GOV. WOODROW WILSON TONIGHT

Candidate for President of United States Will Speak in Auditorium-Public Re ception at 7 o'clock.

Gov. Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey. Democratic candidate for President of the United States, will arrive in Brattle boro this aftrenoon and will speak in the Auditorium at 8 o'clock tonight on "The issues of the day." This will be his only appearance in Vermont, and indications are that he will be greeted by a large audience, as he is one of the big men of the country. Gov. Wilson will be met at the railroad station by an escort of citizens and will go to the Brooks House. At 7 o'clock tonight a reception com-mittee of about 50 will assemble at the Brooks House and escort Gov. Wilson to the foyer of the Auditorium where a public reception will be held until 7.45, to which everybody is invited. Leitsinger's orchestra will play for the re-ception, also for the meeting, and a double male quartet will sing previous to the address more persons on the stage including several professors from Middlebury col-lege. Accommodations will be provided for other visitors from out of town. Gov. Wilson will be introduced by Attorney Arthur P. Carpenter.

Gov. Wilson's private correspondence was stolen from him in Chicago Sunday. A despatch that day to the New York Sun said: "Burglars with undenlable political affiliations today raided the room of Gov. Woodrow Wilson in the Sherman House during his absence at St. Mary's rectory and stole all his private correspondence, vouchers and other doc-uments. The Governor's dress sult and extra underclothing were included in the BRATTLEBORO LOCAL ANNIVERSARY TO BE MADE NOTABLE.

Big Sale at Houghton & Simonds-Will Mark the 10th Commercial Birthday - Different Features for Each Day

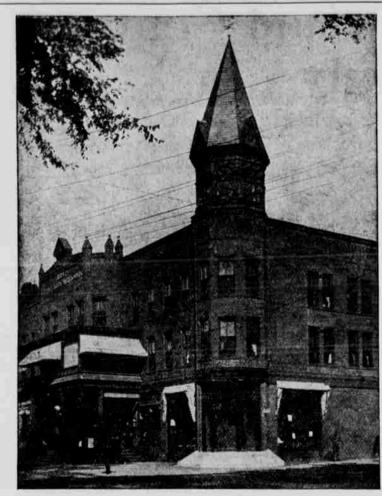

This Commercial Anniversary will be celebrated by the firm on a broader and more comprehensive scale than was attempted five years ago, when the only previous anniversary sale was held. It is not an every-year occurrence, but happens only once in five years, and this sale will mark a new era in the history of the firm.

Only, at the same fair price to all alike, confident that customers who are satisfied with goods and service will remember the store and come again, until coming becomes a habit.

As a value-giving sale, this anniversary event is planned to eclipse all previous efforts. It will be a remarkable sale, in that all merchandise of-

of the firm.

On April 7 the firm of Houghton & sale, in that all merchandise offered will be new, timely and seasonable, and at prices such as rule at the breadth, strength and vigor of the business, shows how generous has been the public's acceptation of the new order of things in retail merchandising. Ten years ago the store occupied what is now the street floor of the north store is now the street floor of the north store only; in February, 1903, the south store was added; on Sept. 1, 1904, the basement was opened to the public as a salesroom; March 24, 1905, the second floor over the north store was added as a garment salesroom, and in September, the second floor was an a garment salesroom, and in September. 1909, the second floor was enlarged to its present size. In May, 1907, a branch store at Springfield, Vt., was started, and it has been very successful under the able management of A. M. Hough-

The original policy of the store has been strictly adhered to for a decade— to sell merchandise of reliable quality

Instead of offering all of the sale beginning a sale of this kind, a new plan will be tried. On each of the first six days of the two weeks' sale, part tomers better service, better attention, and more freedom for selection.

Next week's papers will contain a fur-ther announcement regarding this great sale and more money-saving opportunities for Saturday, April 20.

The first day will be next Monday, April 15, when wash goods, cottons, corsets and gloves will be featured.
