

The Vermont Phoenix.

TEN PAGES

BRATTLEBORO.

Visiting days at the Austine Institution closed Wednesday.

Rev. A. V. Woodworth of West Brattleboro will conduct the service at the Home for the Aged Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Jerry E. Higley, in memory of her father, Capt. F. F. Gleason, placed a pot of geraniums on each soldier's grave in Meeting house Hill cemetery, where her father was buried.

The standpipe from which north-bound trains are to take water at the railroad station was put in place yesterday. This is located under the overpass on the east side of the tracks.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions of the Episcopal church will be held today at 3 p. m. in the home of Mrs. F. W. Child of Terrace street.

The Guilford Ice Co. has bought a one-ton Kohler truck to bring ice from the ice house in Guilford to the carts that distribute it in Brattleboro. It is the first truck of the kind to be used locally.

Two cases of measles have been reported to Dr. Henry Tucker, health officer. One is in a Wojcik family at 305 South Main street and the second in the family of Mr. Trahan at 307 South Main street.

Announcements have been received in Brattleboro of the marriage of Miss Janet Allen Davenport to Encl Charles Monroe, in Albany, N. Y., May 22. Mr. and Mrs. Monroe will live at 129 Clinton avenue, Albany. The bride is a daughter of Charles H. Davenport of Albany, formerly of Brattleboro.

Troop No. 4 of the Boy Scouts met in the Universalist church Wednesday and organized a baseball team with Hugh Stowell captain and Stanley Clapp manager. A game has been arranged with troop No. 1, the Congregational Boy Scouts, to be played a week from Saturday in the forenoon. Games with other troops will be arranged.

The annual meeting of the Brattleboro Home for the Aged and Disabled was held Tuesday afternoon in the home of Dr. Henry D. Holton and the old board of officers was re-elected. They are as follows: President, Dr. Henry D. Holton; vice president, Judge James M. Tyler; secretary and treasurer, George C. Averill; auditors, Edward C. Crosby and Hiram F. Weatherhead.

W. H. Heywood, recently appointed a member of the police force by the village commissioners, was on duty Tuesday as the day patrolman, his tour of duty being from 9 o'clock in the morning until relieved by the chief about 6 o'clock in the afternoon. Officer Heywood is not yet in uniform, but wears a badge and will don a uniform as soon as the one ordered arrives.

Arthur L. Rohde of the firm of Moran & Rohde undertakers, has been notified by Irving Watson, secretary of the New Hampshire state board of health, that he has successfully passed the examinations, taken May 17, for license to practice embalming in New Hampshire. A certificate was enclosed. Mr. Rohde already held a license to practice in Vermont. His assistant, Carl A. Mitchell, is a licensed embalmer in Vermont and Massachusetts.

Rev. George E. Tomkinson's stereopticon lecture in the First Baptist church last evening for the benefit of the social committee of the Christian Endeavor society included over 100 slides. It showed Pike's Peak New Mexico, the Hopi Indians, petrified forests, the Grand Canyon of Arizona, Los Angeles, the Catalina Islands, fruit groves, San Diego, San Joaquin valley, Yosemite national park, Mariposa grove, San Francisco and other subjects.

Rain interfered somewhat with the Memorial day program at the Country club, but about 40 were there for luncheon and 18 men started in the kickers' handicap tournament which took place in the afternoon. Frank B. Putnam was the winner with a net score of 79 while Dennison Cowley was second with a net score of 82. During the evening a buffet luncheon was served on the veranda and between 25 and 30 couples enjoyed dancing to music by Leitinger's orchestra.

The body of Bryan W. Gale was removed from the mausoleum in Morning-side cemetery Monday at 10 o'clock a. m., and interment took place in the family mausoleum in the Roman Catholic cemetery, Father J. J. Rand officiated. Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Gale of New York, parents of the young man, were here and were accompanied to the cemetery by relatives and intimate friends and several members of the high school class of 1916, of which Bryan was a member.

