Lyman Howe's Wonderful Moving Pictures.

A feature of Lyman H. Howe's moving pictures, which will be presented at the Auditorium Tuesday evening, Feb. 21, is that every picture is vivid with life, and authentic. The pictures, too, is accompanied with admirable and ingenious sound effects in instant union with every action of the scene which makes the spectator imagine that he is actually living the life of the world-wide travel and work itself—life of world-wide travel and work itself—in all its lights and shades; a stupendous blending of the humorous with the pathetic, the educational with the amusing; and all with a rapidity and precision that creates its own demand for regular return visits. If you have never seen moving pictures that thorough, better-perfect and steady—regardless of where or when you saw others; for the Lyman H. Howe moving pictures are today, as ever, the addition de luxe of moving pictures in America.
