The Vermont Phanix.

TWELVE PAGES

BRATTLEBORO.

Sedgwick Woman's Relief corps will serve a public supper in Grand Army hall Thursday evening, April 18.

Mrs. Lucy A. Harris, 73, widow of Albert Harris of St. Johnsbury, died in the home of her sister, Mrs. A. R. Gregg, on North Main street early this morning.

The gross receipts of the Brattleboro post office for the year ending March 31, were $49,199.26, which was $2298.17 more than for the previous 12 months. The net revenue to the government the past year was $28,285.48.

The Woman's club will meet Wednes day afternoon in the Congregational chapel. The subject will be "Our state institutions," and the speaker will be Mrs. P. F. Hazen of St. Johnsbury, who state institutions

One of the notable dramatic events of the season is the coming to the Auditor-ium next Wednesday, when England's great character actor, William Hawtrey, and his distinguished London company will present the laughing success of two continents, "Dear Old Billy," a clean and wholesome farcial comedy in three acts

The annual meeting of the woman's exchange for the election of officers will be held in the rest room Monday afternoon at 3.30. Reports will be given and action will be taken on the proposed amendment to the constitution so that five members of the governing board shall constitute a quorum. The board will meet at 3 o'clock.

About 75 couples attended the waltzing party given by Spaulding and Marion in Grange hall Monday evening, for which Leitsinger's orchestra furnished music. The prize waltz was entered by a large number of couples and the prize of a $5 gold piece was awarded by the judges, F. H. Nims, Michael Dunn and Alcide Marion, to James Clune and Miss

John Brennan, an electrician at the Fort Dummer Mills, was so severely burned about the face yesterday morning while working at the mill that it was necessary to remove him to the Memorial hospital. He was working at a switchboard and had in his hand a pair of pliers which came in contact with a switch that was part of a 550 year treat. The contact made by the volt circuit. The contact made by the pliers caused a short-circuit and the flash enveloped his face, badly burning it. His burns were dressed by Dr. W. H.

The auction sale of the Hardware and Wooodenware company's property, sched-uled to take place in Worcester today, was postponed to April 20, by Judge J. L. Martin this week. R. B. Fentress of Baltimore, who bid off the property at the first auction sale, has appealed from Judge Martin's decision not to confirm the sale and the appeal is set for hearing next October. Meanwhile no reason is known why the property will not be sold April 29, as Mr. Fentress failed this week in an effort to secure a stay of the auction proceedings.

Mrs. Fremont Hamilton is ill with diphtheria in her home and John Warren Hamilton, her son, is in the city hospital in Bath, Me., ill with the same dis-ease. John W. Hamilton, who is a student in Bowdoin college, came home recently on a vacation and returned Mon-day of this week. On Tuesday he was taken ill with diphtheria and was taken to the hospital. His mother became ill Wednesday afternoon, and doubtless she contracted the disease from him. Both contracted the disease from him. Both have the disease in pronounced form, but are doing well. Eight or nine college students out of 40 in the D. K. E. fraternity house at Bowdoin have had diphtherla, and a few weeks ago Mr. took 2000 units of diphtheretic

A meeting of the real estate committee of the West River Valley association was four solid months and will go to Boston held in the County House in Newfane Those present included Pres J. H. Ware of Townshend J. H. Under-wood of Newfane, George Briggs of Wardsboro and F. H. Willard of Townshend. Harry Knight of Jamaica was made a member and it was decided to appoint other members in Windham and Londonderry. This committee is anxious to have the names of all residents of the valley who have property for sale, as to answer enquiries in response to advertisements, and they hope that all per sons having real estate for sale will no tify them at once. Blanks to be filled out may be secured from any member of the committee or from the secretary, H. C. Rice of Brattleboro.

A petition is being circulated by Sec-retary C. S. Hopkins of the board of trade and signed by a large number of business men and other residents which will be presented to the Boston & Maine railroad. It reads as follows: "We hereby petition and ask that you kindly arrange so that the southbound train now leaving South Vernon at 8.03 a. m. be run enough earlier so as to connect with or become part of the express train leaving Greenfield at 8 a. m. and ar-riving at New York about noon, or, run the 8 o'clock train a little later from Greenfield so that the 8.03 South Vernon train can connect with this express at Greenfield." If the railroad authorities act favorably on the petition it will be much easier for residents of this locality to get to New York and return. With the night service a person could leave this town shortly after 7 o'clock in the morning, have the afternoon in New York city and return that evening.