Invitations have been received by Brattleboro friends to the marriage of Miss Dorothy Day of Stour Falls, N. D., to Holton Davenport of Worcester, Mass. The marriage will take place in Calvary cathedral, Sioux Falls, Tuesday evening, June 6, at 8 o'clock, and will be followed by a reception in the Guild room. They will be at home in Worcester after Oct. 1. Miss Day is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Manley Day of Sioux Falls. Her mother before her marriage was Miss Annie Davenport of Brattleboro. Holton Davenport is a lawyer in Worcester. He is a son of Charles H. Davenport of Albany, N. Y., who for years was proprietor of the former Windham County Reformer of this town.

George J. Kingsley of Brattleboro, son of Otis Kingsley of Heath, Mass., and Miss Helen Mather of Brattleboro, were married in Wilmington Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in the home of Nathan Green, by Rev. Flint M. Bissell. A single ring service was used and they were unattended. The bride wore a gown of pearl crepe and tulle. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley will begin housekeeping in S. D. Holbrook's house on Greenleaf street, West Brattleboro. Mrs. Kingsley moved to Brattleboro a few years ago with her parents from Chesterfield, N. H., where she attended school. Mr. Kingsley is employed by the Grand Union Tea company, driving one of its delivery teams.

The women golfers of the Brattleboro Country club will participate in another flag tournament this afternoon.

Patsy Biaggi, 10, son of Ralph Biaggi of Reed street, fell Saturday and fractured his right forearm at the wrist. The fracture was reduced by Dr. H. P. Greene.

Under the direction of men from the factory W. F. Root's soda fountain was moved Monday from the former place of business to a new location in the Hooker building.

The list of players of the Company I band is as follows: Robbins, Harlow, E. Johnson, Guy Johnson, Fitzgibbons, Ryan, Lee, Manning, Miner, L. Dunlevy, Doyle, Philbrick, A. Smith and Graves.

A pole that had stood at the corner of the retaining wall on Bridge street at the end of the walk leading to the main entrance of the new railroad station was taken down yesterday. The wires having been transferred to other poles on the opposite side of Vernon street.

Sixteen women participated in the flag tournament at the Country club Friday afternoon. The event was won by Mrs. J. G. Estey, with Mrs. T. Brittan second and Mrs. Minnie D. Taylor third. Previous to the match the players and a number of others enjoyed lunch at the club house.

The proceeds from the payment of Bond Hedges given May 22 on the fair grounds under the auspices of the combined Parent-Teacher associations were $193.41. The greater part of the money will be devoted to paying a playground supervisor and the remainder will be expended for new paraphernalia.

Mrs. Arthur P. Carpenter, Mrs. E. M. Addis and Mrs. A. V. Piper entertained at auction bridge Thursday, May 25, in Mrs. Carpenter's home on Myrtle street. The first prize was won by Mrs. Fremont Hamilton, the second by Mrs. Harry R. Randall and the third went to Miss Nellie Archer. Refreshments were served.

Thomas L. Long of Hudson street has bought of A. B. Clapp the new part of the building bought recently by Mr. Clapp at the corner of South Main and Main streets and will move it to the site of his present home on Hudson street, which stands on the brow of the hill. He has offered the home on the site at present for sale if removed at once.

The West Brattleboro baseball team forced the Bernardston town team to go 11 hard innings to win Saturday afternoon at Bernardston by a score of 13 to 12. The battery for West Brattleboro was Covey, Taylor and Johnson, and for Bernardston Messier and Wyman pitched and Barber caught. The teams will play in West Brattleboro later in the season.

The sacred concert given Sunday afternoon by the First Regiment band on the Eaton place to signify the opening of the new building lots there in the morning and in spite of the threatening weather. While many went evidently to enjoy the concert others made that a consideration secondary to an inspection of the various lots that are staked out.

Troop No. 4 of the Boy Scouts, connected with the Universalist church, went out Saturday with T. W. Eason, carrying their dinner and spending the day gathering laurel to be made into wreaths for the Memorial day observance. The party included J. J. Stowell, Stanley Clapp, Silas Hamilton, Millard Coleman, Merrill Coleman, Albert Allen, Harold Streeter, Allen Brackett and Clarence Pierce.

