TIME TO BUY CATTLE.

Commissioner Andrew J. Felker of the New Hampshire department of agriculture is making an effort to interest the farmers of that state in buying young livestock. He believes that the heavy hay crop of the present season makes this a peculiarly good time to enter the cattle raising business, and suggests that the farmers club together and send men into the cattle countries outside of New England for the purchase of stock for distribution among New Hampshire farms. His advice is equally applicable to Vermont, which has just as good a hay crop as her sister state and whose farms are just as well adapted to cattle raising.

"Under present conditions," says Commissioner Felker, "why do not the farmers in a community cooperate and send one of their number who is recognized as a good cattle buyer, into a section where good cattle are raised in large numbers and purchase a sufficient number to meet their needs."
"A good opportunity is open here for a party to go into the market and buy a few carloads of healthy young stock and ship it in, selling it at public auction. Dealers in horses are doing this continually. Why not with cattle and sheep? A plan of this kind worked out and put into effect would solve a very serious problem that the farmers will be obliged to solve the coming winter. There can be no need on the part of the farmer fearing that the price of cattle will drop, either of the beef or dairy breeds, for it is a recognized fact that not only this country but the world is suffering from a shortage of cattle.

"In European countries there are too many consuming meat, and too few producing it. From these war stricken countries a heavy demand for foreign cattle will continue for years to come, while in our own country every housekeeper is familiar with the prices charged for meat and milk."
"Our people are recognizing as never before, the value of milk and cream as compared with the value of meat, and the demand for it, even with the increasing prices, is growing. This is creating a big demand for good dairy cows, and the farmers can make no mistake if they stock up with young, healthy, well bred heifers to meet the constantly increasing demand for good cows.

"My advice to the farmers is to keep from the butcher's block every good, well-bred calf he can raise, even if the price for veals are tempting him as never before."

S. T. O'NEILL, Adm'r.
The Hon. J. B. ...
District of ...
To all persons interested in the estate of A. P. Belden, late of ...
Whereas, said court has assigned the 24th day of August, 1916, next, for examination and hearing of the account of Administration of the estate of said deceased, and for a decree of the residue of the same, and ordered that notice of the same be given to all persons interested in said estate, by publishing this notice in some newspaper published in this state, for one week, to-wit: August 11, 1916, to August 18, 1916, and that therefore, you are hereby notified to appear at said probate court in Brattleboro in said district, on the 24th day of August, 1916, at 10 o'clock a. m., and then and there to contest the account of Administration of the estate of said deceased, or to file a petition to set aside and annul said decree, or to file a petition and answer in said probate court, and to show cause why said decree should not be affirmed, under my hand, this 11th day of August, 1916.

2 Good Reasons

Why I Sell Ginseng Plant (at Whole) First—do not need large tract of land, and can be raised in any soil, labor and rich the harvest, and the enough to take money with you.
Second—The building lots are to be sold to carry out settling estate and other business. If you see a chance to close it, you will want to buy it.
Good roots of different ages, and seed stratified and fresh, will be sold at cash at a price that will dispose of all in a short time. Here is a rare opportunity to start in this great old world makers, as the writer has been in the business for one-third of his life, and for many more.

TO VISIT FARMS ON FIELD DAY.

Trip of Inspection Planned for Next Tuesday by County Agricultural Association and Grange.
Next Tuesday the Vermont State Grange and the Windham County Agricultural association will co-operate and hold a basket picnic and field day on the Valley fair grounds. For several seasons a meeting has been held at Barber park, but this year the Grange decided to hold it in the other end of the county and invited the county farmers' association to co-operate in arranging and carrying out the program. The Valley fair grounds are well adapted for such a meeting. The place grove makes an excellent place for the basket picnic and for the speaking, if the day is hot. If the weather should prove rainy, the grandstand may be used. For those who are interested in alfalfa, the demonstration plot is near, and during the afternoon, except when the speaking is going on, there will be someone in attendance.
At 10 a. m., those who are interested in sports will meet at the fair grounds and take up such sports as the committee may have arranged. At the same time those who wish to visit some of the nearby farms will meet at the town hall and the party will go to W. S.
Pratt's to inspect his stock and crops.
The trip from here will take in the alfalfa plot at the Memorial hospital, the soy bean plot at E. F. Evans's Guilford, the alfalfa field at L. H. Richardson's, and the alfalfa demonstration plot on the Valley fair grounds. Transportation will be furnished if those wishing to make the trip will notify Mr. Sweeten.
At noon, the basket picnic and social hour will take place in the pine grove on the fair grounds. This will be a good time to meet friends from other parts of the county and it is hoped that everyone will make a special effort to shake hands with all old acquaintances and meet some new ones. Lecture will be for sale by Protective Grange.
The program of the afternoon will consist of addresses by W. N. Cady, master of the Vermont State Grange, Thomas Bradley, director of the Vermont Extension service, and John A.
McSparrow, master of the Pennsylvania State Grange. The first two speakers are well known and the third is a new speaker with an excellent reputation.
Everyone is invited to attend this meeting, whether they are members of the two associations or not, and it is believed that you will find the program well worth while.