The cast for the First regiment band play which will be presented May 16, 17 and 18 has been selected. The play is Augustus Daly's "A Night Off," in four acts. The cast is as follows: Justinian Babbitt, professor of ancient history in the Camptown university, Myron P. Davis; Harry Damask, his son-in-law, E. C. Chace, Lack Mulberry, in pursuit of G. Chace: Jack Mulberry, in pursuit of fortune, under the name of Chumley, Fred C. Adams: Lord Mulberry, in pursuit of Jack, J. P. Ferriter; Marcus Brutus Snap, in pursuit of fame and fortune under various legitimate allases, fortune under various legitimate allases, Fred C. Cressy; Prowl, usher at the university, Harold Putnam; Mrs. Zantippa Babbitt, professor of conjugal management in the professor's household, Mrs. C. B. Crowell; Nisbe, the youngest "Imp" of the household, Miss Mary F. Cox; Angelica Damask, the eldest, Mrs. G. B. Hunter; Susan, the "brasslest," Miss Dalsy Wells. The time of the piece is "repently" and the place of the piece is "recently" and the plac "near-by." There are four acts, the first, third and fourth being the professor's study and the second the re-ception room at Damask's.

MONEY BACK.

Here's Some Talk on Square Deal Lines.

Fifty cents; that's all, for a box o MI-O-NA stomach tablets that will bring a smile to your dyspeptic counte-nence ten minutes after the first dose. And Wilfred F. Root states that if MI-O-NA doesn't end the misery of in-digestion or banish stomach distress of any kind, you can have your money back.

This guarantee applies to the following allments, gas, acidity, heaviness, distress after eating, fermentation, heartburn, waterbrash, belching, sourness, pain in stomach, billousness, dizziness, nervousness, sleeplessness, bad dreams, nightsweats, headache, constipation, despondency, bloating, foul breath, coated tongue, sea or car sickness, morning stokness.

Fifty cents a box for MI-O-NA stom-ch tablets at Wilfred F. Root's and Selectman A. E. Merrill has been hav-ng the West river bridge re-planked

A social which was attended by about 50 couples was held under the auspices of Lee council, K. of C., in their assembly hall Wednesday evening.

A musical program in charge of Mrs. E. D. Wilson, Fred H. Spaulding, Jr., and Leo Sharon, will be given at the Grange meeting Wednesday evening.

Sixteen members of Miss Emma J. Gregg's class of girls in the Congregational Sunday school enjoyed a supper in the chapel Taesday evening. After the supper a social time was enjoyed.

The Massachusetts House of Representatives on Tuesday ordered a third reading of the bill authorizing the Conecticut River Railroad company to ac quire the property rights and franchises of the Vermont Valley railroad of Ver-mont and the Sullivan County railroad of New Hampshire. The bill had passed

The April meeting of the Brattleboro Ministerial union was held in the Congregational chapel Monday forenoon. Rev H. A. Goodhue was elected moderator, a paper on "The adventure of faith" was read by Rev. Dr. John R. Gow of the first Baptist church and a sermon on "Reserve power" was preached by Rev. D. E. Trout of the Universalist Carpenters have begun work on Charles Miner's new building on Elliot street and part of the joists for the first floor have been placed in position and some of the studding for the first floor has been crected. Mr. Miner said this week that he had had several applica-tions from prospective tenants, but that he would not let any part of the building until it was completed.

The annual communication of Colum The annual communication of Columbian lodge, F. and A. M., was held in the Masonic temple Tuesday evening. These officers were elected: W. M., Sanford A. Daniels; S. W., Arthur L. Billings; J. W., K. P. Barrington; treasurer, Frank B. Putnam; secretary, James B. Randoll; trustee, Frank B. Putnam, Owing to the absence of Mr. Daniels the accountive officers have not Daniels the appointive officers have not

Officials of the New England Telephone company have extended the Greenfield listrict so that it will include all exhanges in Vermont, with the exception of a few on the New Hampshire border line, all the way from Whately to the Canada line. This places the management of all the telephone service of the New England company in this state, with the exceptions noted, under one hend, but in no way affects the Brattle-boro exchange. Heretofore there have seen two districts in Vermont, Burlington being the centre of one and Rutland the other. Frattleboro has been in the Greenfield district

William C. Horton reports that birds re very plentiful around the feeding rounds at Fern cottage this season and not they have been numerous all winer. He has seen many specimens with-the past few days, among them being he tree sparrow, red poh, junco, brown reeper, chickadee, white breasted nut-tatch, red breasted nuthatch and purple linch. Among the migratory birds on heir way north he has seen the song sparrow, robin, phoebe, fox sparrow and many other varieties. Because of the ackward season and the many snowfalls he insect-eating birds have found it difficult to obtain sustinence.

