stock machinery, has a secured claim on their machinery for $2000.

NEWFARE.

Miss Etta Morse of Boston university is spending her vacation at home.

Rev. C. H. Smith will conduct the service at the church as usual next Sunday. Among expected guests next week are Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Fish of Vergennes.

Mr. Farwell, the station agent, has rented a part of Mrs. Green's house from August 1st. Mrs. Mary Burnham, formerly of this place, has returned from Springfield, Mass., to spend the summer with her daughter.

Ground was broken on Monday for the creamery. Mr. Pierce of Brookline furnishes the rough lumber and Mr. S. G. Brown, Jr. has the contract for labor above the foundations.

In the nickel stamp savings system Florence Batchelder is the first in this town to make a deposit of $2. Among the first depositors is Ruth DeWitt of Brattleboro, a great granddaughter of the late Austin Birchard, first treasurer of Windham County Savings bank.

On Tuesday the Worcester House and County House each dined about 60 who were in attendance at the Republican county convention. The business of the convention was very expeditiously transacted, and from some of the nominations lively work may be expected in effort to secure the removal of the county buildings.

SOUTH NEWFARE.

John E. Morse left on Monday for Philadelphia on a business trip to be absent two weeks. C. L. Dexter and wife and Harry Shields and wife of Philadelphia arrived at the Villa Wednesday evening for the season. E. Morse was expected last Thursday evening with four of the Dexter horses.

Charles Stratton had the misfortune last Tuesday night to have his valuable horse very badly kicked by another horse belonging to Mr. Johnson, which got loose in the same stable.

PUTNEY.

Mrs. Hopkins and son of Connecticut are stopping at Harding Bennett's. Mrs. Stowell and Edith left Thursday morning for a visit to Massachusetts. Mrs. Stowell will go to Boston for a few weeks.

The delegates to the Republican county convention at Newfare were William Robertson, A. W. J. Wilkins, Dr. Munger and C. Stowell.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cobb of Lowell, Mass., made a brief visit to Putney after attending the funeral of Mrs. Cobb's uncle, Mr. Pierce of Westmoreland, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Eaton are visiting at L. B. Puffer's, and in company with Mr. and Mrs. Puffer have visited Ed. Puffer of Meriden, Conn., and Charles Puffer of Brattleboro.

STRATTON.

The pastor will preach to the children on Sunday next. School closed in district No. 6 on Friday, June 24, and the other schools are expected to close this week.

The ladies' aid society will hold a picnic and 10-cent dinner under the trees near the parsonage on Monday, July 4, and all are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Palmer of Garfield, N. Y., spent Sunday with their nephew, Rev. O. H. Palmer, and started on Monday for Monroe, Mass., where they have been visiting.

TOWNSHEND.

Dr. Ellis and wife from Beaufort, S. C., former residents of this place, are expected this week. J. J. Dale and family from Beaufort, S. C., arrived at their summer home Monday evening.

Rev. C. H. Smith and family, who have been spending their vacation in West Brattleboro, are expected home today. The school in district No. 4, taught by Miss Kate Wiswell, closed Friday, June 24. The number of pupils was 10. Those neither absent nor tardy were Mattie Crane, Lottie Gale, Alma Gale, Frank Gale, Alice Franklin and Bettie Whitney. Those absent on account of sickness, Carroll Franklin and Ernest Whitney.

WEST WARDSBORO.

J. M. Benson has bought the stage route. Henry Cobb of Winchendon, Mass., has been visiting B. C. Hyder. Miss Myrtle Leonard is at home, having graduated at Randolph school.

Mrs. Mark Anthony from Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Murphy. Mrs. Giles, from the West, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Smead, and at W. A. Ransford's.

Otis Chase has been home from Worcester, Mass., to assist in caring for his mother, who is seriously ill. Two nieces of Mrs. Abigail Morse, Miss Lottie and Lizzie Johnson from Boston, are staying with her for a few weeks.

School finished in the village Friday of last week, uniting in a picnic with "Pondunk" school in the grove near the latter schoolhouse.

H. G. Sumner's family and J. Stevens and daughter Sarah moved Tuesday to Southbury for the ending of the Declaration of Independence by Rev. C. H. Smith, an oration by Col. Hooker with music by Johnson Brothers of South Londonderry. Asa D. Bigelow of New York City, who is now in Brattleboro, will accompany Col. Hooker, and will give some vocal selections. A pleasing feature of the evening's entertainment will be the military flag drill, conducted by F. H. Scott.

