IN THE LOCAL FIELD.

WEST TOWNSHEND. Mrs. Orson Kimball visited old friends here last week.

Merton Vincent has gone to Waltham, Mass., where he has work in a printing

VERNON.

Mrs. Emeline Stockwell is visiting her

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Brown returned to their home in Titusville, Pa., Oct. 1. Rev. A. J. Hough will preach in the chapel Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The next regular meeting of the grange will be Saturday evening, Oct. 17, at 7

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brown visited friends at Athol and Orange this week and also attended the fair at Athol. Miss Ellen Brown is teaching at North street school, Brattleboro. Allen Cook is attending the same school. The school in District No. 7 is not in session this week on account of the illness of the teacher, Miss Jennie Moseley.

Albert Dunnekin and family of Bennington are now occupying the red cottage on the Howe farm owned by Frank Warner. Mrs. Chester Lee and Mrs. C. H. Newton are reported to be gaining. Mrs. Frank Newton of Springfield is with Mrs. C. H.

Mr. Tenney of Halifax moved last week to the farm of the late F. L. Brown. Mrs. Brown has moved to the Kingsley place near South Vernon station. The annual reunion of the Tyler and Lamb families was held last Saturday at the old homestead on Tyler Hill, which is now occupied as a summer home by Mrs. Sor' a Frost and her daughter, Mrs. Julia Fifty-eight members were prese, passed a very enjoyable day reviewing old associations and relating old family legends and tales. The old account book of Jesse Tyler, which was kept at this farm by him 80 years ago, is an interesting relic and its blank pages are now made use of as a register at these annual reunions. Among those registering last Saturday were some from Chicago, Holyoke, Greenfield and all the towns near by, the tally-ho from Brat-tleboro bringing a party of 14. F. C. Weatherhead, a photographer from East-hampton and a member of this family, was present with his camera to produce souve-nirs of the occasion.

WARDSBORO.

Underwood-Johnson. A quiet wedding took place at the resi-dence of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Johnson at dence of Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Johnson at high noon on Wednesday, Oct. 7, when Miss Maude A., their youngest daughter, was united in marriage to Dr. David G. Underwood of Orford, N. H. The ring ceremony was performed by Rev. E. S. Morse of Brattleboro, who is a brother-in-law of the bride. The parlor was decorated with flowers, and during the marriage ceremony the contracting parties stood be neath an arch of white chrysauthemum asters. The bride was gowned in white muslin with satin ribbon trimmings and wore a veil with a wreath of orange blossoms, also a corsage bouquet of orange blossoms. Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present. The wedding gifts were numerous and beautiful. After the wedding breakfast was served they started for a carriage drive to their home in Orford, amid a shower of Mrs. C. B. Dexter has returned to ber home in Troy, N. Y.

Cora Morse and Lola Cobb picked ripe strawberries in the field last week Friday. H. C. Benson has been very ill with gastric fever. At last accounts he was more On account of the illness of Miss Lottle

Hunt, teacher in district No. 6, the school s closed this week.

J. Golden, who has been boarding at Underwood's hotel for the past five months, returned to his home in Framingham, Mass., last Monday.

On Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 30, about 30 of the friends of Rev. Dennis Wells united with him in celebrating his 93d birthday anniversary. Among those present was E. B. Read, who is in his 95th year. Mr. Wells resides with Mr. and year. Mr. Wells resides with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Benson, who tenderly care for him in his declining years. Mrs. Benson is Mr. Well's adopted daughter. The afternoon was spent in conversation. Rev. E. H. Bartlett, paster of the Methodist church, made some very interesting remarks to which Mr. Wells responded in an appro-priate manner. It will be remembered that he buried his excellent wife about a year ago. He still feels his loss very keenly. Having enjoyed her companion-ship over 62 years the separation means much to him. After listening to vocal and instrumental music by Miss Mary R. He still feels his loss very Briggs, and partaking of a bountiful re-past, prepared by Mrs. Benson, the company returned to their homes.

WEST WARDSBORO.