An important dramatic annou is that of the coming of England's greatest character actor William Hawgreatest character actor William Haw-trey, and his company of London players to the Auditorium Wednesday, April 17, in a three-act farce comedy, "Dear Old Billy," which has just closed a long run in Chicago, where the critics derun in Chicago, where the critics de-clared it to be the funniest play seen in that city in years. The company, author and locals of the piece are distinctly English, and it is said to excel as a laugh producer such illustrious English successes as "The Private Secretary," "Charley's Aunt," and "Jane." The com-pany which will be seen here is exactly the same that appeared in Chicago for the same that appeared in Chicago for urance here. The biennial roll call of the Universal. ist church was held last evening with more than 130 members present. A banmet was served at 6 o'clock, and afterwards Miss Katharine Martin and Miss Gertrude Plummer rendered vocal se lections. Rev. E. Q. S. Osgood of the Unitarian church gave a short talk, folowed by the roll call by the secretary Mrs. J. Foster Stearns, Letters were read from absent members in Kansas, California and other states by the clerk, Miss Ada Mason, Rev. G. F. Fortier of Rutland, superintendent of churches in Vermont and the Province of Quebec spoke on "The home and the church," and his talk was overflowing with strong points. Since the last roll call in 1919, 56 persons have united with the church, Mrs. George E. Warner and Mrs. Emily S. Edwards were in charge of the program and Mrs. Melvin E. Cooper had charge of the banquet,

A pleasing feature of the baptismal service in St. Michael's Episcopal church Saturday afternoon was the ded-Martin in memory of her father and mother. The book is the American edition of the revised version, a large volume, and it is handsomely bound in morocco. On the cover is printed in gold leaf "In loving memory of Edward and Susan Griggs Lilley Dewey, Easter, 1912," and on the inside is written "Presented to St Michael's church." ication of a Bible, the gift of Mrs. J. L. ten "Presented to St. Michael's church Brattleboro, Vt., by Jessie Lilley Mar-tin, in memory of her father and "The gift was presented be-the general convention of the church recently gave permission to use, in reading the lessons at morning and evening prayer, either the American or English edition of the revised version of the Bible in place of the King James version, which has been in use since 1611. Rev. Andrew Harner, in read 1611. Rev. Andrew Harper, jr., read Bishop Hall's address at the annual convention of the diocese of Vermont the Sunday following the convention last June, in which attention was called to the fact that permission had been grant-ed for the use of the new version. Mrs. Martin thereupon decided to give one of

Mrs. Elizabeth M. Waldron.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mariama Waldron, 61, wife of Alfred J. Waldron, died in her home on the Mariboro road in West. Brattleboro Monday morning. Death was caused by a shock of paralysis which she sustained last August. She was born in Compton, Canada, Dec. 1, 1850, and was a daughter of Samuel and Betsey Chase Pierce. She was married to Alfred J. Waldron of Compton, Oct 8, 1880, and they lived there until Oct. 8, 1880, and they lived there until 14 years ago, moving to Bernardston. Six years later they moved to Vernon, Six years later they moved to Verson, where they remained five years on the Johnson farm, and three years ago moved to the George Barrett farm on the Mariboro road in this town. Mrs. Waldron was a member of the Universalist church in Compton and attended the Universalist church in Compton and attended the Universalist church her compton and attended to the compton attended to the compt tended the Universalist church here. She was a member of the Royal Templar lodge in Compton. Besides her hus-band she leaves two sons, Hosmer D. Waldron of West Northfield and Eg-bert A. Waldron of West Brattleboro, and two daughters, Mrs. Bessle Parker

A hardwood floor is being laid in the brooks House pharmacy. One of two parrots which Rev. Fathe M. J. Carmotly brought home from Brazil escaped Saturday and has not been re-covered.