It is hoped that the program for the Fourth of July, as given last week, will be successfully carried out. The exercises at 11 A. M. will be held at the Baptist church and will consist of the reading of the Declaration of Independence by Rev. C. H. Smith, an oration by Col. Hooker with music by Johnson Brothers of South Londonderry. Asa D. Bigelow of New York City, who is now in Brattleboro, will accompany Col. Hooker, and will give some vocal selections. A pleasing feature of the evening's entertainment will be the military flag drill, conducted by F. H. Scott.

WEST TOWNSHEND. Mr. M. Cushing is at her mother's. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wood visited in Erving, Mass., last week. Mrs. F. F. Barber has returned from a visit in Springfield, Mass. School closes Friday with a picnic, the Busy Bees assisting in the exercises.

Mrs. Kingsbury, who has been absent for several months caring for a relative who is ill, has returned. There was no regular service on Sunday. Rev. Mr. Vincent being away for a short vacation. Sunday school was held as usual.

VERNON. Rev. F. W. Sprague preaches at the church next Sunday at 2:30 P. M. Miss H. R. Brown is home from Kalamazoo, Mich., to spend her annual vacation. Miss Nellie Hawks, a teacher in the public schools at Milwaukee, Wis., is visiting at A. Stebbins's.

Elder O. Beckwith of North Springfield, this state, will preach in the chapel next Sunday at 10:30 A. M. and 1:30 P. M. Schools in districts Nos. 5 and 6 close this week. After the examination exercises picnics will be held in each district.

Farmers report a fair growth of grass, but find much difficulty in making hay, "old soil" the haymaker, refusing his assistance thus far.

Charles Jackson's new home on the Lee farm was made ready, notwithstanding the showers Thursday afternoon of last week, by a party of about 40 friends, who came to remain Mrs. Jackson that it was her fiftieth birthday anniversary. Their son, Fred Jackson, and wife, of Springfield, Mass., were present. Mrs. J. C. Howe of Brattleboro, in behalf of those present, presented Mrs. Jackson with an oak and willow chair, a work table and smaller articles. Mrs. Jackson responded. Mrs. C. H. Newton made a few remarks for the Vernon women. A beautiful supper was provided by the women.

W. N. Dunklee is marketing quite a good yield of strawberries. Miss Genevieve Sikes closed a successful term of school yesterday in district No. 9.

Miss Lottie Newton has been spending a short vacation with her parents, and is expected to go to Maine soon. Miss Nina E. Gould, who attended college in New York, and who has since been visiting an uncle in Saratoga, Mass., is expected home the last of this week.

WARDSBORO. Mrs. M. A. Smith picked ripe tomatoes in her garden July 1.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Phillips returned home from Waterbury, Conn., last Monday evening. On account of ill health Miss Stella Cobb has been obliged to discontinue work at the hotel and Miss Annie Wilder takes her place.

Miss Mary Underwood, who has taught the village school for four consecutive terms, left town for a visit to Truro, Mass., last Wednesday.

School closed in district No. 6, June 24. Length of term, 38 days. Whole number of pupils, 29, of whom twelve were not absent one half day. School closed in district No. 7 (at Bucksville) June 24, with a picnic, which was enjoyed by a company of about 50. Singing and speaking enlivened the occasion. Whole number of pupils in school 16, of whom seven were neither absent nor tardy. Carrie Dexter, May Allen, Etta Chamberlain, Mabel Smith, Daisy Smith, Essie Putnam, and James Dexter.

SOUTH WARDSBORO. The spring term of school in district No. 1 in South Wardsboro, taught by Miss Inez C. Merrill of Townshend, closed a successful term of eight weeks on Friday, June 24. Number of pupils 18. There were no tardy or dismissal marks during the term. Names of those not absent, Herbert and Hubert Brown, Lulu Good, Clifton Barrett, Eddie Sage, Harry Wilbur, Alice and Lottie Plimpton, George Allen.

Indigestion; dizziness. Take Beecham's Pills.

and is prepared to do a general brokerage business in insurance lines. Rapunda hotel is approaching completion and it is expected that the patronage will be large during July and August. A grand picnic is advertised for July 4.

The first campaign flag of the season was displayed on Wednesday from C. M. Russell's building, bearing the names of "Harrison and Field," and "Fuller and Stranahan."

Dr. A. W. Rice, Hosea Mann, Jr., Edward Titus, A. L. Cook, J. H. Kidder and C. M. Russell attended the Republican county convention at Newfare on Tuesday.