E. Slawson of Derry has been hereabouts for a few days and has spoken in several evening meetings.

A pleasant time is anticipated next week Friday evening when a harvest festival is to be held by the children and young people under the auspices of the Christian En-deavor society. The entertainment is to be music and singing—a duet by Miss Grace Payne and Mrs. H. A. Waite, solos by A. Robinson, Miss Bernice Wait and othone or two selections on the autoharp, instrumental music by several players among the interesting things expected. nations of garden and flower seeds, fruit, d vegetables will be gratefully received.

WHITINGHAM. Geo. Sawyer is painting H. A. Brown's

Lula Baker is very much improved in

Geo. Scudder has finished work at C. S. Bradley Newell left for Montpelier Mon-

A few from here attended the fair at Athol this week. Calvin Baker is at Templeton caring for er, who is ill.

Stimpson is at home for a short and has been shingling his house. and Mrs. G. N. Upton expect to this week for their new home in

S. E. Jillson, who has been with as in and around Brattleboro since June, returned home Sunday.

WINDHAM.

Miss Libbie Atwood of Foxboro, Mass., isiting in town.

Mrs. L. O. Emerson of Hyde Park, Mass., visiting . L. B. Chapman's. F. H. Harris is on the sick list at Chesr. He has engaged Geo. Brooks of sat place to work for him here in the Revs. F. J. Grimes and A. Hathaway Francis, A. Upham and daughters, A. O. Prentiss and wife, A. J. Stearns and fam-ily, Mrs. Ada Goodell, F. R. Chapman and Miss Frances Goodell, attended the ference st Londonderry this week.

The Man Who Shaves,

whether he does it himself, or allows a barber to torture him,

Actually Suffers,

and no wonder. The delicate cuticle of the face is removed and torn at each "operation." To experience no smarting, burning, itching, or danger of contagion or a chapped skin, use always that cooling, soothing, healing

The Comfort Powder Co., Hartford, Ct.

All Druggists sell it

SOUTH WINDHAM. Mrs. Zeno Howe has as guest a sister from Springfield, Mass.

Mrs. Nichols (formerly Nellie Stowell) and her husband have been at Hollis Stow-

Mrs. Ann Bullock of Rhode Island, a sister of B. F. Jenison, is visiting friends

Mrs. Earl Howe's mother from Massahusetts has come to remain for a time with her.

Road Commissioner Jenison has done a good job of permanent improvement upon the mud hole in front of the post-office. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Goodell have been visiting Mr. Goodell's brother in Deerfield, Mass. Mr. Goodell is now in Montpelier attending to his duties as member of the

Mrs. Jerry Clayton has returned from her visit in Salem, Mass. She is accompanied by her daughter Julia and child. They have moved into W. H. H. Burbee's

Will Tenney has bought the grain building of L. E. Jenison and moved it to land bought of F. O. Smith and converted it into a convenient blacksmith shop. This building has had a migratory existence. It was originally connected with the build-ings on the Goddard farm on land now owned by John Shaw, whence it was moved to a position just below the Burbee mills and occupied as a cooper shop, W. H. Wellman bought and moved it from here to South Windham, occupying it a short time as a blacksmith shop, when it was moved to the place now occupied by L. E. Jenison and thence to its present position.

where we hope it may long remain. Etta, wife of L. E. Harris, died Oct. 2 after a short illness of typhoid pneumonia. She was the daughter of Owen Chase and was born July 26, 1871. Her home has always been here. She was married Sept. 14, 1887, to Lem E. Harris, who is left with two small children to mourn her loss. Mrs. Harris was of an even disposition, which won her many friends, as was shown by the large attendance at the funeral service conducted Sunday afternoon in the church by Rev. C. L. Buckingham. The casket was completely covered with flowers. Mrs. Harris united with the Baptist church in 1893. Besides her husband and chil dren she leaves a father and mother and a large circle of brothers and sisters.

Mrs. Goerge S. Holden of Springfield, Mass., was here to attend the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Etta Harris. Mr. Holden who was formerly a resident here, has been seriously ill with inflammation of the liver, but is now recovering.

WILLIAMSVILLE.

Beath of Alanson Miles.

