

THE PUTNEY COLUMN.

HINSDALE, N. H.

Placed Guilty. Fred Tibbetts Confessed to Stealing Money from Ethna Wilson and Was Sentenced Wednesday to the Reform School.

Fred Tibbetts, 15-year-old son of George Tibbetts who moved to Gardner, Mass., last week, was arrested Monday night by Deputy Sheriff A. W. J. Wilkins on a state's attorney's complaint charging him with the larceny of money from Ethna Wilson, who lives on the Brattleboro road. It will be remembered that on Sept. 4 Mr. Wilson discovered that his pocket-book had been relieved of $80 in cash. He put the money into the wallet Aug. 21 and put the wallet into the pocket of some trousers which he was not wearing in order to keep it until a certain insurance premium became due. When the money was missed Mr. Wilson and others at once suspected Tibbetts. On last week Tibbetts was closely questioned about the matter, and he confessed that he stole the money, but stated that he was assisted by Kittredge Dean, a lad about Tibbetts' age, who lives near C. E. Gildenden's. A hearing was set for Wednesday, at which time State's Attorney Barber of Brattleboro appeared for the state. Lawyer C. G. Pitts of Brattleboro for Dean, who was arrested Wednesday. Dean denied being implicated in the matter and the case against him was not pressed. Tibbetts pleaded guilty and was sentenced to the reform school until he becomes of age. Deputy Sheriff Wilkins took Tibbetts to the reform school last night. The sentence seems rather severe, but it is as light as could be given under the circumstances. It is probable, however, that Tibbetts will be released in a year or two if he behaves himself. The hearing was before Justice A. J. Ayer.

Death of Miss Mary Teft.

Much sorrow was occasioned here Tuesday morning by the receipt by Clarke A. Teft of the news of the death of his daughter, Mary, at the Springfield, Mass., hospital. Mr. Teft went to Springfield on the morning train and returned at night with the body. The funeral was held at the home of Miss Teft's aunt, Mrs. C. B. Willard, Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Edwin F. Mitchell officiating. The burial was in Maple Grove cemetery. Miss Teft was the daughter of Clarke and Frances Teft and was born in Putney 13 years ago last April. She possessed a beautiful complexion, and was always cheerful in appearance, and was loved by her mates and friends. She had been at work in Springfield for some months. She died Monday morning after a few hours' illness with acute Bright's disease. Besides her parents she leaves a younger sister, Evelyn, and two brothers, Walter and Allen, the latter living in Minneapolis, Minn.

Opportunity For Humane Work.

The October number of Humane Christian Culture is typographically a long distance ahead of any of the preceding numbers. The editor makes a plain statement as to the condition of things in this town. He says: "It is with great regret to many that the office of publication was removed from Putney. It was hoped the magazine would be taken to that locality for good. No town in Vermont, in size, offers better opportunity for humane work than Putney, for there is a great deal of inhumanity and cruelty to animals there. Several cases of cruelty now are being considered, and it is earnestly hoped that at least three or four convictions can be secured for the moral benefit it will be to the locality. Horsey walking on three legs, dlying at the plough and drawing loads under the ugly blows of a club, ought not to be tolerated by good citizens, say nothing of those especially interested in dumb creatures."

Dorr Clough went to Boston yesterday.

Mrs. George Howard is visiting her son Albert in South Framingham, Mass. Mrs. Fritz Crawford is in Boston Tuesday to undergo a surgical operation. W. T. Sparhawk of Randolph will preach in the Congregational church next Sunday. Mrs. George Johnson and daughter, Cora, returned Friday from a visit in Boston. Mrs. J. A. Starbird of Mechanicville is spending the week with old neighbors and acquaintances. Dr. George S. Foster, M. D. Whitman and W. D. Waite attended the Dewey celebration in Montpelier this week.

N Cobb, Jr., of Putney Falls has filed a schedule in bankruptcy.

His liabilities amount to $1374 and his assets to $949. W. E. Holt, who drives for F. L. Pierce, has moved into A. W. J. Wilkins's tenement recently vacated by Ira Deavenport. The ladies' society of the Congregational church are invited to meet with Mrs. H. L. Pierce next Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 7 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Stevens, who have been visiting Mrs. Stevens's sister, Mrs. George Littlefield, went to Chester Saturday for a visit. Henry Warren of Charlestown, Mass., is visiting at Dr. Foster's. We don't suppose the hunting season had anything to do with his coming to Putney. George Bush, who has been at work in F. L. Pierce's mill, has returned to Brookline, Mr. Pierce having moved his back-knife lathe to his Brookline mill.