The non-arrival of The Phoenix on Friday or Saturday was a disappointment for it is very hard to pass the Sabbath in a proper manner without perusing that model paper.

The handsome nomination of our townsman, Edward Titus, Esq., to the assistant judgeship on Tuesday is most gratifying to his many friends, and places the right man in the right place.

The lecture at the Congregational church on Tuesday evening, under the auspices of the local W. C. T. U., by Mrs. Smith of Boston, was very instructive and entertaining, and it is to be regretted that the attendance was no larger.

On Saturday evening last the organization of a Republican campaign club was effected in the choice of officers, and it is hoped that active work will be begun at once. Let our friends and neighbors. Further particulars and announcements hereafter.

Wilmington people will be interested to know of the appointment of Walter A. Wheeler to be superintendent of the state printing school at Monson, Mass. The position is one of importance, as attention must be given to the problem of dealing with the dependent classes as well as teaching the children. Mr. Wheeler was born in Brattleboro, Mass., in 1850, graduated from Worcester academy in 1870, and for two years had charge of the school in this place. He was afterward principal of schools in Princeton and Sutton, Mass.

Since 1885 has taught the graded school in his native town, and carried on the large farm owned by his father and himself. He was a member of the Massachusetts legislature in 1890 and did good work on the educational committee. His wife was also a teacher and they have eight children.

WEST CHESTERFIELD, N. H. S. H. Randall and family will return to their home on Friday of this week. Chas. A. Clark of Springfield, Mass., has been in town for the past ten days. Walter Willard of New York is spending the season at C. C. P. Goodrich's.

Miss Nellie Farr closed a very successful term of school in district No. 5 last Friday. The next regular meeting of Stafford grange will be held on Saturday evening, July 9, at 7:30.

The hour of the Sunday devotional meeting has been changed to 7:30 P. M. instead of 5 o'clock. School in district No. 1, taught by Miss Dora Farr, closed a very successful term last Friday afternoon.

Charlie Field had the misfortune to injure one foot quite badly by getting it under the road scraper one day last week. Mamie Clark closed her school in Guilford, Vt., last Friday, and is now with her grandmother, Mrs. R. Farr, for a few days. Children's Sunday will be observed next Sunday with a morning discourse to the children by Rev. J. L. Scoboria, and at 4 o'clock P. M. there will be a Sunday school concert.

BONDVILLE. Mrs. L. K. Burbank is visiting her parents in Bennington. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kendall of Gardner, Mass., are visiting at J. M. and E. L. Kendall's.

The Demorest silver medal contest, held at the church last Friday evening, was well attended. The contestants were Edward H. Kendall, Cassie L. Benson, Fred S. Burbee, Cora L. Kendall, Gladys C. Arnold, John B. Benson, Hattie Coleman, Ola M. Kendall, and all of them spoke exceedingly well. The judges awarded the medal to Ola M. Kendall.

Rev. E. B. Harris, our former pastor, was in town a few days last week. Mrs. Rich of Guildhall is visiting her daughter, Mrs. T. A. Flannery.

The village school, taught by E. H. Kendall of Chester, closed last week.

NEW HAMPSHIRE NOTES. By request of many people, "The station" will be repeated at Chesterfield Factory, Saturday evening, July 3.

The little town of Bullfinch appropriated this year $500 for repairing highways and bridges and over $400 for new bridges on the road to Keene.

Robert Emstall was run over by the cars at White Crossing, Ashfield, on Saturday and killed. He was quite dead and on his way to his garden a mile from the village. He leaves a wife and three adult children.

Adam Corbin intends to plant 20,000 hawthorn trees on his great grape park near Newport. The trees have all been imported from England, and 400 have so far been set out. They are to serve as a hedge to retain the hawthorn and other large cedars within the limits of the preserve.

One of the first Harrison and Reed publications in New Hampshire was held Wednesday night of last week in the Cheshire House at Keene under the auspices of the Young Men's Republican club. One hundred and twenty sturdy Republicans met around the festive board and cheerfully endorsed the business and the Republican party.