Alanson Miles d'ed at his home in this village Sunday night. He was born in Ashfield, Mass., Sept. 12, 1815, and fol-lowed the occupation of a farmer in western Massachusetts and in Newf ne and Dummerston dur ng mos; of his active life, He married Parmelia M. Perry of Dover, who survives him, their married life hav ing covered a period of 57 years. He left one son, Cyrus A. Miles of Chicopee Falls. Mass., and an adopted daughter, Mrs. James N. Betterley of Dummerston. Another son, Linus P., died at the front hill a member, of the 11th Regiment, Vermont volunteers. Mr. Miles held the respect of ur communi'y as a man who was straightforward and honest, always ready to bear his share of church and neighborhood bur-dens. His funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at the Methodist church, Rev. A.

O. L. Sherman has been in Boston this week buying goods. E. P. Wheeler and J. H. Merrifield left for Montpelier Tuesday morning. Dana Stedman will have charge of ou railroad station for the next few weeks. Frank E. Willard of the Valley House, outh Deerfield, Mass., made his Williams ville friends a call las, week. Thomas A. Morse, who has recently re-turned from a business trip to the West, reports that the McKir ley sentiment is very much in evidence in that section, notwithstanding the free silver claims. He thinks that Minneso a is as surely Republican as Edgar C. Allen of Brookline, Mass., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Abbie P. Allen. Mrs. Allen, with her daughter, Mrs. A. R. Dunklee, will leave this week to spend the fall and winter with relatives near Spring-

A. Etabrook fficiating.

By Itself.

Welcome Soap should not be compared with other laundry soaps.

It stands in a class by

It is a strong borax soap, absolutely free from corrosives and other adulterations. Lathers freely in hard water, and will not injure the finest

It has a larger sale than any other laundry soap in New England, which is caused by its merit alone, and not by gift enterprises. The prize is in itself. Your clothes will be white, clean, and sweet if you use

HINSDALE, N. H. Mr. Stevens has moved into J. Mullen's

A good number from here attended the Athol fair.

Mrs. E. J. Richards is visiting in Han-Mrs. Cuthbert of Keene is visiting Mrs. Jane Archibald.

Harry Williams of Boston is visiting the Misses Murphy. Deacon Alfred Marble is thought to be mewhat better. William Royce is laying a foundation for barn at his home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Howe visited at G. Howe's recently. George Day made a short visit to Orange

Mrs. Knapp and Mrs. Myron Dickerman visited in Greenfield. Charlie Gray is slowly improving, being able to sit up somewhat. Willie Whitaker visited in Turners Falls he first part of the week. Several new appointments have been made in the fire department.

Miss Carrie Mason of Townshend, (Vt.), visiting at L. F. Liscom's.

Lizzie Barker of Keene spent a few days with Lizzie Robertson recently. Miss Myrtie Safford of Keene has been isiting with relatives in town.

Guy Smith is working at the bakery durg the absence of the proprietor. Prof. C. H. Patterson read a sermon the Universalist church last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Mellvin are visiting n Antrim and Hillsboro for a week. Paul Mann went to Keene Monday to work in Bullard & Shedd's drug store. Chandler Joslyn has cousins from Bridgewater, (Vt.), visiting at his home. George Alexander has been quite ill with neumatic fever, but is now convalescent, Harry, Grace and Alta Faulkner of Whitagham visited at U. U. Brigham's last

Joe Young has finished work at Hillsoro Bridge, and returned to his home

Miss Abbie Hinchey of Hydeville, (Vt.), has resumed her duties as milliner at Mrs. Miss Bertha Hall, who has been spending the summer at Alstead, returned home last Friday. H. E. Parker, a theological student, has een appointed to preach at the Methodist church.

Thos. Smith and Ernest Latham shot a oon Tuesday afternoon, weighing 20 Mrs. Melvin Perham and daughter of Hartford, Conn., are visiting at F. O. Christine Brigham gave a party to a few of her friends to celebrate her sixth birthday anniversary. The W. C. T. U. held an annual meeting last Tuesday. The officers for last year were reelected.

The paper mill owned by G. A. & O. C. Robertson closed last week and is running short time this week. T. Quinn is moving from the rear of Purcell's house on High street into Jack-son's block on Main Street. Miss Lena Denison and friend, Miss May Berkinshaw, returned Monday from the "Sinclair House," Bethlehem.

Miss Caroline Howe returned to Boston Thursday to enter upon her second year at Currier's school of expression. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Saben and child of Bellows Falls are visiting Mr. Saben's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Saben. John Streeter, of Vineland, N. J., is vis-iting at his home. He was delegate to the Populist national convention at St. Louis.