Rev. D. E. Trout gave a stereopticon lecture in Union church in Vernon Friday night, his subject being the Land of the Golden West. The lecture related to Yellowstone national park, Grand Canyon of the Colorado, Garden of the Gods, and the Yosemite valley. The audience completely filled the church, and many automobiles coming from the surrounding country. The lecture was very entertaining and was much appreciated.

Sodagwick Post, G. A. R., and Sodagwick Woman's Relief corps attended services in the Centre Congregational church Sunday. The congregation filled the church. Rev. R. H. Clapp preached an especially strong sermon on After Fifty Years, in which he emphasized the fact that war is a result of a violation of the moral order of existence—a fact which was a true of the Civil war as it is of the present conflict in Europe.

The annual meeting of the Sunshine society, branch one, was held Friday with Mrs. Charles R. Crosby. A covered dish luncheon was served at 1 o'clock and at the business meeting the following officers were elected: Pres., Mrs. J. C. DeWitt; vice pres., Mrs. W. B. Smith; secretary, Miss Ruth W. Childs; treasurer, Mrs. C. R. Crosby; chairman of ways and means committee, Mrs. A. W. Rockwell; chairman of library committee, Mrs. Charles Akley.

The Wash Camp Fire girls, Miss Helen Martin guardian, entertained the Wikeepee Camp Fire girls of Williamsville, Mrs. E. H. Richardson guardian, Friday afternoon and evening. In the afternoon they all went to the foot of the mountain, near the spot where the Wikee girls gave their play a year ago, where a picnic was enjoyed. In the evening the Williamsville girls were guests of the Brattleboro girls at the Princess theater. There were 16 present of the Wikeepee camp, who returned by automobiles in the evening.

William B. Vinton, retiring president, was the host May 25 at the Masonic temple, when one of the choicest banquets ever prepared in town was served under the direction of Edna Bates. To 35 members of the Past Prosiding Officers' association, the menu included grape fruit, oysters on half shell, brook trout with French fried potatoes, fried chicken with mashed potatoes, beef loaf, cabbage salad, crab salad, lettuce, tomatoes, pudding, assorted cake, coffee and cigars. Several matters of business were discussed in the annual meeting of the association and the following officers were chosen: President, Frank B. Putnam; vice president, Ferris R. Vaughan; secretary and treasurer, George Malley; Horace D. Walker's work in behalf of the various Masonic bodies was recognized by election as an honorary member of the association.

Tickets for the grade track meet to be held on the fair grounds Saturday afternoon, June 10, are on sale by the pupils of the graded schools.

As the chauffeur for Richards Bradley was driving Mr. Bradley's automobile down Main street yesterday the driver of a carriage directly in front of Mr. Bradley's machine, turned suddenly across the street without indicating that he intended to change direction. In the slight collision that resulted one shaft of the carriage was broken, but no other damage was done.

The next regular Grange meeting will be held Monday, June 5, instead of June 3. The question to be discussed at that meeting will be as follows: Which exerts the greater influence in the world, wealth or power? Another feature of this meeting will be the rollcall to be responded to by answering the question, How would you spend $100 on yourself?

Just before 7 yesterday morning as Timothy Hurliby was driving a horse attached to a coal wagon of E. B. Barrows & Co., across the Bridge street grade crossing the wagon was struck by an engine engaged in switching cars. Hurliby jumped and the horse managed to keep out from under the wheels until the engine could be stopped. Neither horse nor driver was injured, but the wagon was wrecked.

A. L. Brookway, vice president and chairman of the finance committee of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America, was in town yesterday with regard to the contract for constructing the office building for the association to be built by A. B. Clapp at the corner of Main and South Main streets. R. J. Raborn, C. L. Cole and Stephen Trevelyan of the H. H. Baker Lines Co., contractors of Meriden, Conn., were here Wednesday and yesterday in connection with the contract, bids for which were to be submitted yesterday. The contract will be awarded very soon.

