

DR. J. D. WELLS' Asthma Remedy

A most effective remedy for the relief of asthma and hay fever. The healing fumes from burning herbs relieves the choking sensation by clearing the air passages and soothing the irritated membranes. In use for more than 40 years. Two sizes—25c and $1.00.

Send for free sample.
If your dealer cannot supply you order direct from Northrop & Lyman Co. Inc., Buffalo, N. Y.

CONCORD

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Richards spent part of last week at Joe's Pond, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taft.

Mrs. F. M. Cobleigh, son Carroll, and daughter, Ariel, were in St. Johnsbury Friday.

Miss Ruth Hastings has returned from Newport, R. I., where she went as accompanist to Miss Madeline Randall.

Mrs. F. E. Hastings and son, Calvin, were in St. Johnsbury the past week guests of Mrs. Hastings sister, Mrs. George Palmer.

Mrs. Ellen C. Hutchinson is visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Chase at East St. Johnsbury.

Fred Raymond, who has been visiting at the home of his brother, Will Raymond, returned Saturday to his home in Athol, Mass.

Mrs. Stephen Streeter and daughter of West Boylston, Mass., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Laundry. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Webb of St. Johnsbury were Sunday guests at the Laundry home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson of St. Johnsbury Center, Mr. and Mrs. Jean Hall, were at Mountain View Cottage the first of the week.

Helen and Edith Bennett returned from a visit to their aunt, Mrs. F. J. Perkins of Bartlett, N. H., Friday and were accompanied by their cousin, Margaret Perkins.

F. A. Brewer was in Island Pond the last of the week on business.

Mr. O. W. Baker has returned from a visit to Potter Place, N. H., Boston and Worcester, Mass., and Providence, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. George Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. Jethro Lillier, enjoyed an automobile trip to Dixville Notch Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Forsaith have returned from a visit to St. Johnsbury.

Miss Jennie Belden is in Boston on business.

D. J. Lunnie returned Saturday from Montpelier where he has been visiting his sister, Miss Philip Howes.

Mrs. W. D. Blodgett spent Saturday in St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. Mary H. Cutting of St. Johnsbury spent the week end with her niece, Mrs. W. A. Bradshaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dodge, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bradshaw and Charles Bradshaw were at Wallace Houghton's in Lyndon, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elezer Boucher were called to Lisbon, N. H., Tuesday by the illness of their niece, Hilda Porter.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Meehan and two children of Lisbon, N. H., Mrs. Porter and two daughters of Lawrence, Mass., were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elezer Boucher and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Meehan.

Clarence Williams is visiting his sister, Mrs. Arthur Warren in Kirby.

David Jock spent Sunday in Littleton, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harthorn spent Sunday in St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor and Miss Mary Ranney are enjoying an auto trip to Exeter, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor and Miss Mary Ranney were in St. Johnsbury Friday to attend the funeral of Mrs. William Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cilley of Lyndon spent Tuesday at C. C. Waller's.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bennett and family of Johnson have returned home after having been guests at the home of Frank Ranney.

Mrs. Elmer Hunter and son, Irving, spent Saturday in Passumpsic.

Miss Mary Ranney will teach in the Moulton school, Kirby.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Walker spent Saturday at St. Johnsbury.

H. B. Morrison is at work at Fairbanks scale factory St. Johnsbury.

W. E. Houston was in Montpelier on business the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Susan Morrison of St. Johnsbury were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morgan the first of the week. Mrs. Warren Temple of St. Johnsbury, Mrs. Nellie Clifford of Long Branch, N. J., Mrs. Herman James and two children of Richford and Ruth of Bellows Falls were also guests at the Morgan home.

Charles Morgan is quite seriously ill.

Mrs. Harry Brown of Hartford, Conn., has been a guest at Chestnut farm.

Arthur Bridges has returned from overseas having given six months service in the Army of Occupation, Germany, and has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Carl Warren, at the Hutchinson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Warren and children and Arthur Bridges spent Sunday at Lake Willoughby.

