Always Reliable

A Rainy-day Blessing
IN STORMY-WEATER it is not necessary for the farmer go to town. He can transact his business by telephone.
The New England Telephone & Telegraph Company ha The New England Telephone & Telegraph Company has two propositions for telephone service. One enables the farmer to have telephone service for about five cents a day, and the other for about two cents a day.
If you desire information on either of these propositions write, or call, our local manager. If you want service, don't delay as we must set the poles before cold weather.