Miss Elizabeth Cattanach has sold to Dr. W. P. Craig of Walpole the Ford automobile which she drew at the Knights of Columbus bazaar.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Fuller will Mr. and Mrs. George W. Fuller will observe their golden wedding anniver-sary Saturday. April 29. They have is-sued cards this week announcing that they will be at home from 3 to 9.30 o'clock on that day.

The funeral of W. H. Minor, who died in Chicago Thursday of last week, was held Saturday and the body was placed in a tomb. On account of the lilness of his daughter it has not been decided where the burial will take place.

The Fort Dummer Mills have opened an office in the old house near the mill, which has been completely refitted, and C. A. Brown of Providence, R. I. is employed as bookkeeper and Miss May Moylan of this town is stenographer. A large electric sign has been suspend ed from the Brook's House balcony in front of Robbins & Cowles's hardware stre which advertises "Keen Kutter" tools. The sign is in the form of the "Keen Kutter" trade mark and red and white lights are used for illumination speaking of the flood which inun dated the greater part of the island this week, M. J. Moran of the Island Park company said that the company had anticipated floods and had made plans accordingly when its buildings were built, and that the flood would not affect the plans for building a hotel on the island.

Lieut. J. P. Barnes, 5th United States Infantry, of Plattsburg, with Adjutant General Lee S. Tillotson of St. Albans and Capt. L. D. Taylor of this town, held the annual inspection of Company I, Sat-urday evening in the armory. There was a full attendance of the company. The same officers inspected the First Regi-ment band in the band room Sunday and Monday afternoons.

F. W. Keuch sustained an injury o his ankle and a cut above the right eye Saturday afternoon when a ladder on which he was standing slipped and threw him to the ground. He was lifting a storm door into his barn on Chase street and had placed the ladder at the door on the second floor. When he was up about 9 feet the ladder, which was standing the ice, slipped and let him fall,

John B. L'Heureux, St. died Friday night in the home of his daughter, Mrs.
V. L. Mettey. In Northampton. The funeral was held Monday in Sacred Heart church and the body was taken to South Hadley Falls for burial, Besides Mrs. Mettey, who formerly lived in Brattleboro, he leaves two daughters, Mrs. A. N. Dragan of Northampton and Mrs. Chester Gilmore of this town.

The West River passenger train due here at 9.29 a.m. did not arrive until 2.45 Wednesday afternoon. While near the Salmon Hole in Newfane the ralls spread and dropped the cars upon the ties. A wrecking crew was sent from here and the mixed train which had met he passenger at Townshend went back o assist in getting the cars on the track. The mixed train proceeded to South Lononderry and returned in the night.

About 40 friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. I. lark gathered at their home at 16 Cen tral street Tuesday evening to remind them of their 25th wedding anniversary. The gathering was a complete surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Clark. Refreshments were served and the guests were entertained by plano selections by Miss Hazel Clark. Games were played and the ocasion was very pleasant. Mr. and Mrs. Clark were the recipients of many silver gifts and a sum of money.

L. H. Barber opened his new musi store in the former sample room of the Brooks House Saturday evening. There was no formal opening. The new store is finished in white and on one side is shown the several lines of pianos which Mr. Barber carries and on the other are case and a show case is display various musical in struments and musical goods. The window offers an excellent opportunity for show-ing the goods and a large assortment has been placed there.

The annual meeting of Fort Dummer hapter, R. A. M., was held last evening in the Masonic temple. These officers were elected: E. H. P., C. B. Crowell; K., O. F. Benson; S., K. P. Barrington; treas., F. W. Putnam; sec., W. A. Shumway; C. of H., A. L. Pettee; P. S., I., H. Houghton; R. A. C. William Cushman; M. 3d V., V. H. Winchester; M. 2d V., P. F. Crown; M. 1st V., F. G. Pettee: chaplain, Kittredge Haskins; S. M. C. Houghton; S., G. M. Clay; T., J. Albert Taylor; trustee, J. Albert Taylor; corporator of the building association for three years, J. A. Taylor

The funeral of Mrs. Norman F. Cabo at 2.39 o'clock Monday afternoon Res Roy M. Houghton, paster of the Congre-gational church, officiating. The church quartet sang "Lead, kindly light," and "Rock of ages." The burial took place in the Callot lot in Prospect Hill cemetary, the bearers being Francis Goodhue, jr., of Germantown, Pa., Frederick Hol-brook of Boston and William Brooks and Emerson Brooks of New York, Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. William B. Cabot and two daughters, Miss Anna Cabot and Miss Eleanor Cabot, of Boston Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Holbrook, son and Jaughter. Cabot Holbrook and Miss Jaughter, Cabot Holbrook and Miss Grace Holbrook, of Boston; Francis Goodhue, of Germantown, Pa., and Will-iam Brooks, Emerson Brooks and Mrs.