Mrs. Harry Brown and daughter, Ellen and Miss Edith Hutchinson were in St. Johnsbury Saturday, guests of Mrs. Elmer Chase.

Mrs. Hiram Wood and son, Paul, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Chase, Saturday.

Mrs. Harry Hutchinson of Wilder is visiting in town.

Mrs. Lila Piper of Epping, N. H., is visiting at W. L. Reed's.

Bliss M. Ranney of Rockland, Mass., came Thursday to visit the home of Misses Jennie and Nellie Randall.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Reed entertained at a dinner party Saturday in honor of Mrs. Reed's brother, Nathan Ranney of Rockland, Mass. Those present were Mr. Ranney and Bliss M. Ranney of Rockland, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ranney of Danville, Misses Nellie and Jennie Ranney and Mrs. D. J. Lunnie, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Reed in town.

Rev. Geo. S. Smith and sons, Fred and Marcus Smith, returned from Worcester, Mass., Thursday, where Marcus underwent an operation for adenoids.

There will be an ice cream social at the Universalist church Wednesday from 7 o'clock. The following are the committee in charge, Misses Julia Quimby, Marion Hastings, Alice Reed, Ruth Hastings, Ida Richardson, Helen Bennett, Florence Noyes and Mrs. Harold Lunnie.

Miss Alice Moyses returned to her work in Boston Saturday.

Mrs. Guy C. Howard of Barre was at the home of C. F. Cutting for the week end. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wallace, who have been spending several weeks at the Cutting home, returned to their home in Barre with her.

Haven Blodgett, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Blodgett and two children of Stratford, N. H., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Blodgett, Sunday.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Goodreault, Sr., was the scene of a pleasant family gathering Sunday, where for the first time in fifteen years the eight children met at the home of their parents. Those present were Mrs. Georgiana Dubois and eight children of Barre, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Austin (Amy) and four children of East Haven, Mrs. Arsene Provencal (Dora) and two children of Hartford, Conn., Mrs. Adelard LeClerc (Lillian), five children of St. Johnsbury, Charles D. Goodreault of Westfield, Vt., Miss Dorothy of Hartford, Conn., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goodreault and John of Concord, Mr. Goodreault's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hennot and Fred Hennot of Plainville, P. Q., were also guests. A photographer was present and took family group pictures.

Eleanor Morrison entertained her friends at a birthday party Thursday. Ice cream and wafers were served.

Mrs. Felix McQueen has returned from a visit to her home in Barre and they have commenced house keeping in the Howland house on Back street.

Donald Parker of Littleton, N. H., has been visiting his aunt, Miss Alice E. Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Howard of Conway were in town Friday to attend the birthday party of Mr. Howard's grandmother, Mrs. Helen Stockwell.

Rev. Elbridge Howard of Lowell, Vt., is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Francis Kinnerson.

The home of Mrs. Helen Stockwell was the scene of a pleasant occasion Friday when more than 60 of her friends met to extend to her congratulations she having reached the 86th milestone. An enjoyable program was given consisting of readings by Mrs. F. L. Carpenter, Mrs. Arthur Drown, Merle Drown. A trio "Fondly Dreaming" was sung by Mrs. Elmer Reed, Mrs. Drown, Mrs. Charles Howard, Mrs. William Lindsay read "The Soldier Dead," and Mr. Orange Ladd, a grandson of Mrs. Stockwell, pleased all with "He was there and so was I." Singing was enjoyed by the company with Mrs. Carpenter accompanist. The most interesting feature of the program were the remarks by Rev. Elbridge Howard and Mrs. Lois Parker, who spoke of her work as a missionary in India. The oldest four persons present were Barton Works, who celebrated his 90th birthday, June 10. Mrs. Stockwell, 86, Mrs. Works and Mrs. Parker, each 85. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Birthday cakes given by Mrs. Charles Howard, daughter of Mrs. Stockwell, Mrs. Works and Mrs. Drown. Mrs. Stockwell was the recipient of many gifts including flowers, confectionary, besides letters and post cards from absent friends. Among those present from out of town were Mrs. Fannie D. Cutting of Concord, N. H., Mrs. Mary H. Cutting of St. Johnsbury, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Ladd and sons of Waterford, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Ladd, Mrs. Hattie Weeks of St. Johnsbury, Mrs. William Edmundstone and son, William, Jr. of Hyde Park, Mass.