Mrs. H. D. Barber and two children of Polo, Ill., who have been visiting at Mrs. Fanny Baker's, left Monday for their home. They were in the White mountains the past summer.

Messrs. Wilson of North Hadley, Mass., and Haas of Hartford, Conn., have been in town this week looking for tobacco. Several buyers have been in town recently, but only one or two crops have been sold.

Mr. and Mrs. Soton Littlefield and child of Springfield, Mass., are visiting at George Littlefield's. Mr. Littlefield is recovering from an injury to his shoulder which he received in an electric railroad accident.

The old officers of the Putney Creamery association will again "hold over." A call was issued for the annual meeting to be held on Thursday of last week, but there was not a sufficient number present to transact business.

A. H. Overman of the Overman Wheel company, who owns a summer residence across the river in Westmoreland, sailed from New York for Europe Wednesday accompanied by Elmer DeGowen, another member of the company. They took with them one of the company's automobiles.

"A Heart as sturdy as an Oak."

But what about the blood which the heart must pump at the rate of 70 times every minute? If the heart is to be sturdy and the arteries which carry the blood must be rich and pure. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes sturdy hearts because it makes good blood. It gives to men and women strength, confidence, courage and endurance.

Hood's Pills are non-nourishing and the only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Beauty is Clean Deep.

Clean blood makes skin. Clean skin. No beauty without clean skin. Clean skin. No beauty without clean blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla cleans your blood and keeps it clean, by stirring up the "lazy" and driving all impurities from the body. Begin today to banish pimples, boils, blotches, blackheads, and that sickly bilious complexion by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. All druggists, satisfaction guaranteed. 10, 25, 50 c.

Fisher of the High school was in Boston over Sunday. Willie Lechance, clerk in F. H. Fuller's store, is enjoying a few days' vacation. Mrs. Foster Stearns of Northfield, Mass., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Gale. The Chautauque circle will meet with Miss Jessie M. Bardwell Monday evening. Mrs. Geo. L. Kibbe of Worcester, Mass., came here for a few days' visit Saturday. William Seaver of Gardner, Mass., recently visited his sister, Mrs. H. W. Taylor. Dr. A. E. Houle and family left for their new home in Hanover Saturday night. Mrs. David Nims is in Keene this week, called there by the illness of her son's wife. Recent guests at C. C. Holton's were Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Moore of Dover, Vt. Mrs. Sarah Knight of Hancock is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Gilbert Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. Moody of Lowell, Mass., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Tildon. The Woman's Relief corps held a social at Grand Army hall Thursday afternoon. L. W. Goss entertained a brother and a niece from Vermont for a few days recently. The W. L. Goodnow company has sent out next announcements of fall goods and fall prices. Miss Bertha Hall has returned from the seashore, where she has been employed in a summer hotel. Miss Mary C. Duggan left Saturday for Boston, where she has a position in one of the large stores. Mrs. Melissa Howard is making a few days' visit in Farley, Ashburnham and Fitzburg, Mass. Frank Phillips and family have moved here from Providence, R. I., and are living on the Brattleboro road. M. D. White went to Claremont Wednesday as a delegate from the local order of Red Men to a state meeting. Presiding Elder G. W. Norris held the third quarterly conference at the Cavalry Methodist church Thursday evening. William O'Connell fell from a tree while picking apples Saturday and sustained a serious sprain of the right shoulder. Thomas Cunningham of Beecher's Falls, Vt., is visiting his mother and sister, Mrs. Cunningham and Miss Kate Cunningham. Mrs. Jennie Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Cody and child of Cleveland, Ohio, were at Hotel Ashuelot for a short stay this week. The junior class of the High school were guests of Miss Lizzie Gray at her Brattleboro street home last week Friday evening. Mrs. E. M. Forbes of Portland, Me., formerly of Winchester, was entertained by Mrs. Newton Stearns for a short time last week. Mr. and Mrs. Stone of Marlow spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Goddard recently. Mrs. Stone is a sister of Mrs. Goddard. W. G. Booth and family have moved from upper Canada to the city house, recently vacated by Mr. Berkenshaw, on Prospect street. There will be an adjourned meeting of the W. C. T. U. Tuesday, Oct. 17, for the election of officers. It is hoped all members will be present. John Ennis of East Arlington, Vt., and Mrs. Myrtle Johnson of "Innall" Vt., were guests of Rev. W. E. Kenshaw at the Congregational parsonage on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Blanchard were pleased with a visit this week from a nephew, Wm. Marsh of Chester, Vt., whom they had not seen for nine years. Ora L. May of Worcester, Mass., is a son of Lyman May of North Hinsdale, was instantly killed by the cars while driving across the track at Worcester last week Friday. Mrs. F. P. Hinds went to Northfield, Vt., Wednesday to be present at the laying of the cornerstone of Dewey hall. She also attended the Dewey celebration at Montpelier. Edward Harvey, who was married at Spofford last week to Miss Ida Pertridge, a former Brattleboro teacher, is well known here, having at one time been employed at Bliss's meat market. Dr. C. A. Gray has discontinued his Brattleboro office and will devote his time to Hinsdale, excepting Wednesdays, when he will attend the sessions of the pension board at Brattleboro. Mrs. L. P. Wise, accompanied by her milliner, Miss Hulet, has been in Boston this week buying fall millinery. They returned Wednesday evening and are prepared to show a fine line of goods. Miss Abbie Hinchie of Hanover, formerly a milliner at the store of Mrs. L. P. Wise in this town, is reported to have fallen heir to about $15,000 by the will of her uncle, who has recently died in Hanover. The Choral Union class which is being formed is receiving enthusiastic support and is rapidly filling up. Any who would like to join are requested to give their names to Miss A. M. Barrows as early a date as possible. The family of Bert Hamlin, who have occupied a tenement in Parks block on Oak street since its completion, are packing their household goods for removal to Yantic, Conn. Mr. Hamlin is employed as a loom fixer in a woolen mill. Mrs. E. C. Robertson and Mrs. M. E. Fay conducted a prayer meeting last night at the meeting of the Pilgrim Fathers last Friday evening, which was greatly enjoyed. Mrs. M. C. Dix and Mrs. F. H. Jones will have charge of the entertainment at the next meeting. Mrs. E. C. Snow, who underwent a serious operation at a Boston hospital last week, is doing well and will soon be able to come home. The operation, which lasted for about three hours, was for necrosis of the bone of the ear, and was performed by a specialist assisted by two other physicians. A large delegation of the local Odd Fellows is considering the holding of a Choral union being organized in town, which it is to be hoped is a possibility of the near future. The board of education will allow the free use of the High school building for practice, and a director can be secured at very little expense to the members, should the project be carried into effect. Mrs. Betsy Stearns passed her 87th milestone Sunday. Notwithstanding her advanced age she keeps well informed as to what is going on in the world, and is a bright, interesting conversationalist. Her health is fairly good, and her mental faculties are retained to an unusual degree. Mr. Stearns is familiarly known as "Aunt Betsy." The harvest dinner, which was served