Plans for building a dam across the Connecticut river at the French Kins rapids north of Turners Falls were dis-cussed before the harbor and land commissioners in Boston Wednesday, Stephen Young, counsel for the Connecticut River Power company, and Henry I. Harriman, president of the French King Rapids Power company, appearing in behalf of the project. No opposition to Martin thereupon decided to give one of the plan was made. The river is 400 feet wide. It is not proposed to put any Three adult persons were baptized at the service Saturday It higher at high water than now. two stoneways on the west quarter of the dam will take care of the surplus water. At the most there are not over 15 acres in Massachusetts which will have to be flowed so that damages must be paid, and an acre or acre and a half in New Hampshire. The banks of the river are 15 to 20 feet high. Motor boat and canoe owners want some way pro vided for going above the dam, and Mr Harriman suggested a skidway with tackle to draw the boats up.

the First Baptist church the church calendar for last Sunday contained the following: "A vote of appreciation for the long and valuable service of Mr. Wellman, who declined a reelection as trustee, was passed unanimously by a rising vote. The clerk reported access-tions by baptism, 10; by letter and exper-lence, 15; total, 25; net increase, 6; resi-dent members, 395; total enrolment, 523. There has been received during the year, for current expenses, $3963.75; for foreign plar lodge in Compton. Besides her husband she leaves two sons, Hosmer D. Waldron of West Northfield and Egbert A. Waldron of West Brattleboro, and two daughters, Mrs. Bessle Parker of South Deerfield.

The funeral was held in the home Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. Dear of Bernardston. South Deerfield, Mass., and the bearers were Egbert A. Waldron and Homer Waldron, sons, D. W. Parker of South Deerfield, Mass., and the bearers were Egbert A. Waldron and Homer Waldron, sons, D. W. Parker of South Deerfield, Mass., and tegent Cairns of Bernardston. Among those from out of town who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Cairns of Bernardston.

Homer Waldron, sons, D. W. Parker of South Deerfield, Mass., and Egbert Cairns of Bernardston. Among those grand total to $6201.35. Surely this is a good showing for an average year, certainly to be surpassed in the year to come."

Homer Waldron, sons, D. W. Parker of South Deerfield, Mass., and Egbert Cairns of Bernardston. Among those grand total to $6201.35. Surely this is a good showing for an average year, certainly to be surpassed in the year to come."

Bingham chapter, O. E. S., will elect efficers Tuesday evening, April 16. Sup-ber will be served at 6.20.

A meeting of the Mechanics' Aque duct company will be held in H. C. Streeter's office in Crosby block April 2 The missionary and aid society of the Baptist church will hold their annual meeting Thursday, April 18, at 3 o'clock in the chapel. A large attendance is de-

Fritz Hanson failed to throw Tounimen, a Finn, in Fitchburg Tuesday night twice in 60 minutes. In fact he failed to get a single fall. The Finn weighed about 165 pounds

Because of the flood the elevator and onveyors in E. Crosby & Co.'s grain elevator were out of commission from Monday to Wednesday. The water in the basement was four feet deep.

A meeting of the directors of the board of trade which was scheduled for Tuesday evening of this week was postponed a week. At the next meeting the date for holding the annual meeting will decided upon.

Canton Palestine held its annual ladies night reception Wednesday evening it Odd Fellows' hall and about 90 couple were present. Music was furnished by Dugan and Wales and dancing was en-joyed. During the evening refreshments were served.

The trout fishing season will ext Monday. The streams are still high and cold, with snow and ice along the banks in the woods. A few enthusiasts will visit the brooks, but the general rush this year will not take place until the weather is warmer.

Business relative to the purchase of real estate will be brought before Wan-tastiquet lodge of Odd Fellows in the regular meeting Monday evening. It is understood that the lodge contemplates erecting a building for the use of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs.

