

The Vermont Phoenix. TEN PAGES. ANNOUNCEMENTS. Quick lunch at Jacob's...

Brattleboro Private School, 83 Main St. Shorthand and teachers' courses a specialty. Typewriters to rent.

Charles Ebbighausen has been awarded the agency for the famous Marryatt Piano, manufactured in Germany.

Fred C. Adams will sing at the Choral Union rehearsal next Wednesday evening. The annual meeting of St. Michael's Episcopal church will be held next Monday evening.

Liveryman H. R. Brown is building a carriage and hearse house near the DeWitt Grocery company's building on Flat street.

Manley Brothers received a carload of Elkhart automobiles Wednesday. Henkel Brothers received a carload of Cadillacs yesterday.

W. W. Plimpton will give a demonstration of cooking a dinner in his kitchen at his store in the Whetstone building Saturday afternoon.

Rev. and Mrs. Frank L. Massek held an "at home" Tuesday afternoon and received informal calls from parishioners. Refreshments were served.

Mary Howe Burton gave a concert in Chittenden, Mass., last week for the benefit of the hospital of that town. The net receipts exceeded $200.

A steel ceiling has been put up in Robinson & Co's hardware store this week, by the Crosby estate. The Crosby & Co. office also is being furnished with a steel ceiling.

Mrs. S. E. Awton will speak in the Congregational parlors next Wednesday on "Mistakes that mothers make." This will be the last mothers' meeting of the season.

Beginning tonight the mid-week meetings in the churches begin at 7:45 o'clock, and continuing next Sunday the Sunday night meetings will begin at 7:30 instead of 7 o'clock.

The bailiffs and board of civil authority met in the office of Haskins, Schwenk Saturday night to revise the check list for use at the village meeting. Two names were added to the list.

American investments, a financial publication, containing in the last issue a story on the condition of the government bond market by C. Frederick Childs, manager for Fisk & Robinson of Chicago, will be published.

About 150 people were present at the opening of the Elliot street skating rink by Leon Parsons Saturday night. Fred Bastian gave an exhibition of fancy skating which was very pleasing.

Representatives of the different tribes of Red Men in Vermont will hold a council in White River Junction about May 28 and 29. The object of this gathering is to hold a great council in this state.

Horace Welcome, young son of W. H. Welcome, was struck in the mouth by a baseball thrown over first base at the game on the island Saturday evening.

The last Brooks House assembly of the season will be held next Tuesday evening. The meeting of the Brattleboro Ministerial Union, which was set for May 14.

A. E. Clapp and C. L. Taylor are building a garage to hold four machines. Mr. Clapp has received this week a Cadillac runabout and has ordered a Grout touring car for later delivery.

C. A. Huntley, who recently sold the Flat street luncheon has bought of James A. Hogan the Meadow city laundry in Northampton. He has moved there with his family to a residence on Bridge street and has his new business offices there.

Joseph and William W. Jefferson, supported by the same excellent cast which has for the last few years accompanied the late Joseph Jefferson, will appear at the Auditorium Tuesday evening. They will bring with them the comedy, "The Rivals."

Sheriff Frank W. McClure went to Vergennes Tuesday with Leroy Peirce of Rockingham, who was sentenced in county jail last week to serve the remainder of his minority in the industrial school, having pleaded guilty to the charge of burglary. Peirce is 16 years old.

A. V. May sold yesterday his house on Chase street to F. D. Kendall, formerly a marketman in Putney, who is now employed by Dennison Brothers of this town. The residence is a very desirable one. It was built by the late Mrs. May and has been occupied by him since then.

George Witt, the coupe driver, didn't get a May basket, but on Wednesday afternoon he was treated to a very fine coupe had been treated in spots to dabs of red paint. Five Esteyville lads were rounded up that day. It is likely that they will be called upon to settle for the damage.

Brattleboro chapter, D. A. R., will be entertained by Mrs. G. W. Pierce and Mrs. W. T. High at Mrs. Pierce's home on Wednesday, May 3, (instead of Tuesday) at 8 o'clock. The program is a program consisting of readings and musical numbers has been prepared and a report of the Continental Congress will be given.

The annual meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held Tuesday afternoon, when those officers were elected: President, Mrs. Mary Tucker; vice presidents, Mrs. Harry Tucker, Mrs. C. E. Clapp, Mrs. Charles Dower, Mrs. Alice Kimball, Mrs. A. H. Webb, Mrs. A. J. Stearns, Mrs. A. J. Currier, Mrs. Henry Moore, Mrs. John Case, Mrs. George W. Loring, Mrs. Mary H. Newman; treasurer, Mrs. Mattie Edwards.