Mason Howard of St. Johnsbury was in town Sunday.

BARNET

Mrs. A. L. Bandy and children attended the annual reunion at the Joe's Brook school house Thursday, and report an enjoyable program and social time.

George Nelson was down from East Barnet to attend church Sunday morning. Mrs. Nelson is considerably improved in health.

Mrs. Fred Potts and two children of Holyoke, Mass., who have been at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sheeh Moore's, while visiting in this section motored to Lisbon Sunday afternoon. They left here Tuesday to visit at Plymouth, N. H.

Ed. Emery and auto party of Littleton, N. H., were at Austin Carter's Sunday.

Ira Albee and family and Doris Spafford attended the "Eyes of the World" at St. Johnsbury Wednesday evening.

Edith Wallace reports "The Maples" at Littleton, and vicinity an ideal place to spend a vacation and is extending hers another week.

W. S. Brock and wife, Mrs. Lyman Brock and son, Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. F. O. French, have been enjoying a few days at a cottage at Harvey's Pond.

The Ladies' Aid society served a hash supper at Schoolhouse Hall Tuesday night, followed by a social and entertainment of local talent at town hall.

Bert Kimball and family and their guests, his brother and son of Lowell, Mass., took a trip to the White Mountains one of the smoky days in the middle of the week. B. L. Gabley, wife and party went the same day. They could see no distance in any direction.

After a vacation spent at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hazelton, Miss Ellen Hazelton has returned to her position in the West Memorial hospital, Springfield, Mass.

Margaret Morgan of Boltonville has been visiting relatives here.

Miss Johnson has gone to Lower Cabot to visit Mrs. John Stevens after a short vacation here at Mrs. Ellen Smith's.

Maud and Lena Douglas are visiting relatives at Cambridge, Hardwick and Fairfield.

E. B. Chase spent the holiday, the 10th, at his home in Lyndon and at Lyndonville.

Rev. and Mrs. Gregg are entertaining Mrs. Gregg's father and sister from Manchester, N. H.

George Giffin and family, Don C. Stiles of St. Johnsbury, and Dr. Ned Stiles and family of Providence, R. I., were automobile callers here a week ago.

Mrs. H. C. Holbrook and son, Leon, have been visiting at Morrisville and sections near by.

Doris Spafford left for her position at Washington, D. C., on the night train Wednesday after a vacation here and at Orleans. She sailed from Boston to Norfolk, Va., to spend a few days before going on to Washington.

Ensign Armstrong and wife of Chicago have been making a short visit at the homes of their aunts, Mrs. Horace Gillilan and Mrs. Carlos Gillilan. Mrs. Armstrong was formerly Candace Garvin of Danville.

Marion Hilliard has gone to West Burke to live near her sister, Mrs. Elmer Burrington.

A small granddaughter of Concord has been at Carlos Gillilan's and Dorothy Baker of Woodville at the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Gillilan's.

The steamer Ticonderoga of the Champlain Transportation company with about 300 excursionists from New York and Vermont on board, went aground about 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon at Point Au Fer near the northern end of Isle La Motte. The passengers were taken off in the ship's lifeboats when it was discovered that nine feet of water had leaked into the hold of the boat. The passengers reached the New York shore in safety and were taken to Chazy, N. Y., where a special train took them to Plattsburgh. The Vermont passengers were brought to Burlington on the steamer Vermont.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank the friends, neighbors, Grange members and church members for the beautiful flowers sent, the many kind words of sympathy spoken and the help rendered at the time of our great bereavement. Be assured they were thoroughly appreciated.

Archie L. Massey,
Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Brown,
Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Brighty,
Harley W. Brown,
Gordon M. Brown.