The women of Sunshine society, branch I, will hold their annual rummage sale Friday and Saturday, April 19 and 20, in the basement of the Emerson building on Elliot street. Any contributions of clothing, shoes or old furniture will be gratefully received.

The candidates for the high school track team came out yesterday after-noon for practice on the fair grounds under supervision of Athletic Instructor Diedrich Stolte. Twenty boys reported and some promising athletes were given workouts The invitation meet will held May 25,

The Easter services at the Retreat were conducted by Rev. E. Q. S. Osgood and Mrs. W. H. Bond sang "The city divine," accompanied by Mr. Bond. A quartet consisting of A. L. Maynard, E. V. Morse, C. B. Crowell and F. S. Knight sang "Onward and upward" and "When we stand before the King."

Joseph LeRoy and Miss Emily Mary Gottwald were married Monday in the town clerk's office by Justice C. S. Hopkins, Mr. LeRoy is proprietor of a barber shop over the Richardson Main street meat market and Mrs. LeRoy has been employed by Dr. C. S. Pratt. Mrs. LeRoy left yesterday for a business trip of several weeks in Florida.

The body of Thomas Boyden Bemis, 63, who died in Athol, Mass., April 6, was brought here for burial in Locust Ridge cemetery Tuesday. He was a son of Bradley and Mary Ann Bemis of Dumnerston. The committal service was conducted by Rev. E. Q. S. Osgood and the bearers were Elijah Wales, Arthur P. Simonds, W. B. Vinton and W. C.

Workmen under the direction of the board of bailiffs completed work this week on the break in the sewer in the rear of the White River Chair com-pany's plant. The rains had washed a gully in the bank from South Main street and under the sewer pipes on the flats off Vernon street. The pipes gave way under their own weight, allowing the sewage to run over the ground.

The Easter number of the Christian Work and Evangelist, a New York magdisplayed the talking machines records and supplies. The music is shown near the front of the store is a modern Miss Violette Reynolds of New York. daughter of Mrs. A. D. Reynolds of this town, reviewing six recent novels. The town, reviewing six recent novels. outlines of the stories are set forth in attractive form and good English, show ng that the reviewer, as well as the authors, possesses literary talent

Workmen are excavating for the base-nent of E. C. Crosby's four-story garage to be built at the corner of Green and High streets, on the site of the Retting building, and steel girders have arrived or the construction of the building. A cement mixing machine is being installed and a stationary engine and derrick have been placed on Green street, mak-

In the regular meeting of the Mutual and association Monday afternoon it was voted to change the day of the regular meeting from the second Monday to the second Wednesday in each month. The report for March showed that 77 calls were received; all emergency calls all for sickness were filled with the ception of one, which was out of town the supervisor made 109 calls with 16 patients under care; the district nurse made 146 calls with 25 patients under

In the meeting of the selectmen Mon day night the proposed widering of North Main street north of the common and the proposed laying of a sidewalk on the same street were again discussed.

D. T. Perry submitted figures as to the cost of the improvements. To widen the street would necessitate building a re-taining wall for some distance along the west side. Mr. Perry presented plans which had been made at the request of the late Selectman John Galvin last year and which showed the levels of the street after being improved.

Rev. Roy M. Houghton will preach in the Congregational church the next three Sundays, his trip abroad having been postponed from April 10 to May 4. On that date he will sail from New York on the steamship Alice of the Austro-American line. The first stop will be at the Azores. There will be 10 persons in the party of which Rev. Mr. Houghton will be a member. They will visit Egypt, Palestine, Syria, Turkey, Greece, Italy, Switzerland, the Rhine region in Germany, France and England, returning to Boston Aug. 12. been postponed from April 10 to May 4

Mrs. Cora M. Adams, 50, widow of Loren M. Adams, formerly of this town. died in the home of Ernest M. Whitney at 30 Prospect street Sunday after a year's illness with tuberculosis. Her home was in Vernon, but on account of her illness she was brought here two weeks previous to her death to be cared r. She was born in Whitingham May 1862, and was a daughter of Lewis lison, who died 36 years ago, and Sarah (Chase) Jillson, who died Jan. 25, in Vernon. After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Adams lived several years on the first farm south of the D. M. Barber farm in this town. Then they went west, but soon returned and carried on farms in Whitingham Tackscouldle and farms in Whitingham, Jacksonville and Guilford many years, then going to Maine. About a year later, which was seven years ago, Mr. Adams died and the mother and large family of children

BRATTLEBORO PERSONAL.