STRONG BALL TEAM TUESDAY.

Hal March Arranges for Game at Island Park to Test Sentiment as to Regular Games Tuesdays.
Hal March has arranged a real ball game for Tuesday afternoon at Island Park to determine whether there is enough interest in Brattleboro this summer in baseball to make the venture one that can be repeated Tuesday afternoons when the retail business places of the town are closed.
He has secured for next Tuesday afternoon a team of men who are playing every Saturday in the fast Springfield city league. A heavy guarantee is required to have the team come, but he has decided to make the venture, and if expenses are cleared other games with strong teams will follow. The visiting team will be opposed by the strongest aggregation of local talent that can be brought together, and it looks as if the two lineups given here might make an interesting battle.
The Springfield lineup will be as follows: Johnson, the former Massachusetts "Aggie" twirler, who has a no-run-no-hit game to his credit, pitcher; "Bill" Fountain, former captain of the Springfield V. M. C. A. college nine, catcher; "Billy" Sullivan, former Brattleboro first baseman, first base; Swan, Williston academy star, second base; Dwyer, Colgate shortstop, short; Currier, a Springfield boy, third base; Maurice Kennedy, five years with the Eastern league teams and once a member of the Brattleboro team, left field; Kelly of Notre Dame college, center field; Lee, once with Toronto of the International league, right field.
The local lineup will be as follows:
Thompson or Blake, pitcher; Plumb, catcher; March, first base; Guibeen, second base; Gray, shortstop; Graves, third base; Riley, Thompson or Blake,
and Angier, outfield.

ALLIES PUSHING FORWARD.

Italians Capture Gorizia and Take 20-000 Prisoners — Russians Continue To Gain.
The vigorous offensive of the entente allies on the French, Galician and Italian fronts is still being rewarded with important successes. In Austria the Italians have captured the city of Gorizia, 22 miles northwest of Trieste; in Galizia the Russians in quest of Lon-goberg have further carried out their endeavors toward the capture of Stanislaw from the Austro-Germans, while in France the French and British forces in the Somme region have attacked and won additional points of vantage from the Germans.
The capture of Gorizia by the Italians seemingly is as important a gain by the entente allies as has yet been attained in their present synchronous offensive, the city being the door through which the Italians may now pass in an endeavor to carry out their long-cherished idea of capturing Trieste, Austria's big seaport at the head of the Adriatic.
In the fall of Gorizia, in which Rome says the Austrians were completely routed, the Italians inflicted heavy casualties on its defenders, took over 20,000 prisoners and captured considerable quantities of war requisites.

VALLEY FAIR PREMIUM LIST.

Attractive Booklet Issued Friday—
Racing Purses Aggregate $4,200—Special Attractions.
The premium list for the 31st annual fair of the Valley Fair association of Brattleboro was issued Friday and is an especially attractive booklet. The front cover bears five cuts of handsome horses owned by H. R. C. Watson of Brandon, which were shown here last year, and which, with others from his stable and stables of other well-known breeders, will be exhibited again this year.
A total of $4,200 in purses has been hung up for the nine class and stake races to be contested on the three days of the fair, Sept. 19, 20 and 21. The races and purses for each are as follows:
Tuesday, Sept. 19 — 2:24 pace, 2:19 trot and 2:17 pace, each for a purse of $300.
Wednesday, Sept. 20—2:24 trot and 2:17 trot, each for a purse of $300; 2:20 pace (early closing) for a purse of $1, 000.
Thursday, Sept. 21—2:21 pace, purse $300; 2:20 trot (early closing), purse, $1,000; 2:15 pace, purse $400, 2:15 trot, purse $400.
The entries close at noon, Sept. 19.
The rules of the National Trotting association will govern the races with exceptions that hobbles will be allowed and a horse distancing the field, or any part thereof, will be entitled to only one money.
The vaudeville entertainment will include Russell and Frank in a comedy monkey act and comedy bar act; the Leach Wallin Trio, three beautiful girls who are aerial acrobats and wire contortionists; an act in which two men hold in the air on standards a large cylinder wheel in which a young woman continues to loop the loop; and a balloon ascension and parachute drop each day.

