IN OUR OWN STATE

Likely to Be a Deficit in the State's Accounts

Accounts.

It is generally expected by state officials that there will be a deficit in the state's accounts for the present biennial term, as there was in the term of Gov.
Bell. J. E. Cushman, commissioner of state taxes, whose department furnishes a large part of the revenues of the state, estimates the income for the term at $1.125.000. No one estimates the expenses at less than $1.300,000. New appropriations were made by the legislature this year, though there was strong talk of extravagance in the last campaign, and new methods of taxation were provided, but it is not believed by the most conservative that the ingrease in taxes will make up the thought of the most conservative that the ingrease in taxes will make up for the ingrease in appropriation. The standing appropriations of known amounts for up $120,980 a year. The regular appropriation for the support of government amounts to $801,000. A number of appropriations were made in an indefinite way, so that the amount that will be expended cannot now be determined. There are also some appropriations like those for providing education for deaf, dumb and blind children of Indigent parents, indexing surveyor-general's papers and the boundary line commission that cannot at present be estimated.

Bad Man in Wild Western Style at Rutland.

Rutland.

To prove that Wild Charlie and his bunch of bronco busters from the Far West had nothing on the tenderfeet from little old Vermont, David Sherman, a boy with a mind worked up by reading cheap novels, made Levi Williams, an inoffensive negro, dance an elaborate nuck and wing' in a restaurant at Rutland Monday while he amused himself in true "bad man" style by shooting at his victim's feet with a revolver.

Williams went into a Centre street lunch room and was quietly earling when he heard a shot directly behind him. An order to dance and dance quiek came immediately after. The old colored man hustliy compiled while Sherman encouraged him with his gun.

Sherman was arraigned in city court to answer to two charges of breach of peace. The first offence was committed Sunday night in the rear of the hotels. At this time Sherman ordered a maid to usher out the "Dago cook," as he put it. The cook refused to admit callers and Sherman threatened to shoot her full of holes. Sherman was sentenced by Judge Willis M. Ross to pay a fine of $25 or serve 30 days in the house of correction.

Bradstreet's Report on Business in Vermont.

Bradaireet's report regarding Vermont affairs shows prosperous conditions in all lines of industry during the year 1906. The holiday trade this year was very large, weather conditions were such as to materially assist in the sale of stocks. The year closed has shown the largest sale of manufactured stock and a larger general business than has been known in the state for years. The demand for more skilled labor has constantly been heard during the year and because of lack of labor manufacturers have been handleapped in doing all they wanted to, but volume has been very large. Not only have the cities noted an increase in population but the smaller towns have shared as well in the prosperous conditions. The farmers harvested good crops and are receiving an increase in prices for the same. One of the many indicators of the prosperous conditions is the large amount of building that has been done. Approximately over two millions of dollars have been used in Bradstreet's report regarding Vermont that has been done. Approximately over two millions of dollars have been used in this manner, an increase of over a quarter of a million dollars over amount done in same places during 1905.

Mr. Cobleigh gave $16,500 for the building; the citizens of the town raised $5000 toward a lot, and a $3000 bequest of Isaac Sanborn's was also used in this connection. Millions Starving in China.

Owing to the excessive rains and conequent failure of the crops, the famine a the north of Anhui province in the east of Honan and the whole north of Ciangsu is worse than at any time during the last 40 years. It is estimated that four million persons are starving, tens of thousands are utterly destitute and are thousands are utterly destitute and are wandering over the country. The danger is increased by the activity of the secret societies as the wandering are gladly joining them in order to obtain rice. About 50,000 refugees have reached the vicinity of Nanking in a pitiable condition. The authorities are unable to cope with the situation.

GREAT CAPTAIN OF INDUSTRY DEAD.

Alexander J. Cassett, President of the Pennsylvania Railroad-Some Projects Which He Directed.

Alexander J. Cassett, 77, president of the Pennsylvania railroad system, died Friday from heart disease at his home in Philadelphia. He was born in Pittsburg and his father, who was first mayor of Allegheny City, was a factor in great financial and industrial interests of Western Pennsylvania. A. J.
