The Fashion Plate Shows.

The Syracuse Telegram of May 21 has the following to say of the Fashion Plate Shows, which exhibit here on Tuesday, Sept. 18:

"Among the others in the show are the Brothers Pettit, aerial hat performers; Genero and Theol, equilibrist; four Salvinis, acrobats; the three Barnells, in artistic stunts and juggling; Judge Brothers on the perpendicular ladders; Reno McCree, Frane Reed, Rose Reed and May Davenport, rough bareback riders."

ers, and the Zouaves in a fancy drill."

"There were several thousand people in front of the gates when they opened at 1 o'clock this afternoon, and an hour later, when the show began, at least 8,000 people were under the tent. Notwithstanding the fact that the show has only been on the road three weeks, it is no exaggeration to say that the show is as good, if not better, than any similar affair that has ever been seen in this city."

"There were many new features in the circus line introduced during the course of the performance that were entirely out of the ordinary, and were well received. Prof. Dookerill, with his six three horses on pedestals and pyramids, perhaps forms one of the most interesting parts of the show. Then there was Madam Marantette, who has just completed a tour of England with her high jumping ponies and horses."

Miss Helen E. Thompson of the Burnham classical school and Miss Martha Burnham of Northampton, who have been spending their vacation in Brattleboro, returned yesterday.

A letter was received this morning from Miss Susan E. Clark of West Brattleboro, dated at Plombieres Les Bains, France, in which she says: "I am quietly resting, with my friends, in this quaint old town, where excavations reveal old Roman baths, which are now in use, the waters being hot and highly medicinal. It is near the border of Switzerland, and the scenery is rugged with the chalets of the peasants sprinkled in the nooks of the high hills around the town."

A Card.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to all who so kindly assisted at the burial of our little darling Helen and to all who gave the beautiful floral pieces and to the minister and singers who so kindly rendered such a beautiful service.
