

BELLINGS FALLS NEWS

Miss Alice Jennings was called to Waterville, Conn., yesterday morning to attend the funeral of a relative.

George Weston, 76, one of the oldest residents of Rockingham, died at his home on the Upper Meadows on Friday, Nov. 24.

The annual meeting of the Christian Endeavor society of the First Congregational church will occur in the vestry of that church this evening.

A joint meeting of the labor unions of Bellings Falls will be held in Paper Mill hall next week Saturday evening under the direction of the Central Labor Union.

H. H. Shaw, for some years employed in the purchasing department of the office of the Vermont Farm Machine Co., has been obliged to give up his work there temporarily on account of poor health.

Gen. N. G. Williams accompanied Gov. Bell and his staff to Chicago last Saturday, where they were guests of the New England society of that city the first of this week. They returned to Vermont yesterday.

The family of John W. Flint closed their residence on the south terrace Monday night to the University of Vermont when the present Mr. Flint says that he hopes to return to Bellings Falls as his permanent home within a year or two.

The opera "Kado" will be given by the young people of the First Congregational church early in January. The leading parts will be taken by A. V. MacGowan and his sister, Nora MacGowan, who have recently scored a great success with the same opera in Keene.

Mrs. H. F. Broomfield, (Alice McGee), a former very popular young lady of this place, died at Columbus, Ohio, Tuesday night, during an operation for appendicitis. The funeral will occur from the home of her father, Joseph McGee, on Atkinson street, tomorrow morning.

Among the class of 88 medical students at the University of Vermont when the term opened last Saturday was Eugene Gray of Bellings Falls. Mr. Gray has been a student at Norwich university the past two years and now decides to take up medicine as a profession.

The annual meeting of division No. 2, A. O. H., was held last Sunday in their hall and the following officers were elected: John Lynch, president; P. H. Hammett, vice president; J. T. Diggins, recording secretary; P. H. Lawlor, financial secretary; and Dr. J. T. Ruden, physician.

The teacher of the North Walpole schools who has been in continuous service there for longer of any of the present, Genevieve Costello, has resigned her position. She goes to Boston to accept an advantageous position in the public schools, immediately after the holidays.

A large delegation from the Bellings Falls Rebekah lodge went to Saxtons River and attended a meeting of Crystal lodge of that place, on Friday evening. The lodge meeting, refreshments were served and the Saxtons River men were lived up to their previous reputation for hospitality.

Mrs. P. B. Jenness of Fitchburg, Mass., and her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Jenness, have been visiting relatives in town this week. Mr. Jenness, who is a member of the Boston Orchestra company, is traveling through the states of Georgia and Alabama. He expects to spend the larger part of the winter in Pennsylvania.

An inspection of the local mills of the International Paper Co. was made by the executive officers Monday and Tuesday. The party was a large one and came to Bellings Falls on a special car, and went from here to Wilder, Berlin Falls, and Franklin. Among the officials was A. N. Burbank, treasurer, a former well-known Bellings Falls resident.

The strong local basketball team, which made such a fine showing throughout last season last Friday evening 53 to 13 to the All-Troy professionals, one of the strongest outfits in the game; also lost Tuesday evening to the Brattleboro Athletics 22 to 15. The game against Brattleboro was pretty thorough, free from rough play or objectionable roughness.

Tuesday evening, the members of the Woman's club and their guests were entertained by an enjoyable organ recital at the Congregational church by Mrs. Wm. Grant Wilkinson, assisted by Mrs. Ernestine Fish, soloist. The former has been organist at Tremont Temple, Boston, 15 years, and Mrs. Fish is a member of that choir and of the Handel and Haydn society.

The subject of the debate by the Bellings Falls Debating club Monday evening was "Resolved, That the Japanese have been justified in accepting peace without further contending for an indemnity." The affirmative side of the argument was taken by Daniel Edwards and A. R. and the negative by P. F. R. and J. R. and Harry H. Gorham. The result was in favor of the affirmative.

A false fire alarm was sounded Tuesday evening about 9 o'clock from box 13. It was found impossible to ascertain who pulled in the box located at the corner of Hotel Windham. A series of flashlight photographs were being taken in the third story of the Times building at the time, and it is supposed that some one became excited, imagining a fire, but ascertaining the error before the department arrived left for parts unknown.

Rev. F. L. Leavitt preached an interesting sermon last Sunday morning, which he has been requested to repeat as there was a small audience on account of storm and will deliver it again next Sunday morning. The subject is "The Universalist Church an Evangelistic Orthodox Church." The subject is considered appropriate to the evangelistic meetings which were held Wednesday and Thursday at the Congregational church.

The lecture course in progress at Vermont academy this year is being liberally patronized by residents of Bellings Falls. About 50 from here listened to the third of the course Tuesday evening upon the subject, "Backbone," by P. S. Henson, D. D., LL. D., pastor of Tremont Temple, Boston. The same evening, Dr. Henson's organist, and his principal soloist of the same church, gave a recital to the members of the Bellings Falls Woman's club.