Death of John Patch. In the death of John Patch, which occurred last week, the town of Brattleboro has lost a valuable citizen. Mr. Patch was born in Fitzwilliam, N. H., June 8, 1818, and was therefore at the time of his death 73 years of age. He had eight brothers and sisters, all of whom were still living. Mr. Patch's occupation in early life was that of teacher, and he was a contractor on the New Hampshire canal, and about 1840. In 1843 or 1844 he became acquainted with the late Mrs. William Patch, and through her influence he came to Wilmington and bought the Vermont House in 1851. In 1861 he was elected to the Vermont legislature, and he was re-elected in 1863 and 1865. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1857, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1863, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1869. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1875, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1881. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1887, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1891. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1897, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1903. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1909, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1915. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1921, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1927. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1933, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1939. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1945, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1951. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1957, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1963. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1969, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1975. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1981, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1987. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1993, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1999. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 2005, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 2011. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 2017, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 2023.

WILMINGTON. In the death of John Patch, which occurred last week, the town of Brattleboro has lost a valuable citizen. Mr. Patch was born in Fitzwilliam, N. H., June 8, 1818, and was therefore at the time of his death 73 years of age. He had eight brothers and sisters, all of whom were still living. Mr. Patch's occupation in early life was that of teacher, and he was a contractor on the New Hampshire canal, and about 1840. In 1843 or 1844 he became acquainted with the late Mrs. William Patch, and through her influence he came to Wilmington and bought the Vermont House in 1851. In 1861 he was elected to the Vermont legislature, and he was re-elected in 1863 and 1865. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1857, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1863, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1869. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1875, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1881. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1887, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1893. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1899, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1905. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1911, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1917. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1923, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1929. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1935, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1941. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1947, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1953. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1959, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1965. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1971, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1977. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1983, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1989. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 1995, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 2001. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 2007, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 2013. He was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 2019, and he was a member of the Vermont State Convention in 2025.

Headache and Neuralgia. These distressing and annoying troubles that are so common and so frequently and so easily cured; not requiring one-fourth of a bottle of this simple remedy of Nature to accomplish the purpose.

Kickapoo Indian Sagwa. These distressing and annoying troubles that are so common and so frequently and so easily cured; not requiring one-fourth of a bottle of this simple remedy of Nature to accomplish the purpose.

S. T. Davenport will be in town every Monday to meet any who may wish to consult him on legal business. The frequent showers of late give vegetation a wonderful growth. The grass crop promises to be abundant.

Among recent visitors we notice Leander Titus and Chas. E. Stearns of Brookline and John B. Bissell of New York. The social given by the Epworth league Wednesday evening was well attended and everybody had a delightful time.

John S. Rice had a cow killed by lightning recently. Under his insurance policy in the Vermont Mutual he received the value thereof, $25.

The Epworth league, Christian Endeavor and Young People's union will hold a picnic in Shafter park on July 4 when a good time is anticipated.

C. M. Russell has received the agency of the New England Fire Insurance Company.

W. H. & E. S. MINOR.

Implement Department. Grain Department.

- Best Spring Patent Flour, $5.25. Best Winter Patent Flour, $5.00. Baled Hay in large or small Quantities. Meal, Corn, Cracked Corn, Oats, Middlings, Bran, Cottonseed Meal. Old and New Process Oil Meal with all other kinds of Feeds, Wholesale and Retail. Salt of all kinds.

W. H. & E. S. MINOR.

Advertisement for Williams' Root Beer, featuring an image of the bottle and text describing its health benefits.

Masonry's Colors. Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad Company.

Income Bond Conversion. Under Circular No. 68. Income Bonds are now being received for exchange into Second Mortgage Bonds, Class A, under the plan of conversion, in effect June 1, 1892, by the following appointed agencies.

BARN A. CLARK. Can Anything Be Safer.

Than a Mortgage of, say, One-third its value on GOOD land in a Section where crops are assured? The Vermont Loan & Trust Co.

IMPORTED Swedish Goods.

- Red Sago, Brown Beans, Potato Flour, Cooked Lingons, Gateburg Medurst, Fr Carlson's Anjovis, Smoked Sardines in Oil, Gummerson's Hallonsaft, Norwegian Fat Herrings, Mysost, Knackebroon, Skespor.

H. W. SIMONDS. Worcester Standard Buckeye.

The best perfect machine in the market. The best power is the strongest and most durable. The best gear is the only machine that has a steel chain plate, a self-oiling piston bar, a five and six foot chain gear, a full stock of machines and repairs. Call and examine. J. K. PARKER, 13 Oak St., Brattleboro.

Advertisement for Pearline soap, featuring an image of a woman washing clothes and text describing the benefits of the soap.

Small text at the bottom of the page, likely a printer's mark or additional contact information.