The Vermont Phoenix.

BRATTLEBORO, FRIDAY, JUNE 17, 1904.

THE VERMONT PHOENIX.

Published every Friday at Brattleboro, Vt., by O. L. FRENCH.

TERMS: $1.50 per year in advance; if not paid within the year $2. Rates of advertising furnished on application. Births, deaths and marriages published free. Obituary Notices, Cards of Thanks, etc., 75 cents per line of 12 lines or less. (Entered at the Brattleboro Post Office as second class mail matter.)

The Illinois Democratic state convention at Springfield this week instructed its national convention delegates to vote for Hearst.

It is "said" in Washington, since the appointment of Attorney General Knox to the Senate, that Secretary Moody will succeed to Mr. Knox's place in the Cabinet, that after the campaign Secretary Cortelyou will become postmaster general, and that Representative Mead of California will take Mr. Cortelyou's place in the Cabinet.

They would have none of Dowie and his Zionist evangelism in London. He began in that city in the same blatant, abusive way that he adopted in New York, with the result that he had quickly to flee the city, leaving a great meeting which he had called to wait in vain for his appearance. His slanders on the King had closed every hotel to him and a movement was on foot for a protest against his visit to the British lines whereupon to cross the Atlantic.

It is strongly known that the czar was originally strongly opposed to the war with Japan, but he is now represented as having been won over to the belief that the war has aroused patriotic enthusiasm throughout the empire, and he is said recently to have expressed his willingness to sacrifice a million men if necessary to defeat Japan. At this stage of the game it looks as if it might require every one of the million to accomplish the Russian purpose.

To assure the independence of Korea, to guarantee the independence of the open door in China, and to block Russia's monopoly of products destined for Manchuria—these are the three essential points for which Japan is fighting, and toward the establishment of which she has made remarkable progress. And Baron Kodama, the chief of the Japanese leadership staff, has said in a recent interview that this is the peace treaty on which Japan will insist.

Phillander C. Knox of Pittsburg, Pa., attorney general of the United States in President Roosevelt's cabinet, was appointed last Friday by Gov. Pennypacker of Pennsylvania to the United States senator in the vacant seat caused by the death of Senator Quay. While the manner of Attorney General Knox's selection by a few prominent men, is criticized, it is conceded that his appointment is in every way an admirable one and places a man, not only of large ability, but of statesmanlike qualities, in Senator Quay's place.

We are afraid the usually well-ordered village of Randolph is getting into a bad way. For one or two days a gross despatch that all of a Saturday and Sunday night a minister's garden was despoiled of 16 loads of lettuce, two men "enjoyed a free hand fight," one man had three horses poisoned, and "two men from Bethel were roughly handled by a some of would-be sports." We don't like to be held responsible for every little delinquency in the Vermont community, but we can't help reminding the editor of the Herald and News that he evidently needs to keep his weather-eye on the morals of his home constituency.

Some of the most accurate and experienced political observers believe that the subject for which the Tammany men in New York are now working is the defeat of Parker's nomination and the stampede of the Democratic national convention to Mayor George B. McClellan. There is enough in this so that some of the ablest constitutional lawyers in New York are seriously discussing the question whether Mayor McClellan is eligible to the presidency on account of his having been born when his parents were abroad—the provision of the constitution of the United States being that no person except a "natural born citizen" shall be eligible to the office of President.

The committee of inquiry concerning temperance legislation, appointed by the Vermont convention of Congregational churches, held in Burlington a year ago, has recently published its report in a pamphlet of 48 pages. The report goes carefully into the details of the yes and no votes under the license law in 1903 and 1904 and into other matters of statistics, with an abstract or summary of individual information gathered by impersonal canvass in all parts of the state. No opinion is stated by the committee, although the impression gained from the report is that there has been an increased number of arrests for intoxication and breach of the peace within the two years, for which the license law is responsible. The general impression is also gained that there is, with some pronounced exceptions, general disposition on the part of the temperance people to concede to the license law another two years of fair and impartial trial.

There is a gathering of United States warships in the Mediterranean just now which the press correspondents interpret as meaning that our government will presently bring force to bear on the Sultan of Morocco to compel the release of Nelson Perdicaris, an American citizen recently seized by brigands at his home near Tangier and held for ransom. With Mr. Perdicaris was captured Mr. Varley, his stepson, who is a British subject. But there may be a further use for our warships in Mediterranean waters, for it is said that President Roosevelt has ordered the assemblage there of the combined European and South Atlantic squadrons and the battleship fleet with the ultimate purpose of compelling the payment by

Turkey of the large sum of money due from her in payment for outrages on American citizens and for the destruction of American missionaries' property. In this connection it is said that Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, recently called on Secretary Hay to ask if such a move was contemplated by our government, and to say that, if carried out,
