

A LIFE INCOME

The NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY has a contract known as the "LIFE INCOME POLICY" which provides for the payment of a fixed income to the beneficiary each month after the death of the insured as long as he or she survives. It is guaranteed that the death of the beneficiary, before the expiration of the 20 years, the remaining installments will be commuted. The advantages of this form of insurance become generally recognized, and special emphasis is made upon it just now through disclosures made in the investigation of certain sudden wealth schemes, in which several widows have been induced to part with the insurance money left them on representation that they will receive large dividend returns. The life income policy gives your family an absolute monthly income which cannot be lost through unwise investment. Such a contract means freedom from worry or disappointment. Inquire.

BRATTLEBORO LOCAL

MRS. ASA S. FIELD.

Mrs. Laura (Jewell) Field, 77, wife of Asa S. Field, died in her home at 2 Prospect street about 7 o'clock Friday evening. Although not in her usual good health the past winter and spring, she attended to her household duties until June 15, the Saturday before her death, when she was obliged to give up on account of acute bronchitis, and this was followed by pneumonia. From the beginning of last week her condition became rapidly worse, and her children were summoned, reaching her bedside a few hours before she lost consciousness.

Laura Ruth Jewell was born in Whitehall Nov. 5, 1834, and was one of nine children of David and Susan (Pauken) Jewell. At the age of about 16 years she came to Brattleboro, and for about two years she attended the high school, which was in the early part of its history, living with her sister, Mrs. S. H. Jones. Afterwards she returned to teach school in her native town, and for a short time she lived in South Deerfield, Mass.

Her marriage to Asa S. Field of Brattleboro took place in Vernon May 29, 1856. They came at once to this town and lived about three years at N. Y. street, moving then to the house which they built at 2 Prospect street, where they spent 53 years of happy wedded life. They observed their golden wedding anniversary there in 1909, receiving the congratulations of about 300 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Field had three children, Everett M., who died in 1877 at the age of nearly 20 years; Edith S., wife of Fred A. Cutler of Minneapolis, and Frank H. Field, who has a position in the publication bureau of the General Electric company in Schenectady, N. Y. Besides her husband and children Mrs. Field leaves one brother, B. D. Jewell of Whitehall, and three sisters, Mrs. S. H. Jones of Newbury, Mass., Mrs. Joseph Chase of Readboro and Mrs. C. A. Brown of Brattleboro. She also leaves two grandchildren, Mary Edith and Fred Abbott, children of Mr. and Mrs. Cutler.

Mr. Field, who is nearly 87 years old, was employed by the Estey Organ company until he voluntarily retired a few years ago, being foreman of the action department 26 years and being responsible for many valuable improvements and patents. He began work for the company Aug. 25, 1860, and other than now living served the company as long as he. For many years Mrs. Field had been a devoted member of the First Baptist church, constant in her attendance upon its services and supporting its various activities. Her home life was marked by exceptional devotion to her family circle and was guided by the highest ideal. She loved children and young people and their visits always brought her comfort and joy. She also found much pleasure among her friends.

Funeral services were held in the home at 2 o'clock Monday and were largely attended. Rev. Dr. John R. Gow, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated, and Mrs. William H. Bond sang two selections, "Sometime We'll Understand" and "Asleep in Jesus." The burial took place in Prospect Hill cemetery, the bearers being Fred S. Knight, Arthur I. Maynard, Emory J. Eddy and Will B. Smith. Among the floral remembrances were a large number of home grown roses, a flower especially admired by Mrs. Field, sent by the neighbors.

BALDHEADS.

More Women are Bald Than Men, Says Authority.

This is a startling statement but it's true according to an article published in a standard magazine this year. One thing is certain PARISIAN SAGE will surely prevent baldness by stopping the hair from falling, but it won't grow hair after the head is bald.

Ladies, look after your hair, destroy the dandruff germ with PARISIAN SAGE and dandruff will disappear. It stops scalp itch over night and is guaranteed to be the most refreshing, refined and agreeable hair dressing that can be obtained. Sold by Wilfred P. Root and druggists all over America for 50 cents. "My hair was falling out, and I was troubled with itching scalp. I received no benefit until I tried PARISIAN SAGE."—Mrs. George Thunders, R. F. D. 5, Marshall, Mich.

Holmes-Wright Wedding.

The marriage of Arthur Holmes and Miss Edna Wright took place at 6 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the presence of over 200 invited guests in the Congregational church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. D. Hayward. At the appointed hour, the bride and groom came slowly up the aisle as the strains of the wedding march, rendered by Miss Ida Wright, were heard. The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Dr. Burton Holmes of Brandon. The bridesmaids were Miss Katherine Dow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Dow, of 9 Silver road and Clyde A. Cutler, son of Mrs. Alice Cutler of Springfield, Vt., took place yesterday at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride. The ceremony being performed by Rev. Alan Hudson, pastor of the First Congregational church. The couple were united in marriage and the single ring service was used.