The Post Office Clerks' and Carriers' Association of Vermont held its annual meeting in St. Albans Memorial day, with an attendance of about 100. James A. Austin of Brattleboro presided at the meeting of the Vermont state branch of the United National Association of Post Office Clerks. Maurice P. Devine of Providence, formerly of Brattleboro, state president for Raede Island of the National Association of Civil Service Employees, gave an interesting talk on postal matters. T. G. Driscoll of St. Albans was elected president. Thomas A. Austin of Brattleboro attended the annual meeting of the Vermont State Association of the National Association of Letter Carriers and Joseph M. Flynn of Burlington was elected president. A banquet and post-prandial exercises took place in the American House.

BRATTLEBORO PERSONAL.

Francis Greenleaf and Walter Stimpson left Saturday afternoon to stay several days at Mr. Greenleaf's home in Bennington.

Miss Gertrude Croker, who teaches in a school for the deaf in New York city, is visiting in town at her home on Oak street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Phelps and daughter, Mrs. Ralph Wilson, went today to Chester to visit until Tuesday with relatives.

Mrs. Herbert Coleman, who had been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Pier, went Monday evening to Wardsboro to stay a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Axtell and Mrs. Emory Axtell of Rawsonville are visiting in the home of Mrs. Mary Eddy of Maple street.

Mrs. L. M. Wright and nephew, Irwin Bryant, left Sunday to visit in Fitchburg and Leominster, Mass., until after Memorial day.

J. J. Clune, who is employed in a furniture and undertaking store in Northampton, is staying with his family over the holidays.

Miss Marion Clemons, stenographer in R. C. Bacon's office, went Saturday to her home in Amsterdam, N. Y., to remain over Memorial day.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell of Chicopee, Mass., were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mitchell, returning to Chicopee, Sunday.

Mrs. Tennie Coleman and three children of Rawsonville went Saturday to Bellows Falls to visit, after spending a few days here with relatives.

Evan Goodale of Boston and Miss Ethel Goodale of Springfield, Mass., visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Goodale over Memorial day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Vanderveer returned Friday from a week's automobile trip to New York, returning by the way of the Berkshires.

Laurence Sherman of Dartmouth college came Friday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Sherman, at the Brooks House several days.

Fred Plympton, who is with the Vermont Marble Co., of Proctor, came Saturday to visit his father, A. E. Plympton, over Memorial day.

Mrs. A. F. Schwenk returned Saturday from Montpelier where she was a guest of Mrs. Hugh Phillips and attended the musical festival while there.

BRATTLEBORO PERSONAL.

L. F. Clark is confined to his home on Pine street by illness.

Miss Ida Butterfield spent the weekend at her home in Chester.

Frederick Sargent spent Memorial day with friends in Boston.

Miss Marion Sherman spent the holiday at her home in Williamsville.

Mrs. Jennie M. White is visiting relatives in Shelburne Falls, Mass.

Carroll A. Wood went to Lake Sunapee yesterday on a two-days' business trip.

Mrs. G. C. Gould was in Springfield, Mass., Saturday returning Sunday by automobile.

Miss Nellie and Miss Pauline Fenn spent the holiday at their home in Westminster.

Mrs. William Rogers of Canal street went to Hartford, Conn., to spend the holiday with relatives.

Harry Hodgkins of St. Johnsbury, salesman for E. Crosby & Co., was in town yesterday at the head office.

Patrick Maguire has gone to Hinsdale, N. H., to do some masonry work. He expects to be away several weeks.

Harold Cook of Worcester, Mass., visited the first of the week in town with his mother, Mrs. J. A. Hoadley.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Houghton of Greenfield have visited in town this week with his mother, Mrs. C. F. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bond of Linden street have returned from Waltham, Mass., where they spent Memorial day.