Mrs. H. O. Fuller returned Saturday Stamford after visiting relatives here, Fred L Smith has been in New York and Philadelphia this week on business. Paul Gehring of New York was a guest of Miss Beulah Tucker Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Helen Morris has been spending week in New York with Miss Harriette

Ansel Pierce went to Keene Tuesday o stay temporarily and clip horses in his prother's stable. Austin J. Gleason is very ill in the home of his son, Fred B. Gleason, in Springfield, Mass.

Lester G. Utley of Northampton was guest Saturday and Sunday of Miss Katharine Martin.

Mrs. Edwin Griffin of Brooklyn was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall D. Groot the first of the week.

Mrs. Jesse Niles of Hoosick Falls, N Y., hase been a guest of her sister, Mrs W. R. Daley, this week. Fred Johnson who formerly was employed on the Bradley farm, has entered the employ of C. S. Hopkins. Mrs. W. T. Bruce is teaching the ighth grade in the Main street school his week for Miss Mabei Applin.

Mrs. H. M. Wood and son, Carroll, were guests several days this week at John T. Moore's in Bellows Falls. Lyman Smith returned to the Worceser Polytechnic Institute Sunday after spending the Easter vacation at home.

Dr. Frank E. Haskins returned to Boston Saturday after a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiland Haskins. Miss Clara Gale, who has just returned o Claremont from a visit in the West, has been in town several days this week. Mrs. Lucy Sawyer of Townshend, who has been at W. A. Gilbert's several weeks, will return to Townshend to-

Mrs. E. C. Hamilton and son, Ernest, returned Monday from Bennington, where they visited a few days with Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Hopkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lockwood went to Springfield, this state, yesterday to at-tend the funeral of Mr. Lockwood's brother-in-iaw, Munroe Adams. David Willard of New York city came o this town Tuesday to remain about 0 days. He will sail for Spain for an extended visit in about two weeks. Albert Fuller of Minneapolis is at home to attend the golden wedding annivers-ary of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Fuller, which will take place April Clarence Whitaker of South Main street was operated upon in the Me-morial hospital Monday evening for ap-pendicitis by Dr. G. R. Anderson. He is resting comfortably.

Miss Minnie O'Brien formerly employed in the J. C. Day & company store in Bellows Falls, will come to Brattlebero Monday to assist Houghton & Simonds through their sale. Orlin Whitney and Harold Whitney were visitors in town Saturday and Sun-day. Both young men formerly lived here and are now employed in a restauran n White River Junction

George Burton, who worked here for James Allen and Joseph Leroy, went last week to Readsboro, where he is working in a pool and billiard room, bowling alley and barber shop. W. F. Root, who went to Montpeller as a delegate to the second district Re-publican convention Tuesday, attended a meeting of the state board of phar-macy in Montpeller the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennison Cowles returned Wednesday evening from a 19 days' visit in Daytona, Fla. While there they stayed at the Palmetto House, owned by C. O. Chamberlain, formerly of this town.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Whittier of Montpeller came Saturday to visit their daughter, Mrs. H. G. Barber. Mr. Whittier returned Monday morning, Mrs. Whittier remaining as a guest of her daughter.

Mrs. Allyn J. Croshy and Springfield, this state, were in Brattle-boro Tuesday to see Mrs. Harry A. Bingnam, who is ill with neuritis in the Mem-orial hospital. Mrs. Bingham has im-proved a little the past week.

Dr. Henry D. Holton and Henry Bond f Tyler street attended a meeting of he executive committee of the inter-hurch federation in Burlington Monday light, when important resolutions cor erning the work were adopted. A letter f regret from Clarke C. Fitts was read. E. A. Lord, who had worked 35 con-secutive years in the Estey organ factories, has given up his position and Mrs. Lord have moved to No. 6 to occupy apartments in the home of their daughter, Mrs. Clarence A. Bar

Mrs. Franc E. Clark of 46 High stree went last week to Roslyn, N. Y., to spend Easter with her daughter, Miss Caroline Howard Clark. This week they, with some of Miss Clark's history s, went to Washington. Mrs. Clark return to Brattleboro early next

Rev. F. A. Wells, Rev. E. W. Sharp nd S. A. Daniels are attendeing the neeting of the Vermont Methodist conference in Newport, which began Wednesday morning and will continue until Monday. It is expected that Rev. Mr. Wells will be returned to the Brattleboro pastorate. Miss Lillian V. Whiting, supervisor of drawing in the public schools, recently received an offer from the city of Los Angeles, Cal., to accept a similar postition there. The offer was for immediate acceptance but she has arranged so that she may remain here until the clos of schools and begin her new work California in September.