KITTREDGE HASKINS.

In the death of Col. Kittredge Haskins Brattleboro has lost one of her foremost citizens and the state of Vermont one of her most loyal sons. Col. Haskins' life was a well-rounded life, reaching the four score mark, and being active and useful to the end. The record of his activities in public affairs for a period of nearly 60 years is told in another column. He served as a soldier in the Civil war, was a 33d degree Free Mason, had filled nearly all of the highest offices in the gift of that fraternity, and had served as town representative, state senator, speaker of the legislature, United States district attorney and various other empacies, but it was as representative in congress for eight years that he reached his highest and most influential position.
Col. Haskins worthily upheld the traditions and standing of Vermont in the national house of representatives.
He secured a reorganization and standing and had an influence in Washington far beyond that of the ordinary congressman. His work there is his best and most enduring monument, and he will go down in history as one of the really notable men of Vermont.
His life work, aside from his public offices, was in the practice of a lawyer, and here he won a commanding position, and the respect of all with whom he was associated.

Col. Haskins' interests touched varied relations of life. He was one of the most prominent laymen of the

might make an interesting battle.
The Springfield lineup will be as follows: Johnson, the former Massa-
no-run-no-hit game to his credit, pitch-
nine, catcher; "Billy" Sullivan, for-
base; Swan, Williston academy star,
second base; Dwyer, Colgate shortstop,
college, center field; Lee, once with Toronto of the International league, right
field.
The local lineup will be as follows:
Thompson or Blake, pitcher; Plumb,
catcher; March, first base; Guibeen,
second base; Gray, shortstop; Graves,
third base; Riley, Thompson or Blake,
and Angier, outfield.

ALLIES PUSHING FORWARD.

To Gain.
Gorizia, 22 miles northwest of Trieste;
in Galizia the Russians in quest of Lon-
deavors toward the capture of Stanis-
the Germans.
in their present synchronous offensive,
the Italians may now pass in an en-
idea of capturing Trieste, Austria's big
seaport at the head of the Adriatic.
says the Austrians were completely
casualties on its defenders, took over
erable quantities of war requisites.

VALLEY FAIR PREMIUM LIST.

Racing Purses Aggregate $4,200—Special Attractions.
The premium list for the 31st annual
fair of the Valley Fair association of
A total of $4,200 in purses has been
lows:
Tuesday, Sept. 19 — 2:24 pace, 2:19
trot and 2:17 pace, each for a purse of $300.
Wednesday, Sept. 20—2:24 trot and
2:17 trot, each for a purse of $300; 2:20
pace (early closing) for a purse of $1, 000.
Thursday, Sept. 21—2:21 pace, purse
$300; 2:20 trot (early closing), purse, $1,000; 2:15 pace, purse $400, 2:15
trot, purse $400.
The entries close at noon, Sept. 19.
The rules of the National Trotting as-
money.
The vaudeville entertainment will in-
monkey act and comedy bar act; the
ascension and parachute drop each day.

KITTREDGE HASKINS.

kins Brattleboro has lost one of her fore-
kins' life was a well-rounded life,
fairs for a period of nearly 60 years is
told in another column. He served as a
degree Free Mason, had filled nearly
town representative, state senator,
speaker of the legislature, United States
district attorney and various other em-
ential position.
Col. Haskins worthily upheld the
the national house of representatives.
He secured a reorganization and stand-
really notable men of Vermont.
yer, and here he won a commanding po-
he was associated.

TO VISIT FARMS ON FIELD DAY.

sociation and Grange.

STRONG BALL TEAM TUESDAY.

Park to Test Sentiment as to Regular
Games Tuesdays.
Park to determine whether there is
enough interest in Brattleboro this
summer in baseball to make the venture one that can be repeated Tuesday
places of the town are closed.
city league. A heavy guarantee is re-
might make an interesting battle.
The Springfield lineup will be as follows: Johnson, the former Massa-
no-run-no-hit game to his credit, pitch-
nine, catcher; "Billy" Sullivan, for-
base; Swan, Williston academy star,
second base; Dwyer, Colgate shortstop,
with the Eastern league teams and
