Another brilliant feature was the Bradley-Martin minuet performed by Ralph Pettee and Addie Warner, E. Marion Knight and Edwina Whitney, Rollin White and May Spear, George Childs and Judith Allen, Kendall Severance and Pauline Jenne, Howard Wellman and Alice Colt, labot of Brattleboro. Mrs. L. H. Richardson was taken seriously ill last week, and the local physicians, believing that she was suffering from appendicitis, summoned Dr. Gay of Roston in consultation. He pronounced their diagnosis correct, performed an operation which was entirely successful, and Mrs. Richardson is now recovering.

This was in imitation of an English court dance, the costumes worn being of Louis XIV style. It was executed by children for the first time under Mr. Waler's instruction and was beautifully done, the children exhibiting a grace and precision of movement not equalled in any other dance. The exhibition program closed with "Portland Fancy." Mrs. Richardson is now recovering. The Mt. Holyoke College Glee and Banjo club, of which Marion Adams, formerly of Brattleboro, is a member, started Wednesday for a week's concert tour. The tiub will give six concerts, visiting Hartford, New Haven, New York city, Montciair, N. J., Mt. Holly and Easton, Pa. The trip is taken for the purpose of raising money for the endowment fund of the college.

Col. E. H. Chase is making rapid im-provement in health. He has been dressed and about his rooms at the Brooks House during the past week, and in Tuesday's subshine walked out door upon the balcony. Last Sunday was the 25th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr.

father being a major in the state militia. Mr.
Houghton's parents moved to Vernon, this state, when he was but six weeks old. As there were no railroad facilities at that time the whole journey, a distance of over 20 miles, was made on a horse sled. Mr. Houghton lived in Vernon until he was 12 years old when he went to Worcester.
Mass. to work in the grocery store of Harrison Bliss, which he and a Mr. Gregory bought out a little late. In 1850, a year after the gold craze in California broke out, he went to California in search of the precious metal, and always called himself one of the Gers. He remained in the mines but one year before he went into the milk business, which in those days brought a lucrative return, milk selling as high as $1 a quart. Six years from the time he left Worcester he return ed to the old homestead in Vernon to cine for his aged parents, and lived there until 1889, when he rented the farm and came to Bratileboro.
Since then he has had no particular ousines.
He married Miss Sarah M. Johnson of Vernon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson, No.
2, 1859. They had three enisitien. One son, Fred, formerly with Ranger & Thompson died at the age of 25. The others are Mrs. Kate M. Fratt and M.Jor C. Houghton of Brattleboro. Mr. Houghton's health began to fail three years ago last September and his decline since then has been gradual. He leaves a hoother, C. C. Houghton, a boot and shoe manufacturer of Worcester, and

But it was the fourth age that "brought down the house." The effects of a stroke of paralysis. Mrs. Putnam was one of ten children of Watson and Desiah Crosby one of ten children of Watson and Desiah Crosby and was born in West Brattleboro April 16, 1811. She lived in West Brattleboro until her marriage. Nov. 5, 1837, when she came to this village and lived until Crosby block was built. She and her husband were the first family to take rooms in the new block. She was the mother of three children of whom Julius K. four years old, died in 1845, Herbert D. 20 years old, died in 1864 and Joseph 18, C., 32 years old, died in 1879. Of her father's family only one son is living, Henry B. Crosby of Patterson, N. J., who is now in Florida for his health. Dr. and Mrs. Putnam celebrated their golden wedding anniversary 10 years ago. Two years ago Mrs. Putnam had a slight paralytic shock and had since been gradually failing, taking to her bed about three months ago. She was one of the oldest members of the Centre Congregational church. The funeral will be held at the rosms in the block at 2 o clock today. Rov. C. O. Day officiating. The burial will be in Prospect Hill cemetery. 'Irish wash-woman" was fairly out-done by Marjorie Crosby and Helen Childs in the Irish lilt. From the time of their appearance, which was in appropriate cos-tume, to the end of their dance these midg-ets kept the audience in an uproar with their characteristic Irish antics and gesticulations. A further advancement was the lawn tennis dance by Flossie Howe and Lawrence Barber in tidy white costumes. They carried racquets and gracefully de-lineated the various movements in a game of tennis. The sixth age was that in which was solemnized the marriage vow. Pearl Gibson acted the part of a bride and wore a white costume with a bridal veil. How-ard Wellman was the groom. The couple WILLIAM WINSLOW. For women's wear. The advance styles for the coming season are here in bewildering variety for your inspection. Several hundreds of them. Silks, satines, lappet mulls, organdies and dimities. Prices from 69 cents to $5.00 apiece. Very good time to make selections while the assortment is so complete and varied. Some are dainty, thin things for evening or a hot day, others are suitable for immediate or all the year round wear like the new "metallic satines." These are black and colored grounds with silver or gilt touched figures, warranted not to tarnish, and a silky fabric. One style, unlined, with white collar, $1.85. Another, lined with bolero front and self collar high in back of neck, $2.00.

Women's ready to wear Suits and Separate Skirts are coming in and going out all the time now. We are trying to do better and better for our customers in this department. Stock is larger than ever betore and we need patronage from all the surrounding towns as well as our home trade to warrant a continuance of so large an assortment. We are confident of having found the right tailors and are certainly satisfied with as reasonable profit as any of the large city stores.

We have already here a tew desirable Spring Coats. More coats and capes will soon be What few last season's summer coats we carried over go now at half price, and there is cloth enough in the sleeves to make an "up to date" shape it one will take the trouble of making the change.

In summer capes we did not carry over a single one so there will be new ones only when they get here.

Last call on the few winter garments we have left--do not expect to have to carry a single one over.