The engagement of Miss Pauline Sher-man Jenne and Henry Wheeler Warren was announced Wednesday by Mrs. Clarwas announced Wednesday by Mrs. Clar-ence F. R. Jenne at a party of young people given at her home in Hartford, Conn. Miss Jenne was born in Brattle-boro, graduated from the Brattleboro high school and Mt. Holyoke college and later studied piano and French in Paris Mr. Warren, who formerly lived in Lei-cester, Mass., now holds a position in the office of the Case. Lockwood & Brainard company of Hartford. The marriage probably will take place in the fall.

the chapel Tuesday evening, April 23. Brattleboro chapter, D. A. R., will hold its April meeting in the Brooks House next Friday at 3 p. m. Mrs. Levi K. Fuller will give a paper on "Brattleboro at the time of the Civil war."

TOURING CAR

1908 model, seven-passenger, fully equipped, overhauled, in nice condition for season's use. Price low. Enquire of HENRY R. BROWN, Brattleboro, Vt.

FLOWERS

Always of best quality, strictly fresh. Design work a specialty. HOPKINS, THE FLORIST. 144 Western Ave., Brattleboro.

BARBER'S Music Store

High Street

Brattleboro

We are now in our new store, "just around the Brooks House corner," and shall be pleased to have you call and see our complete line of musical instruments. Our line of Standard Pianos excel all.

Grand Chickering Pianos Upright

Boston, 1823 The tone of the Chickering is the nearest to the ideal that is possible to reach. The unqualified endorsement by people whose word is authoritative-is not this conclusive proof of superiority of Chickering Pianos?

Vose Pianos

Need no superlatives to emphasize their greatness. For over half a century they have stood for all that is highest in piano makers' art.

Merrill Pianos

Boston, 1865

Are today the most popular make and by reason of the great prestige and downright value are sold by America's largest retail houses.

Briggs Pianos

Are among the few created without the selling price in view. Therefore, the intrinsic value is superior to most pianos.

Norris & Hyde

Christman

If you want merely a piece of furniture to occupy space in a conventional way, the question is easily settled. Anything which looks like a piano will do. If on the other hand you are installing a piano in your home for its genuine worth as a vital, entertaining, elevating, satisfying factor in home life, that's a different story. In that case any of the above pianos will meet every requirement.

Player Pianos

Angelus

Bjur Bros.

Evenings at home are most pleasant, spent with the refining influence of good music. By selecting an ANGELUS or BJUR BROS. happiness and satisfaction are assured.

EASY PAYMENTS

Our line of TALKING MACHINES and RECORDS is com-

Barber's Music Store

JUST AROUND BROOKS HOUSE CORNER

WATCH FOR OUR SPECIAL AD. NEXT WEEK

Singer Sewing Machines

Headquarters for Auto and Supplies Pennants

WANTED! Young Men and Women to Learn Cotton Mill Work

Good wages paid to beginners. Apply at once to the Superintendent of the Fort Dummer Mills, Brattleboro, Vermont.

Special For Ten Days

WE WILL SELL

20 pounds of Corned Beef $1.00 9 pounds Salt Pork $1.00

W. F. RICHARDSON CO.

8 pounds Home Made Lard

SOMETHING NEW Buzzell's Popcorn

Also tresh Buttered and Salted Popcorn at all hours. Don't forget the place

FOR SALE

Nice Building Lots

20 ELLIOT STREET

Cottage House and Barn, Two D. CLOUGH, 50 South Main St.

That Yau Can Find All Kinds of Pastry, Bread, Rolls

DON'T FORGET

$1.00

and Pies At the New Bakery, Emerson Building. Try our BEANS and BROWN BREAD Saturday

WELLS & COMPANY

We Pay Highest Cash Prices for Rags. Rubbers, Metals, Hides, Skins and Bones. J. SAVA, 78 Elliot St.