CARD OF THANKS

We, the undersigned, want to express our heartfelt thanks for the kindness shown to us through our trouble and bereavement.

Mr. Elmer Towne,
Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Brunelle,
Mrs. Sadie Martell,
Mrs. George Emery.

CARD OF THANKS

In this way we wish to express our thanks for the sympathy and kindness of our many friends in this greatest sorrow we have ever known.

W. L. Russell,
Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hawley and family,
Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Russell and family.

LUNENBURG

Rev. Mr. Douglas spoke on "Finding God" at the Sunday morning service and Mrs. R. N. Wormwood sang the offertory. In the evening a memorial service was held in the old cemetery at the grave of Rev. John Willard, the first settled pastor in the town, and after decorating the grave the service was continued in the church where Mr. Douglas read a sketch of the life of Parson Willard and also a poem written by his daughter entitled "My Father's Old Meeting House." Hon. F. D. Hale also spoke and Mrs. Ida Bell sang in addition to the usual musical numbers.

The visitors at Camp Winneshewa last week included, Mrs. H. D. Peal, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ladd, Misses Florence Day, Nila and Nettie Olcott and Irving Smith of St. Johnsbury, Frank Kennedy, Montclair, N. J.; Elizabeth Seltzer, Marion, Pa.; Marguerite Fitzpatrick, White Plains, N. Y.; W. H. Brooks, Trenton, N. J.

Miss Claire and Henry Woods and party visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Prue Wood, on Pond Hill on Sunday returning to St. Johnsbury on Monday morning.

Miss Susan Dodge and Mrs. May Wilkie entertained Harry Ziegler of Springfield, Mass., at Camp Brownie on Neal's Lake last week.

Mrs. Hannah Pierce and children of Lancaster were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Pierce on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Little of Lancaster were Sunday guests at Harry Thomas' on Baptist Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Powers entertained on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gray and two children of Groveton, and Mrs. Perry of Colebrook.

Ira Blood was in St. Johnsbury with an auto party last week.

Richard Cooper's mother from Canada is visiting at David Lord's.

E. W. Hastings and family visited relatives in Jefferson on Sunday.

Franklin and Carl Bell and party from South Lunenburg spent the week end at Averill.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Spaulding and Master Preston Spaulding who have been guests at the Spaulding farm and of the F. C. Currier's for a week returned to their home in Concord, N. H., on Monday. The Spaulding's motored to the Wesson farm in Lancaster and to Lyndon to visit Mr. and Mrs. Will Arkley during the Oliver Spaulding's stay.

Mr. and Mrs. James King are entertaining Mrs. Larkin and son, Edward, from Boston.

Harold Phelps is entertaining Herman Davis of Jefferson for a week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Phelps.

Among the visitors from Lunenburg to Lancaster on Saturday were Mrs. Clarence Lewis, Miss Edith Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Alby Parker, Miss Nellie Parker, Miss Persis Parker, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Willson, Miss Dora Willson, Mrs. A. J. Newman, Harland Ball, Alfred Morrow and S. C. Smith, Albert Lewis, Dorsey Pond, Dan Dodge and Lawrence Newman.

On Thursday Mrs. A. J. Newman, county chairman of Essex county, Miss Dora Willson, town chairman and Mrs. Flora Balch, publicity, chairman of the War Savings Campaign are to attend a luncheon at the St. Johnsbury House and a meeting in the parlors following when Mrs. Myra B. Lord of Boston will speak and plans formed for the coming campaign.

The women who have accepted the chairmanship for the towns in Essex county for the War Savings campaign are invited to meet Mrs. D. C. Jones of Waterbury, manager of War Savings work, at the Heights House in Lunenburg, Friday, August 22. Luncheon will be served at noon and the meeting will follow in the hotel parlors. It is hoped that each woman on the committee will make special effort to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Kyle T. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bell and grandson, William, Miss Annie Crawford, Mrs. Flora Balch, George A. Balch and Mr. Fisher spent Sunday at the camps at Neal's Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Carpenter were in Littleton last week to see their son, Will, who is convalescing from an operation for appendicitis in Littleton hospital.