D. M. Bronsahan is building a barn at his place on Elliot street. George E. Warner took possession of the Main street bakery Tuesday. There has been no change in the help.

The Knights of King Arthur will meet Saturday at 1 o'clock in the Universalist parlors to go for a tramp. A collection will be taken a week from Sunday in St. Michael's Roman Catholic church for the San Francisco sufferers.

The offering of the Universalist church last Sunday amounted to $100. This will be sent to Rev. W. E. Hayes of All Saints Episcopal church in San Francisco. Mrs. Fred Rogers of Springfield, this state, was in town Tuesday to bury the body of her infant child, which was in the tomb during the winter. Burial was in the Roman Catholic cemetery.

The exact amount paid A. L. & E. D. Howard by the G. H. Phillips estate in settlement of the suit against the estate was $1426, which included interest. The plaintiffs paid their own costs. There will be a hearing in Keene today on the petition of Mrs. Elizabeth M. Gale, wife of Fred C. Gale, for the partition of the estate of her late husband, Rev. W. E. Hayes, in which she and E. D. Fisk each own an undivided half.

S. W. Edgett & Co. have sold for A. R. Bracewell of West Brattleboro his 28 acre farm to A. W. Loring of Westboro, N. H. The same firm has sold for A. I. Laughton of Dummerston a 20 acre timber lot to E. H. Miller. Crosby & Parker's men will have the pipe and trestle for the water company laid within 600 feet of the site of the reservoir on Stacey brook by tomorrow night. The work was delayed several days owing to a landslide which covered the trenches under many feet of clay.

The funeral of Azor Mars... was held at his late home on High street Monday at 3 o'clock. Rev. E. Q. S. Osgood, pastor of the Unitarian church, officiated at 2 o'clock. The funeral service was held at the residence of Mrs. Mars, in which she and E. D. Fisk each own an undivided half.

The wood work done by the boys of the Congregational Sunday school under the direction of L. A. Whitney and Mr. Miles, will be on exhibition next week in the window of Robbins & Cowley's store. Some very fine work was done by the boys. They were anxious that a wider attention should be drawn to what school boys can do under manual training.

The woman's auxiliary held its last meeting for the season Tuesday afternoon. Fred S. Goodman of New York, a member of the International Y. M. C. A. committee, spoke in an interesting way on the subject of "The Future of the World." The organization voted to hold its annual strawberry supper in June and to hold a cake sale during the summer.

Patrons of the Centerville roller rink were pleased Tuesday and Wednesday evenings by the graceful exhibition of Jennie Darling of Providence, R. I., the dean of the rink. About 200 people were present Tuesday night, and on Wednesday night, although the weather was stormy, there was an attendance of 250. She has been skating for some time this evening, which will be the closing night of the season for skating. The Friday night dances will be continued through the summer. Miss Darling will be at the rink to give instruction tomorrow afternoon.

Neil Burgess, the famous comedian, appeared in the New England play, "The County Fair," in the Auditorium last evening. The performance was a most successful counter attraction. A good sized audience was present. Mr. Burgess played the part of Abigail Prue. His interpretation of the comedy was very successful. He was supported by an excellent company, consisting of the following: Fred S. Goodman, who acted as the chauffeur of the party; George E. Warner, who acted as the driver; and several other members of the troupe. The performance was well received and the audience was greatly pleased.

Mrs. Charles T. Wheeler, 82, died at her home on the first of Friday. Her maiden name was Rachel Perry and she was a daughter of Daniel and Susan Perry. She was born in Marlboro March 1, 1824, and spent a large part of her early life in that town. From there she came to Brattleboro and was employed in the Brattleboro Retreat, and in April, 1874, she was married to Charles T. Wheeler. They lived in Centerville until they went to their farm on the Putney road. Besides her husband Mrs. Wheeler leaves two sons, Mr. Charles T. Wheeler, who lives in Brattleboro, and Mr. Arthur Wheeler, who lives in Marlboro. Mrs. Wheeler was a member of the First Baptist church. The funeral was held at the house at 2 o'clock Sunday. Rev. George H. Lillis officiated and the burial was in Locust Ridge cemetery.