Miss Jennie Skipper returned from Warren, Mass., Wednesday, after spending the weekend at her home there.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Lavelle spent Memorial day in Springfield, Mass., in the home of their daughter, Mrs. William Plimpton.

Miss Lucille Howe, clerk in Houghton & Simonds's store, is at her home on Brook street on account of trouble with her eyes.

Miss McGrandel, district nurse, left yesterday for Montreal, where she will spend a month's vacation in the Laurentian mountains.

Miss Mae Johnson, after visiting in town with her cousin, Miss Margaret McGinn, has returned to her home in McGinn Locks, Conn.

Miss Laura Spaulding of the Holstein-Friesian office went Saturday afternoon to her home in Wilmington to visit until Wednesday.

Mrs. I. M. Hollister Tolle of Bridgeport, Conn., is visiting in town with her sisters, Mrs. A. W. Rockwell and Mrs. J. Milton Perkins.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lockwood went by automobile Saturday to Montpelier to visit Mrs. Lockwood's brother. They returned Tuesday evening.

Mrs. J. B. Canfield, who had been a guest a few days of Miss Margaret Moran, returned to her home in New York city Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Edridge Canfield and three children of Albany, N. Y., came Wednesday and are guests of her aunt, Miss Cora E. M. Hatcher, of Cedar street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dudley of Boston and Mrs. E. C. Hamilton of Bennington have been guests this week of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Hopkinson.

John R. Ryder and Dr. A. L. Pettie started Tuesday on an automobile camping trip through northern Vermont and New Hampshire and western Maine.

Guy Johnson, who is employed by the Fisk Rubber Co., in Springfield, Mass., has returned to that city, after visiting at his home in town over Memorial day.

Mrs. J. Warren Miller accompanied Mr. Miller to their home in Springfield (Vt.) Tuesday. Mrs. Miller spent a week in town with her mother, Mrs. O. H. Stiekney.

J. L. Meloon, former president of the Twin State Gas & Electric Co., and now prominent as an official in the Central New Hampshire Power Co., is in town on business.

Judge P. L. Fish, who delivered one of the addresses at the Memorial day exercises at Newfane, returned to his home in Vergennes yesterday. He will reside at the Bennington county court in Manchester next week.

Miss Elizabeth Hildreth went Wednesday to Auburndale, Mass., to attend commencement at Lasell seminary. Miss Hildreth will go from there to Hopkinsville, Ky., where she will be a guest of Miss Amelia Franko.

Mrs. C. C. Fitts and son, Osmer, returned last night from New York, where Mrs. Fitts attended the biennial session of the Federation of Woman's clubs. Miss Mary Fitts returned from New York Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Lisle M. Carpenter went Monday to attend the exercises Memorial day. Mr. Carpenter is visiting there a few days and Mrs. Carpenter has gone to Manchester to visit her uncle, William Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Whitney of Fitchburg, Mass., who visited in town with his father, Julius Whitney, have returned to their home. Mr. and Mrs. Whitney came to be present on his father's 80th birthday anniversary Sunday.

Mrs. Abbie D. Harris has moved from the Proctor house on High street to the house owned by John Lindsey on Brook street. Arthur Knight and family have moved from the down-stairs apartment in the Proctor house to the one vacated by Mrs. Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Mather, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dewey and daughter and Miss Florence Mather of Springfield, Mass., Mrs. A. M. Kason of Keene, and Mrs. Emma Pierce of Middleport, N. Y., took dinner Memorial day with Miss Susan Houghton of Canal street.

BRATTLEBORO PERSONAL.

Fred Harris has returned from a business trip of several days to Somerset and Hanover.

Mrs. Robert Sargent and Mrs. A. H. Bigelow of Grafton, Mass., are registered at the Brooks House.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark of Bridgeport, Conn., spent the week-end at their summer home at Spofford lake.

Mrs. George E. Sherman and daughter, Miss Kathryn, have returned from a few days' trip to Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Freyenhagen and son, Clinton, spent Tuesday in Williamsville with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Rohde were in Bellows Falls Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Rohde's aunt.