Death of Eliza A. Robinson.

Eliza A. Robinson died at her home near this village last Friday morning. She had been in failing health for about three years as the result of a stroke of paralysis. She was born Aug. 10, 1831, being one of the four children of Capt. Aaron C. and Betsey C. Robinson. Her earlier years were spent as a school teacher in Newfane and vicinity. Her home has always been at the Robinson homestead, where for many years she has lived in the family of her sister, Mrs. Dennis A. Dickinson, whose death occurred Dec. 19, 1897. Miss Robinson, although a person who found her sphere of duty largely in her own home, was a highly valued and respected member of our community. Her work in all that pertained to the interests of the Universalist church, with which she was identified, was constant and lifelong. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Oscar L. Sherman of this village. Her funeral was held Sunday afternoon at her late home, Rev. Dwight A. Ball officiating.

A. T. Morse of Holyoke, Mass., recently visited at Thomas A. Morse's.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Cota made a recent visit to friends at Bellows Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Ball of Athens were recent visitors at Rev. D. A. Ball's.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Aiken of Jamaica are at Fred Houghton's for a visit.

A harvest concert will be given at the Universalist church next Sunday evening. Miss Minnie Moore is in Boston this week making purchases of fall and winter millinery.

Rev. D. A. Ball will attend the biennial session of the Universalist General convention at Boston next week.

Mrs. Lina Miles of Chelsope Falls Mass., visited her grandmother, Mrs. Alanson Miles, the past week.

Miss Mattie Metcalf of Wrentham, Mass., is stopping at present at the home of her father, John O. Metcalf.

Merchant and Mrs. C. E. Park are in Boston this week, where Mr. Park is purchasing his fall and winter stock of goods.

James McCarry has returned from Agawan, Mass., and will take a position for the fall and winter with Sam H. Morse.

The Epworth league juniors give a literary entertainment followed by something to eat at the Methodist vestry this, Friday, evening.

The music social given by the Universalist ladies at village hall Wednesday evening was well attended and proved an interesting occasion.

Irving Ingram, a former resident of this place, but now engaged in the meat business at South Royalton, called on his friends here the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roswell W. Robertson of South Charlestown, N. H., came here to attend the funeral of their cousin, Miss Robinson, and have been calling on their relatives in the place.