Miss Lillian Holloway who was operated upon for appendicitis at Morrison Hospital, Whitefield, is making a good recovery at last reports.

Mr. Tillotson of Montpelier was in the town last week in the interests of Montpelier Seminary.

Mrs. Annie Phevor of Manchester, N. H., has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Rose Pelotta, at South Lunenburg.

Dr. Wigginton of Whitefield was a professional visitor in the village last week.

The copies of the Acts of the Legislature of 1919 are in the office of the town clerk and will be given to those who call for them.

The Lunenburg Mfg. Co. are finishing off part of their dry shed into a barn, Henry Sibley doing the work. Miss Mary Hicks of Lancaster is employed in the dining room at the Heights House.

The young ladies at Camp Winneshewa are to give the operetta "Princess Chrysanthemum" at the Camp on the afternoon and evening of Friday, August 22, in the out-of-door theatre. All who attended the operetta given last year will be anxious to attend this year and those who were so unfortunate as to be absent last year will not make the same mistake again. Should the weather prove unfavorable the entertainment

It's toasted

LUCKY STRIKE cigarette

It's toasted to increase the good, wholesome flavor of the Kentucky Burley tobacco. A regular man's smoke and delicious!

Guaranteed by The American Tobacco Co.

will be postponed to Saturday. The admission will be 25 cents and the proceeds are to be used for the little French orphan which the Camp has adopted. A general invitation is given to all to come and help in a good cause and incidentally have a pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kennedy held a family reunion last week when Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Bernier and twin babies, Edward and Harold of Boston, Miss Ida M. Kennedy of Lancaster, N. H., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Lewis and daughter, Helen, were guests at their home on Pond Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Lennen and child and Mrs. Frances Willey of Berlin were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bell at Bellview and of the J. J. Mallett's at Sunnyside, and Miss Mildred Hancy was also a guest at Sunnyside.

Miss Annette Bell was the guest of friends on an auto and camping trip last week, going to Willoughby and Lake Memphremagog.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Stuart entertained the Ernest Carpenter's of Waterford Thursday. Mrs. Lettie Cole returned home with them, after spending a few days in Waterford and vicinity.

The sale conducted under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society on Friday evening was an unqualified success. The receipts came to nearly $100 and everything saleable was disposed of. The tables for the sale of the various articles were prettily decorated, with ice cream table at the left as the hall was entered, with Mrs. Winnie Kimball, Mrs. Ethel Sibley and Mrs. Stella Ball attending; the apron table with Mrs. Minnie Ball in charge and one where maple sugar cakes were sold by Miss Marjorie Curtis filling one side of the room and the fancy work table with Mrs. Stuart in charge and the Chinese Laundry where Lee Wong (known in private life as Mrs. Olive C. Ball), was kept so busy checking out the laundry parcels that the collars she would have ironed were left undone, filled the other side of the hall. At 8:30 the farce "How the Twins Entertained the New Minister" was given by Miss Ruth Cole and Harold Turner, the twins, Rollo Bell, the young minister, and Mrs. Kyle T. Brown as the mother. A vocal duet by Mrs. S. C. Smith and K. T. Brown, vocal solo by Mr. Brown and piano duet by Mrs. E. C. Jewell and Miss Anna Cole and humorous readings by Mr. Tillotson of Montpelier Seminary made up an entertaining program which the largest audience thoroughly enjoyed. The articles remaining at the close of the evening were auctioned off by K. T. Brown in his best manner. The ladies are to be congratulated on their success.

Mrs. Ella Woods of Littleton was the week-end guest of Mrs. H. F. Warren.

Miss Pearl Canfield, R. N., was the guest of the A. D. Nichols' Saturday.

Rev. G. W. Douglas and family spent part of the week at the Balch camp at Neal's Lake and are now entertaining Mrs. Douglas' mother, Mrs. F. W. Pierce of Fairlee.