Thomas C. Lillis, 52, a native and former resident of Brattleboro, was found dead in his bed in Meriden, Conn., Monday morning. Dr. Frank W. Lillis, a local physician, was called to see him and when he was able to be around. On Monday he attended his usual and appeared to be in good spirits. He went to bed for a rest in the forenoon and when an accident occurred to the boarding house he went to the room at 2 o'clock. Mr. Lillis appeared to be asleep. At 4 o'clock the employees attempted to enter the room, but the door was locked. The room was found to be empty. Mr. Lillis was born in Brattleboro and was a son of Michael Lillis, formerly of Vernon. He was employed by the State of Vermont for a number of years. About four years ago he went to Meriden, and since then he had been employed at the Wilcox & Co. factory. Mr. Lillis was married to Mrs. Maria M. Bowman & Co. He was a slater by trade and worked for Mr. Ryan in Greenfield during the summer of 1904. He was a member of the First Baptist church in Brattleboro and was a member of the Vermont State Officers' Association.

Daybreak Tuesday morning found the trout brooks lined with anglers and the water rather high some good catches were made. Thirty-seven fishermen were counted on Green River. Fish wardens were on hand and the fish were examined. One enthusiast, Orin H. Ellis, paid $20 and costs yesterday for having a short trout in his possession. He took his fish to the Broad Brook House, of which he is proprietor, and when fish warden A. W. J. Wilkins stopped there for a drink of water he took the fish to see. The fish was about six inches long. Those in the house did not know it was a trout. Mr. Ellis did not hesitate to answer his questions. Mr. Ellis was arrested before Justice P. E. Ward on complaint of Town Grand Juror E. D. Fisk for having a trout in his possession. He was fined $4 for each short fish. The fines and costs amounting to $25.05. F. Schwenk caught 15, seven of which were sold to Rev. W. E. Hayes. H. C. Bacon and C. I. Knapp, who went with him, caught 22 each. Some of the larger catches were as follows: Arthur Bracer and John Jones, Dr. C. P. Barber, Lawrence Barber and Lester Barber, 75; Frank Larrow and David Cooley, 60; Harry Kinison and Leon Whitley, 45; W. D. Smith, 35; John Ellis and H. M. Wood, 45; Dr. C. R. Aldrich, 21.

The Young Days. At Well I find me of the days. Still bright in memory's flattering rays. When all was bright and new, My brother, my dear brother, my dear brother, And friends are known by friendly looks, And love was always true.

You Can't Get Back of Results. Paying for something not actually present in the merchandise is taxation without representation. That was the thing the American people went to war with England over, and they've been a bit sensitive about it ever since. The strength of our house is just here. We sell you good honest clothing that will not tax your income. If you are out for a good, stylish Suit or Overcoat at $10, $12, $15 or $18, look us over; you tread on safe ground when you deal here. E. E. PERRY & CO., The Clothes That Prove.

YOU HAVEN'T A FRIEND. Who can show you a two-dollar Oxford for ladies' wear which is better than mine. I am positive this statement is a fact, for I am convinced no better low shoes can be made to sell at this price. Soft Vici Kid uppers; light, flexible soles or medium weight; Goodyear Welt soles; patent Leather tips or Kid tips; full value in every pair, $2.00. FRED S. KNIGHT. Retail Shoe Dealer.

DE LAVAL FREE TRIAL. If you are contemplating buying a Cream Separator, by all means let us place in your dairy for a FREE TRIAL one of these grand machines, thus proving to you its great saving and its overwhelming superiority to all would-be competing separators. If you try, our terms are so liberal that the machine actually pays for itself by its own savings. Drop us a postal. T. J. FITZGERALD, Agent, West Swanzey, N. H.

AUDITORIUM Tuesday, May 15. The Important Event JOSEPH and WILLIAM W. JEFFERSON. In Sheridan's Famous Comedy of Manners "THE RIVALS" Supported by an All Star Cast. PRICES: 35c, 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50. Seats on Sale Saturday Morning, May 12. JOHN B. DUNLEAVY, Custom Tailor, BATTERY BUILDING, BRATTLEBORO. Up one flight. A. W. J. WILKINS, AUCTIONEER. Satisfaction Guaranteed.

NEW JOB SHOP. In Harmony block, second floor, room for merely occupied by J. R. Rand. DON A. WILDER. Good Printing by E. L. Hildreth & Co.

Small text at the bottom of the page, likely a continuation of an advertisement or a notice.