Miss Mary Manning of Springfield, Mass., formerly a resident of Brattleboro, was a visitor in town Tuesday.

Charles DeForest, who had been at John Vivier's since March, returned to his home in Springfield, Mass., Saturday.

Miss Lammie Langworthy returned Wednesday from Hinsdale, where she visited over the holiday with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Willard Cobb and two children of Boston are visiting in town with her mother, Mrs. T. Frank Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hackley of South Deerfield, Mass., were guests over Memorial day of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Reed.

Miss Ruth Weatherhead of Springfield, Mass., was at her home of her parents in West Brattleboro over Memorial day.

Harry A. Bingham of New York visited several days in town at his home of High Lawn road, returning to New York Tuesday night.

Miss Helena Ratte, and Miss Katharine Brosnahan returned Tuesday from Northampton, where they had been several days.

Miss Katherine Dunlevy of Montpelier and James Dunlevy of Portland, Me., were holiday visitors at their home on Harris place. Miss Dunlevy will remain over Sunday.

Ernest Reed and family of New York are visiting in Vernon with his mother, Mrs. M. I. Reed, and here with his sister, Mrs. L. S. Edwards.

Herman Brooks has finished work as bookkeeper at the W. F. Richardson meat market and has taken a position in the Holstein-Friesian office.

Rev. Roy M. Houghton of New Haven, Conn., formerly pastor of the Central Congregational church, was a guest at Lindenhurst this week.

Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Stoddard of Springfield, Mass., came Saturday by automobile to spend the week-end at their cottage at Spofford lake.

Miss Evelyn Dunham went yesterday to Ashburdale, Mass., to attend the commencement exercises at Lasell seminary. She will be away a week.

Miss Lucretia Hubbard, who has been visiting a week in town with her sister, Miss Gertrude R. Hubbard, returned Saturday to her home in Chester.

Mrs. Lena Chapman returned Monday to the home of Charles R. Dunklee after a stay of two weeks in Bellows Falls caring for Mrs. Leslie Bennett.

Frank Horton, who had spent the winter in Lunenburg, Mass., with his daughter, Mrs. Lula Horton Francis, has returned to his home in Crosby block.

Ferris R. Vaughan went Tuesday to Tyngboro, Mass., called there by the death of his father, Henry E. Vaughan. The funeral was held yesterday in Woodstock.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Vivier of the Pettee Inn, Newton Upper Falls, Mass., are spending a vacation of two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Vivier.

Mrs. C. H. Hubbard and son, Edward, returned Saturday to Boston where they will make their home. Mr. Hubbard has been employed there several months.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Don Miller and Mrs. Pauline Ward left Tuesday morning by automobile for South Framingham, Mass., returning yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke C. Fitts and sons, Robert, Stanley and Osmer, went Saturday to Holyoke, Mass., to attend the wedding that evening of Clifford Lyon, son of Rev. John Lyon.

John Bessett and Miss Rose Judge of Springfield, Mass., were guests Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. William Donoghue, making the trip by automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Horton and Miss Bernice Green of New York visited in town Tuesday with his sister, Miss Minnie Horton on their way to New York from Putney where they had visited.

Miss Ethel Millington, stenographer in the office of H. G. & F. E. Barber, went to her home in Wilmington Saturday to attend this evening the annual meeting of the alumni of the Wilmington high school.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Schwenk and daughters spent the day Tuesday in Westminster. Mrs. Schwenk and family of Fairhaven, Mass., who had been visiting there with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Goodhue, returned with them.

Miss Elizabeth Smart, who had been a guest in the home of her aunt, Mrs. C. E. Grafham, returned to her home in Merrimac, Mass., Friday. She was accompanied as far as Greenfield by Mrs. Grafham and daughters who made the trip by automobile.

Miss Florence Hemenway-Wells went Sunday afternoon to Springfield, Mass., to attend a meeting of the Congregational Church Assistants of New England, which was held on Mount Tom. Twenty assistants from the six New England states were present. Miss Wells being the only one from Vermont.