The bride was dressed in a gown of white embroidered batiste and carried a bouquet of lilacs of the valley. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Charles W. Dow. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride, friends being present from this city and surrounding towns. Refreshments were served, consisting of ices, cakes, punch and fancy crackers. Mrs. Cutler was employed at the office of the assessors at City hall. Her father was a member of the Brookton board and is now state supervisor of assessors. She is a member of the First Congregational church. The groom is a graduate of the Springfield high school. He is assistant manager at the Hall & Lyon store and is affiliated with the Masonic lodge in Brattleboro, Vt.

The couple were the recipients of many beautiful presents, including cut glass, silver service and bouquets. After the reception they left on a two-weeks' honeymoon trip and on their return will make their home at 9 Silver road.—[Brookton, Mass., Enterprise, June 25.]

Mr. Cutler was employed several years in the Brooks House Pharmacy and has many friends among the young people of Brattleboro.

The sliding scale for moving picture theatre licenses was abolished Saturday evening in a meeting of the board of bailiffs and hereafter the price will be $300 a year, payable monthly in advance. As a result Mrs. Emma C. Farrington of Littleton, N. H., will open a moving picture and vaudeville theatre in Charles Miner's new building on Elliot street about Aug. 15. Mrs. Farrington was given a hearing June 7 and the bailiffs voted to issue her a license for $300 a year, payable in monthly advances. This was too much, in her estimation, and she left town, leaving her attorney, R. C. Bacon, to confer with the bailiffs and try to have the license reduced to $200, the amount paid by the Empire theatre. Mr. Bacon appeared before the board Saturday evening. Only three members were present. After hearing Mr. Bacon's arguments they decided to reduce the price of Mrs. Farrington's license to $200. Mrs. Farrington was in attendance upon its services and supporting its various activities. Her home life was marked by exceptional devotion to her family circle and was guided by the highest ideal. She loved children and young people and their visits always brought her comfort and joy. She also found much pleasure among her friends.

Funeral services were held in the home at 2 o'clock Monday and were largely attended. Rev. Dr. John R. Gow, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated, and Mrs. William H. Bond sang two selections, "Sometime We'll Understand" and "Asleep in Jesus." The burial took place in Prospect Hill cemetery, the bearers being Fred S. Knight, Arthur I. Maynard, Emory J. Eddy and Will B. Smith. Among the floral remembrances were a large number of home grown roses, a flower especially admired by Mrs. Field, sent by the neighbors.

WESTMINSTER WEST.

Chapman-Goodell.

Miss May Goodell of this village and Harry L. Chapman of Windham were married Wednesday night, June 26, in the home of the bride's father, Mr. and Mrs. R. Chapman. The ceremony was performed by her pastor, Rev. Daniel McIntyre, using the single ring service. The event was quiet on account of the recent death in the bride's family, only near relatives attending the service.

Mrs. Chapman will be missed in town as she has always been one of our popular, sunny girls, and her host of friends, both young and old, unite in best wishes for her happy future. They will live in Windham in the house recently built. Mr. Chapman is favorably known to many in the county as a successful photographer.

Clarence Blodgett is ill. Judge Schwenk and two friends spent Sunday at Harlan Goodhue's.

F. R. Chapman and family spent Sunday at his former home in Windham. Mr. Chapman is spending a few days at Lowell lake.

Miss Ruth Harlow of Brattleboro spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harlow.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Brooks of Gassetts spent Sunday with his uncle, Charles Brooks.

Carrie Houghton has finished her first year in the high school at Marlboro, Mass., and is home for the vacation.

Rev. Daniel McIntyre has bought from Rev. F. D. Hayward of Westminster his beautiful and valuable horse known as Maude.

Abraham Bell and granddaughter of Connecticut came to his brother's, George Bell's, last Tuesday to remain a few days.

Mrs. Mason, after spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Burt Ormsby, has gone to Boston to care for another sister.

Lida Frost has returned from her school in Northfield. She will spend the vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. McElroy.

Willis Braley spent several days the first of the week in Rupert and Manchester. His father, Gorham Braley, drove the stage.

Ora Codding, an instructor in the Binghamton, N. Y., high school, is home on a vacation. He will return for another year's work in September.

Fred Harlow's four boys of Malden, Mass., are in town for the summer. Everett, Lawrence and Frank at George Gould's, and Harold over on the East side.

In the Congregational church Sunday morning the pastor will speak on "Two men contrasted." In the afternoon at 3 o'clock in school district No. 1 the theme will be "How can we be better Christians?" In the evening after the Y. P. S. C. E. meeting the fifth lecture will be given in the series on the churches, "The Congregational Church."

Maple Grove Grange will hold its annual picnic in the church grove July 4, to which all are cordially invited to come with well filled baskets. Dinner will be served at 1 o'clock. The following program will be given: Words of welcome, Bert Ormsby, master of Maple Grove Grange; song, "Old Vermont," school children; reading, "Our flag," Mrs. J. C. Clark; recitation, "Fourth of July record," Philip Hall; song, Robert Harlow; declamation, "Paul Revere's ride," Hugh Houghton; school children; white and blue; school children; address, "The Hero, Washington," Rev. Daniel McIntyre; closing song, America.