James Mundell of Brookside has bought of William A. Brooks the Charles Dexter farm about a mile north of this village. Mr. Mundell buys the place for the purpose of making it his home.

Mrs. Minnie Easton, who has been at the home of her father, Luke J. Morse, for a few weeks, left Wednesday with her little girl for Bennington, where they will make their home for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Granger and daughter, Isabella, of San Fernando, Calif., are visiting at Gilbert B. Lamb's. Mr. Granger is a former New Englander and a civil engineer who took part in the construction of the Hoosac Tunnel.

None of our citizens attended the Dewey celebration at Montpelier. The feeling seems to prevail here that there will be a chance to get a sight of the Admiral in a more comfortable way when he comes to visit his Brattleboro relatives.

Mrs. Mary Q. Lincoln is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. O. Jennison of Windham. She meets there another sister, Mrs. L. D. Atkinson of Brooklyn, N. Y., with her daughter, Miss Winnie M. Atkinson, a bookkeeper in a large New York city establishment. This is the first meeting of the sisters for several years.

Mrs. Marium Winchester has sold her house in this village to Lyman B. Powers of Marlboro, reserving the use of a certain portion of it during her lifetime. Mr. Powers will move his family here before winter. He makes the change mainly for the purpose of getting the benefit of our excellent school privileges.

Rev. A. A. Estabrook is at Vergennes this week attending the annual state convention of the Sons of Temperance as delegate from Excelsior division of this village. Mr. Estabrook is able to report a flourishing condition of the order locally, a considerable number of new members having joined during the past year, and a good degree of interest prevailing.

A Pennsylvania jury has given a woman $2500 damages for shock sustained by stepping on an electric light company's wire.

A hot wave struck California Monday. At San Francisco the temperature was 94 degrees, Los Angeles 100 degrees and Sonoma 108 degrees.

Neither Col. Goulding nor Col. Kidder, aides on Hooker's staff, went to Montpelier yesterday, and as far as we know the town was not represented.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Corkins returned Tuesday from New York where they have been for two weeks or more. They were present on the great Dewey day and had a fine view of the parade.

The harvest supper and fair at the Methodist church on Tuesday evening was well attended and an enjoyable time was experienced by all present. Over $50 was realized from the evening's sale.

Memorial services were held at the Congregational church last Sunday afternoon in honor of the late John C. Newton. A special train containing about 200 persons came up from Monroe Bridge. The church was filled to overflowing. Rev. Mr. Estabrook conducted the services assisted by Rev. F. S. Walker and Rev. Mr. Kenyon of Readsboro. Col. J. H. Goulding also made a short address, speaking of Mr. Newton especially as a member of his Sunday school class. Appropriate musical selections were rendered by the choir under the direction of Mrs. Kidder.

Miss Metta S. Alvord died at the Franklin county hospital, Greenfield, on Thursday, Sept. 28, from the effects of an operation for a tumor. Miss Alvord was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Alvord and was born in this town on the old homestead. For a number of years she has lived in Greenfield. She was a woman of sterling worth and character and her sudden death brings sorrow to a large circle of friends. She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Gould of Townshend, Mrs. H. A. Ware of Wilmington, and one brother, Frank H., also of this town. A short service was held from her late home in Greenfield Saturday. The body was brought to this place and funeral services were held at the house of Mrs. Harriet J. Alvord, Rev. I. S. Yerks officiating.

Services in the Unitarian church will be conducted for the next two Sundays at the usual morning hour in the Sunday school room by a layman, followed by the Sunday school. Next Sunday J. Murray Ware will conduct the services.

BE SURE.

Be sure you need medicine before you take it, but having once found out that you need it—lose no time in getting the best. If it's for the kidneys, liver, bladder or blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia or chronic constipation, the best is Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, a very simple way to find out if you need it is to put some urine in a glass tumbler and let it stand 94 hours, if it is rosy or stringy, pale or discolored, you do not need a physician to tell you that you should take Favorite Remedy at once. It speedily cures such dangerous symptoms as pain in the back, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night, burning scaling pain in passing water, the stinging of lines by your urine and all the unpleasant and dangerous effects produced on the system by the use of whiskey and beer. All reliable druggists sell Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy at $1 a bottle or six bottles for $5.

By a special and particular arrangement with the manufacturers, our readers can try this grand medicine absolutely free. By simply sending your full name and post-office address to the DR. DAVID KENNEDY CORPORATION, Rondout, N. Y., mentioning The Vermont Phoenix, when a trial bottle of Favorite Remedy, together with a pamphlet of valuable medical advice, will be sent you by mail postpaid.