Dr. H. C. Herring, general secretary of the national council of Congregational churches, gave a very helpful address. The New England branch of the National League of Congregational Church Assistants was organized. Miss Wells returned home Monday night. She went Wednesday to North Troy to attend a missionary institute yesterday, conducted by officers of the Vermont Branch and of the Woman's Home Missionary union of Orleans county.

WEST BRATTLEBORO.

Injured While Serenading.

Mrs. Ira Mather was injured Wednesday evening while she and several young women were helping to serenade Mr. and Mrs. George Kingsley, who were married Saturday in Wilmington. Mrs. Mather went with several others to the store belonging to L. A. Smith and as they went to enter hurriedly Mrs. Mather, not knowing that the door was glass put her right hand through it, severing an artery. A physician was called. Mrs. Mather is confined to the house and a trained nurse is caring for her.

The Junior Auxiliary will meet with Mrs. O. G. Covey Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Mr. Joseph Dunlevy is spending a few days in the home of Mrs. Sarah Dunlevy of Harris place.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Perry of Deerfield, Mass., are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Perry.

Rev. and Mrs. James Clark and two daughters of Bennington are visiting his sister, Miss Susie Clark.

Charles Pettie of Dorchester, Mass., who visited over the week-end at A. F. Hill's, has returned home.

Several of the young people from here went to Forest Lake Tuesday evening to attend the dance.

Miss Ruth Weatherhead, who visited her parents here over the holiday, has returned to Springfield, Mass.

Miss Kate Wheeler returned Wednesday night from a week's visit with her brother in West Brattleboro over Memorial day.

The regular meeting of the Western Engine company will be held in Engine hall Tuesday evening, June 6.

David T. Perry has bought a Ford touring car through the Manley Brothers agency, to use in his business.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Wilder and son, Richard, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson, in Dummerston.

Arthur Lynde of Boston came by automobile and visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frances Lynde, over the holiday.

Mrs. H. E. Johnson of Williamsville and sister, Mrs. Ada Pierce of Townsend spent Memorial day with Mrs. Parle Covey.

Prof. and Mrs. L. B. Paton of Hartford, Conn., arrived last night and will spend several days at their summer home on Ames hill.

Miss Helen Barnard returned Wednesday from Pinehurst, where she had spent the winter. She is at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. H. Davenport.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith and son, Donald, of Bennington, who came Saturday to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hawkins, returned to their home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Stromberg of New York, who are registered at the Brooks House a few days, spent yesterday at their summer home on Ames hill preparatory to opening it for the summer.

Baptist church, West Brattleboro, Rev. I. M. Compton, pastor. Morning worship at 10:30 with sermon by the pastor. Text, Phil. 2: 4. Sunday school at noon. Evening worship at 7. Mid-week prayer meeting on Wednesday evening 7:30.

The Missionary circle of the Baptist church met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Jennie M. Cheney. Miss Ada Brigham of Bennington, missionary secretary of the Woman's society of Vermont and district secretary of New England, gave an interesting talk on her work. Refreshments were served.

The last missionary meeting of the Woman's Association of the Congregational church of West Brattleboro will be held with Mrs. H. F. Weatherhead Thursday, June 8, at 3 o'clock. Reports of the annual meeting of the Home Missionary Union will be given by the delegates. Mrs. Weatherhead and Mrs. Taylor. A picnic supper will be served and each woman is asked to carry something for the table.

George Enosh Ware of Brookline and Mrs. Mabel Hanson of Lowell, Mass., were married yesterday at 1:30 o'clock by Rev. I. M. Compton, pastor of the Baptist church. They were unattended. A single ring service was used. The bride wore a gown of lavender crepe de chene over white lace and carried bride roses. They will make their home in Brookline, where Mr. Ware is engaged in the farming business.

BRATTLEBORO PERSONAL.

Mrs. J. Kearney and son have gone to Barre to visit her parents.

Miss Charlene Bemis went to Springfield, Mass., Saturday to stay until Monday