There will be a game of foot ball Saturday between the Hinsdales and Brattle oros, but the place has not been decided. The High school glee club held its first chearsal Wednesday night. They have

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Smith of Gilsum. were visiting at the Congregational parson-age last week and attended the Valley

Ralph Metcalf is president of the Christian Endeavor society instead of Miss Ida Horton, who has resigned, having left

The subject for next Sunday morning's liscourse at the Congregational church is 'Two kinds of rewards.' All are cordially

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilder and son, Robert, of Millers Falls, visited in town the Robert will remain here for the present.

The second Republican rally will be held at the town hall Oct. 21. Hon. Frank G. Clarke, candidate for Congress, will deliv-

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Higgins are taking a carriage drive to Rutland and vicinity visiting Mr. Higgins's sister, Mrs. Perkins, and other friends

the Bible' was the subject last Sunday Miss Julia Smith, formerly of Hinsdale, has bought out a boarding house in Fitch-burg, Mass., and her sister Dora and her ousin, Miss Julia Streeter, have gone to work for her. The Hinsdale Reserve base ball team was defeated at Northfield, Saturday,by a score of 7 to 6. The Northfields came here Wednesday afternoon and were de-After the regular meeting of the Odd Fellows Monday night a supper was served and a pleasant social held, with music by the male quartet. Card playing was en-

Mrs. M. H. Bardwell, who has been an invalid for years, has gone to Greenfield to visit her sister, Mrs. Newton. This is the first time in 18 years that Mrs. Bardwell has been out of town. Word was received Wednesday that Rev.

Father Wilde was coming home Thursday.

Although the party had not shot a deer they had seen many small ones. They are waiting for larger game. The Red Men's annual meeting was ad-The Red Men's annual meeting was adjourned from Tuesday until next week Tuesday on account of the Republican rally. At this meeting three persons will take the third or warrior's degree.

Mrs. Cornelius Fitzgerald has gone to spend the winter with her husband at Au-burn, N. Y., where he has charge of a gas plant. Miss Mary Fitzgerald has fur-nished a room in her brother's brick house on Main street and the Fitzgerald home

Oscar Cooper and Miss Marion Martell of Boston were united in marriage at Mr. Cooper's home on Wednesday evening by the Rev. W. E. Renshaw. This is the fifth couple united in marriage by Mr. Renshaw on Kilburn street during the year.

The Wool Reporter states that Superintendent R. A. Clogher has taken the posi-tion of superintendent of the Taconic mill, Pittsfieldt Mass. This is a mistake.

Mr. R. T. Caldwell, is book-keeper in the First National Bank of Fulton, Ky.
"I was completely run down, My nerves became so unstrung through loss of sleep and worry that I felt sure I would be compelled to give up my position. I would lie awake all pight long, and it took but little to shake me up so that I could not possibly attend to my business as I should. In connection with this I had liver trouble.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. I first procured a trial bottle from a loca had used this up I was a different man. I mnow on my third bottle and am able to eep soundly and eat regularly, something could not possibly do before taking your revine. I am now fully recovered, and do not esitate to pronounce Dr. Miles' Restorative ervine the greatest nervine on earth."

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. All druggists sell it at $1,6 bottles for $5,0 r it will be sent, prepaid, on receipt of price by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind. Dr. Miles' Nervine Restores ... Health

