Mrs. W. H. Wellman.

The many friends and neighbors sympathize with W. H. Wellman in the loss of his wife, Nora, 57, who died Feb. 29, Mrs. Wellman was one of three children born to Abner C. and Emma Maynard Johnson. She was born in Jamaica Feb. 1, 1855. Death was caused by chronic neuritis. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wellman were married Dec. 13, 1884, and lived nearly 20 years in Manchester, moving back to Jamaica about five years ago. Mrs. Wellman leaves besides her husband, a sister, Mrs. Abby White. She was a member of the Congregational church here before moving to Manchester and she intended to return by letter from Manchester with this church soon. She was a member of the Christian Endeavor society.

PERU.

Three Farms Offered to the Town Free of Rent. M. J. Haggood of Peru offers three farms in that town free of rent, and firewood, taxes and material for repairs free to suitable tenants. The conditions are that the tenants act in respectability, economical and industrious. The hay is to be fed out upon the premises. The tenants have the privilege of occupying the farms for five years. Each farm has about 100 acres of land and a fair set of buildings. The farms contain good sugar lots and are smooth and easy of tillage. Offer for final purchase is also given. There are also three other farms of lower grade offered. Tenants must be from out of town, as increase of good population is the object desired. Families with children are given the preference. Two of the better places have rural delivery. Mr. Haggood believes these inducements will attract bank deposit for each child born ought certainly to produce the desired effect. In Peru last year, with a population of only 200, there were 12 births with only one death, and that from old age. Mr. Haggood and his family are spending the season at Boulder, Col., where Mr. Haggood is looking after the interests of his Vermont "addition" there.

WESTMINSTER WEST.

In the Congregational church Sunday morning the pastor will speak on the subject, "People who took crafty counsel against God's people." In the evening, after the Y. P. S. C. E. meeting, the tenth study in John's Gospel will be given. "Some elements in a good Shepherd." The prayer and conference meeting will be held at Bert H. Houghton's home next Tuesday evening. Subject, "Sins of the tongue." James 3: 1-18.

MAY PROVE FATAL

When Will Brattleboro People Learn the Importance of It? Backache is only a simple thing at first; But when you know 'tis from the kidneys; That serious kidney troubles follow; That Bright's disease may be the fatal end, you will gladly profit by the following experience. 'Tis the statement of a Brattleboro citizen. Mrs. A. J. Bowen, 82 Front St., Brattleboro, Vt., says: "I willingly confirm all I ever said in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills. The cure they effected in our household has been permanent. A member of the family was bothered for some time by backache and lameness across the loins. He did not rest well and felt miserable upon arising in the morning. Hearing about Doan's Kidney Pills, a supply was procured at Holden's Drug Store and the contents of two boxes disposed of the backache and the lameness and made it possible for the person to rest well. I have not heard him complain since." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

SOUTH LONDONDERRY.

Mrs. Harvey Clough.

Mrs. Surette Clough, widow of Hervey Clough, died of pneumonia in her home on School street Friday after a short illness. The end came so suddenly as to shock the whole community. Mrs. Clough was a native and life-long resident of this town and by her loving disposition and unflinching ways she won many friends. She was a kind neighbor and devoted to her family. Besides an aged mother she leaves three sons and three daughters, Frank, James and George and Mrs. W. S. Davison of this place, Mrs. O. D. Stowell of Brattleboro and Mrs. S. K. Brigham of St. Johnsbury, all of whom were present at the funeral except George, who was prevented by sickness. Much sympathy is felt for the mother as well as for the children, and her death she is bereft of her only remaining child. The funeral was held at her late residence Sunday, Rev. R. H. Tibbals officiating, and the burial took place in the family lot in the Yearly cemetery. The floral tributes were numerous and very beautiful.

John Bailey moved to East Dover last week. Blanche Burt is working at M. J. Howard's. A telephone was installed in E. F. Rugg's home Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Marcy of Palmer, Mass., are at Hunt's tavern. Lucy Aldrich of Chester is visiting relatives and friends in town. Laurie Churchill was at home from his school at Mount Hermon over Sunday.

Town meeting passed off very quietly and harmoniously on Tuesday. The license vote was 103 to 40 yeas. Grace Rabbit returned from her school in Grafton on Saturday and on Wednesday she went to Leominster, Mass., to visit. A large number from here attended the play followed by the leap year dance at the North village on Thursday last week. Grace Felton and Alida Benson received post card showers on their birthday anniversaries, which occurred on Wednesday.

District Superintendent Blake held an examination for teachers at the school-house on Thursday and Friday. There were applicants present to take the examination. Among those who are sick are Frank Simonds, Mrs. H. R. Darling, Mrs. F. L. Fuller and Annie Williams. N. N. Johnson is improving, and George Clough and Harold Huntley remain about the same.

LONDONDERRY.

Mrs. Ella Payne has returned from Boston. Ed Eager has gone to Brattleboro to work. Lake Wilkins was home from Springfield, Mass., over Sunday.