Floris Nichols motored from North Woodstock, N. H., on Sunday bringing Madison Nichols, who recently suffered from a shock and is unable to use his right side at all, home to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Nichols. The illness is the result of a blow on the head received while in France and the family have the sympathy of the community.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Temple recently entertained Mr. and Mrs. Chisholm of Salem, Mass., and Eaton Leith and friend of Lancaster.

J. H. Cole is convalescent from the recent accident when the horse fell, striking him on the hip and penetrating to the bone so that four stitches were necessary to close the wound. Dr. Leith was called to attend the case.

On Tuesday, Aug. 19, a picnic will be held in the David Thomas grove by the people of Lunenburg, Fitzdale and East Concord under the auspices of the Sunday School of the three places.

Howard Relief Corps will hold the regular meeting on Tuesday evening, August 19, in G. A. R. hall, and as there is special work for the evening the president urges the members to make effort to attend.

Mrs. Pauline Bennett and John Perry who have been guests of Mrs. A. J. Newman at the Heights House for two weeks, returned to Boston on Sunday. Mrs. Newman and Miss Maude Bennett accompanied them as far as St. Johnsbury, Ernest Spaulding being the chauffeur.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Stuart, Mrs. Annette Ramsey and James Campbell of St. Johnsbury were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Turner and Harold on Sunday, having a picnic dinner at Harold Turner's farm.

The sale of the Ladies' Aid society was held in the afternoon and evening of Friday, August 15. Aprons and fancy work, a Chinese Laundry, ice cream and cake will be on sale and in the evening a farce, with music and readings before and after is to be given by local talent.

Miss Lillian Switzer of Washington, D. C., is the guest of the J. H. Cole's.

Rev. Alexander J. Cameron and Mrs. Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson of Malden, Mass., are occupying Willow Lodge at Camp Winneshewa.

Word has recently been received that the W. G. Kings are in Quincy, Mass., and Mr. King stood the long trip well. They will remain for an indefinite period as Mrs. King's sister is seriously ill.

Miss Pearl Canfield, who has just returned from her work as Red Cross nurse in France, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bell at South Lunenburg and called on other friends last week who were overjoyed to see her again. Miss Canfield also served in Serbia for six months at the beginning of the war, returning home after an attack of typhus fever.

Misses Effie and Emma Cole returned home for a short visit with their father, E. P. Cole, and sisters, and later Miss Effie goes to training school for teachers and Miss Emma for her second year at Montpelier Seminary.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nichols with their children, Wayland, Margaret and Carolyn, of Newfane are guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hill and other friends who are glad to welcome them.

VERMONT NEWS

Announcement has been made that Henry Conlin, clerk of the United States court for the district of Vermont, will move his office from Rutland, where it has been for the past 12 years, to an office on the second floor of the new federal building in Burlington.

The erection of a monument to the memory of the poet, John G. Saxe, near the old homestead in the town of Highgate is nearing completion. The last Legislature appointed a commission to oversee this work.

Mary Johnson Bee, a middle-aged woman living in Burlington, tried a sensational get-away Tuesday, when the police drew up in front of her house to arrest her for breach of peace. She was evidently expecting them to call, for as soon as they appeared she jumped out of a window at the back of the house and fled through a wood yard, only to be caught after a few minutes' chase.

READ THE CLASSIFIEDS

The Weekly Caledonian

The management takes pleasure in announcing that the services of Arthur F. Stone have been secured to edit the Weekly Caledonian and that it will be the aim of those interested in this paper to make it the most readable and valuable paper in Caledonia county. Mr. Stone needs no introduction to the many readers of the Caledonian who recall that for over 40 years the Weekly Caledonian was in the Stone family and under their management was one of the most influential papers in the state.

The Weekly Caledonian at the present price of 1.00 per year is the cheapest and best newspaper in this section and you cannot keep house without it. If you want a complete weekly paper to send to relatives and friends you will find the Weekly Caledonian the best paper of its kind in the field.

Watch it grow.