The Mr. Clogher referred to is a brother of R. A. Clogher of this place, and was for merly superintendent at Hinsdale, Mass. The many friends of Connie Murphy will be glad to read the following item clip-ped from the Sporting News: "Connie Murphy, the backstop of the New Bed-fords, will remain in New Bedford during the winter, having been offered the posi-tion as overseer of the Spray company's yarn mills at a salary of $12 a week. Connie will also add materially to his weekly stipend as ticket receiver evenings at the new grand opera house." An alarm was rung in at 9 o'clock Saturday morning for a fire in the house on Northfield street occupied by E. Ducette and owned by P. W. Taylor. When the fire department arrived Rev. W. E. Renshaw had extinguished the fire. On investigation it was found that it caught from snap matches in a vest which had fallen on the floor and been stepped upon accidentally. It had been smouldering for some time and a large quantity of clothing was ruined, including a new suit and overcoat. Loss on clothing $75. Mrs. Emily Taylor Wells, whom we mentioned as being very ill two weeks ago, passed away Sept. 30, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. B. Humphrey, at Oak Park, Ill. Although not a native of Hins-dale, she came here to reside when about a year old. She was educated in the com-mon schools here and at the academy at Meriden, and taught school in Boons'ille, Miss., and Music, Iowa, for a number of years. Returning here in 1851 she mar-ried Rev. Moses H. Wells, then pastor of the Congregational church. For ten years they remained here and never were pastor and wife more beloved. After leaving here they lived in Lyndon and Waterbury, and Claremont (N. H.). Mr. Wells retired from the ministry they moved to Northfield, Mass., where they resided until the death of Mr. Wells in December 1893, when Mrs. Wells went live with her only daughter at Oak Park, Ill. The remains were brought here Sat-The funeral was held at the ho of her brother, P. W. Taylor, on Northfield street, the old Taylor homestead, Rev. W. E. Renshaw conducting the service. The burial was in Pine Grove cemetery. Although not personally acquainted we are told that "Never a better woman lived than

The Republican campaign opened here fuesday night when Senator Gallinger of oncord delivered an address in the town hall, before an audience of 700 people, on the political issues of the day. The drum corps played in front of the town hall while the people flocked in. About 8 o'clock Senator Gallinger appeared and was received with hearty applause. After music by the male quartet, composed of Messrs, Leonard, Mason, Holland and Snow, Hon. C. J. Amidon, president of the Republican club, introduced the speaker, whose principal topic was the financial question. He illustrated the ways that the Mexican and Chinese live under Mr. and Mrs. E. Valmore Aldrich, who have been at Sunset Hill House, Sugar Hill, N. H., for the summer, returned home Thursday of last week.

The pastor of the Congregational church is, from time to time, giving a series of lectures on the Bible. 'The chronology of the Public was the subject last Synday in the mill variety by the public was the subject last Synday in the mill variety by the public was the subject last Synday in the mill variety by the public was the subject last Synday in the mill variety by the public was the subject last Synday in the mill variety by the public was the subject last Synday in the mill variety by the public was the subject last Synday in the mill variety by the public was the subject last Synday in the mill variety by the public was the subject last subject last subject last who have been at Sunset Hill House, Sugar and Chinese live under free silver. Four years ago he delivered an address at Winchester when he predicted that if the Democratic party came into power the grass would be growing in the mill yards of this valley. While passing the production of the congregation of that two crops of grass had been cut this season from the mill yard there, and all hrough the valley it was the same. delegations were present from Winchester and Northfield. It seemed like the good old Republican times to see C. J. Amidon presiding. Among those seated on the stage were Lawyer brigham, Dr. Pierce and Henry Abbott of Winchester. After the speaker had finished C. J. Amidon moved that three cheers be given for Senator Gallinger, also three for McKinley and Hobart, which were given with enthusiasm. The exercises closed with a song by the quartet.

WILMINGTON. A Chicago despatch to the Bosto Globe dated Sept. 29, contained the fol-lowing: Josiah Barnard and his wife to day celebrated their golden wedding. Mr. Barnard was born in Wilmington, (Vt.) in 1817. He was married in 1846 to Miss Johanna S. Carter of Mt. Vernon, O.

Almost every man in America has some digestive trouble. When men meet, the greeting usually is "Well, how's your liver?" That developes health talk. The man who has no stom-ach or bowel trouble is almost a curiosity. Trouble men take no bowels of brass. By and by, overworked nature rebels. Then come headaches, nervousness, bad blood, liver and kidney troubles.

troubles.
Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets furnish. help for constipation and torpid liver, sick and bilious beadache, dizziness, sour stomach, loss of appetite, indigestion, or dyopepsia, windy belchings, "heartburn," pain and distress after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. Accept no substitute.

"GREATEST ON EARTH." Glenwood Ranges

up to date and moderate in price

Eight New Patterns of Oil Heaters.

EMERSON & SON

Furniture, Carpets, Crockery, Stoves.

Looks

the Equitable Society sends us the following graphic illustration of his feelings: "Twenty years ago when I was induced by a persistent agent to take out my endowment policy, the premium looked very large and appeared to

$49.79

While the Endowment, looked at through the wrong end of the telescope of 20 years apeared like this, ow, my policy has matured, and coming, just

W. H. S. WHITCOMB, Gen. Agt.

amounts that would have been saved, in ne

100 Church St., Burlington. GEO. M. MOORE, Tyson, Vt., agent for Wind-AYER & SHELLEY, Bellows Falls, Vt., agents J. H. Merrifield, agent, Williamsville, Vt.

DESKS.

line of d d'can name some low price . them, as we have some spet , bargains from $5 to $10; also a new line of BOOK CASES

At very low prices. A good, solid oak book case only $4.75, the greatest bargain, we have ever of

FURNITURE COVERINGS

A new line at 50 cents per yard that is the best goods ever offered for the money. Do you want to recover your furniture with some thing that will wear well and hold its color, these are the goods to buy. Also, a full line of

AND TRIMMINGS From 20 cents upwards.

RETTING BROTHERS

DRAPERY POLES

C. P. GILSON, Auctioneer,

West Chesterfield, N. H., CALES attended to in New Hampshire, Very mont and Massachusetts. Connected by te ephone. Orders may be left at The Phosnix Office, Brattleboro, Vt. 25—47

For Sale. THE ROOT PLACE, so called, pleasantly lo-Lated in the village of Newfane; house with Lacontaining eight rooms, with shed and barn attached, large garden. A very desirable home for a small family. MRS. A.E. FREAM. Apply to N. M. HATCHELDER, Newfane, Vt.

$20 Reward. STOLEN, the 18th of December, 1895, a tall coon dog five years old, three quarters bound gray with black spots and black ears. W. W. MERRIAM, Northfield, Mass.

HEREBY FORBID all persons harboring trusting my miner daughter, Mary L. Rick through the remainder of her minority as I she claim none of her wages nor pay any of hebits after this date.

Wardshoro, Vt., Sept. 26, 1896.

FALL AND WINTER CLOTHING.

Suits and Overcoats Latest Styles in Tailor Made Garments

At Low Prices.

Extra Value in 50 Cent Underwear

Full Stock of Furnishings, Trunks, Bags and Umbrellas.

Custom Clothing a Specialty

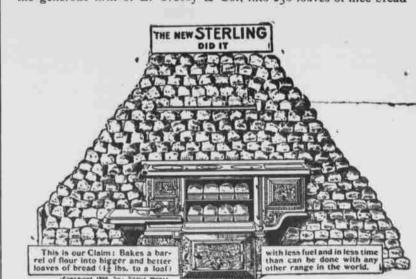

Cloths fot Clothing Made to Measure in All the Latest Shades and Styles.

PRATT, WRIGHT & CO

Baking Extraordinary

Extraordinary Baking

Last week we told you what we proposed to do, and this week we will tell you what we did do with the celebrated Sterling Range. We baked a barrel of the celebrated Gold Medal flour contributed by the generous firm of E. Crosby & Co., into 256 loaves of nice bread :

in six hours and fifty minutes, with thirty pounds of coal, in the presence of 300 to 400 people and 16 to 1 we can do it every day in the year, Sundays excepted, during the administration of Wm. Mc-parity beetwen dough and oven This celebrated range is now on exhibition and for sale at the 23 year old stand of

A. V. COX & CO

Cox's Block, Brattleboro, Vt.

I. O. O. F BLOCK.

Have you tried our Chase & Sanborn's

Package Teas? They are the best thing in the market

MAIN STREET,

Our Coffees Cannot be Excelled for Quality.

> Trade in these goods convinces 'us that the goods and prices are both You will save 10 per fcent by

BOND'S CASH STORE

7 Main Street.

Latest Styles In Fall Goods

Custom Clothing.

Call in and look them over.

W. H. HAIGH, Elliot Street.

JULIUS C. TIMSON, Insurance, Real Estate and Auctioneering.

CLAREMONT, N. H.

Dissolution Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that the partnership beretofore existing between S. H. Roberts and W. H. Jacobs, in the blacksmith business on Canal street has been dissolved today. All persons owing this firm are requested to call at the old stand and settle as soon as convenient.

37—39 ROBERTS & JACOBS.

Brattleboro, Vt., Sept. 8, 1896.