Faithful Horse Killed
In His 33d Year
 "Dolly," the black mare that was so long driven by the late Charles H. Thayer when he was superintendent of the St. Johnsbury Aqueduct Company, was killed last week as her old age rendered this necessary. The horse was 33 years old and when she was three years old Mr. Thayer drove her from Derby Line to St. Johnsbury, a distance of 52 miles from sunrise to sunset. A remarkable feature of "Dolly's" career was that she stood for 30 years in the same barn. This is a record in itself that can hardly be duplicated in the state.

Concord Plant to Move to St. Johnsbury
 The Moose River Granite Co. of Concord will move its plant to St. Johnsbury on July 1st. W. J. Olliver, the head of the concern was in St. Johnsbury Friday and completed arrangements for bringing the plant here. He has bought the shed connected with the O. V. Hooker plant and will start with four men. He expects to soon have a full gang of 16 men at work on the monumental work the company has to complete. The company has been located in Concord for five years. Difficulty in getting and keeping help and better freight facilities were given by Mr. Olliver for moving the plant to St. Johnsbury.

LYNDONVILLE
 Miss Elizabeth Hills and Mrs. G. M. Campbell are in Boston, attending the meeting of the Red Cross being held there. Mrs. H. Dutton is in the library during Miss Hills' absence.
 James Fryer was in Montpelier Friday, where he attended a meeting of the Shrimers.
 The ladies of the Methodist church held a salad supper in their vestry Friday afternoon, which drew a good crowd. They served a variety of adults and scalloped dishes, cakes, pies, etc., to the satisfaction of all.
 The semi-annual auction of the Book Club was held Friday evening, with Mrs. W. S. Jeffers, and the books read by the members during the last six months were sold at auction, with good success, and at good prices.
 The new books, which had been received, covered, labeled and prepared for circulation, were distributed at this time, and the list of titles includes some very interesting ones.
 There was a good attendance Friday at the meeting of the Universalist Ladies' Aid society, held with Mrs. L. S. Howe. A short business session was held first, at which various matters of interest were discussed, bills voted on, etc. It was decided to entertain the annual meeting of the Northern Vermont and Province of Quebec Association of Universalist churches, which is to hold its annual meeting the last of June, probably the 28th. Other plans were made in regard to the summer's work. It was then announced that the next meeting of the society would be held in two weeks, with Mrs. Helen Johnson, to sew. After the business session, the ladies were reminded of the need of a social hour, especially in honor of one of the oldest and best-loved members, Mrs. L. S. Howe, whose birthday it was, and who had received numerous cards, flowers, and other gifts in honor of the day. The ladies of the society presented her with a five-dollar gold piece, and with a host of good wishes and congratulations. Mrs. Howe was very much pleased by the tokens of the esteem in which she is held. All remained to enjoy a social hour, and a delicious supper, with chicken patties, salad, hot rolls, coffee, and a variety of nice cakes. A beautiful birthday cake, made by Mrs. George Whipple, bore the initials, S. M. H. 74, in red candles on white frosting, and tasted just as delectable as it looked. At a late hour, all went away, giving their hosts many good wishes, and thanks for a pleasant evening.
 The Barre Times has the following account of the Colvin-Campbell wedding at Montpelier.
 A pretty home wedding took place at 7 o'clock last evening when Miss Helen Ruth Colvin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Colvin of Montpelier, was married by Rev. Charles N. St. John of Bethany church to Raymond E. Campbell of Lyndonville. The ceremony took place before an assembly of relatives of the contracting parties. The home was very tastefully decorated for the event. The bride was attended by Miss Elsie Louise Colvin, her sister. While the best man was Arthur Burns of Lyndonville, a college chum of the groom. Miss Jennie Bartlett, cousin of the bride, played the wedding marches. Following the wedding a reception was given during which light refreshments were served.
 The bride was becomely gowned in white satin with silver lace trimmings and wore a veil set with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses. The bridesmaid wore a lace gown trimmed with yellow ribbons and carried carnations. They left last evening for St. Johnsbury, where they took a private car for New York, which city they will be including in their wedding trip. They will be at home to their friends after August 1. The bride is a graduate of Lyndon Institute, a registered nurse and graduate of Littleton, N. H. hospital, a post-graduate of the Women's Hospital in New York, and was at Heaton hospital for a little while this year. The groom is in business with his father in Lyndonville. He is a graduate of the schools in that town and of Dartmouth college.
 A. H. Walter was taken ill the first of the week and has been in quite a serious condition ever since his throat being paralyzed so that he cannot speak, and can take but little nourishment. His daughter, Charles Norris, from Malden, is with him, coming Tuesday.
 Mrs. Belle Silsby Knight has closed her house on Church street since the death of her mother, and with her daughter Frances returned to her home in Medford Friday. They expect to come back later in the summer.
 Mrs. Henry Dexter and two children, from Lowell, Mass., are here with her father, Hollis Welch, who is very low from a paralytic shock. Mr. Dexter has been with them for a few days this week.
 A daughter was born Thursday of this week to Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bernard, living on the Lyndon road, just below the Broad street crossing.
 Dr. Cleon Colby who has been spending several weeks with his parents here, left Thursday for Newmarket, N. H., where he will stay until June first with his family. He then returns to Boston, where he is taking special treatments for the effects of a battle paralysis. He has gained rapidly in the past few weeks and hopes eventually to be well again.
 The children in the graded school are to give a concert in Music Hall next Wednesday evening, May 26, to illustrate the progress they are making in musical studies. The proceeds go to playground equipment and the department of music.
 As far as we can discover the only dances held in town the next week were Thresher's regular Wednesday evening dance, and Henault's on Saturday. The Cutter Stock Company gave a good, clean line of plays each evening of the week, pleasing good sized audiences each night, and on Friday evening there was a dance after the play.

 Hazel Bowman, who works at Thomas Hazel's, has been called to her home in Burke to care for her mother, who is quite ill.
 The men of the Congregational church enjoyed a fine banquet in their vestry Thursday evening. There was music by the orchestra and speaking after the supper by the Rev. George A. Martin of St. Johnsbury.
 F. D. Smith and wife have returned from Florida, where they have been spending the winter at Ormond.
 The Rev. W. J. MacFarlane has returned from New York, where he has been for about ten days, and will occupy his own pulpit next Sunday.
 Robert Gaskill has bought a house on Orchard Hill, from Scott M. Farquar.
 Archie Donahue was in Burlington the first of the week, and drove home a new truck which he purchased.
 Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Campbell, Jr., of Springfield, Mass., were in town a few days this week, coming from Montpelier, where they went to attend the wedding of Raymond Campbell and Helen Colvin.
 Mrs. Lisle Peck, of St. Paul, Minn., who has been spending the winter in Florida, is making a visit to her brother, James McLean.
 Eli-sha Gilelow and Will S. Jeffers went to Newport Friday to be the guests of their friend, Mr. Root, at a dinner party given to his men friends in honor of his birthday. This is an annual event of great social interest, and on the present occasion it was to celebrate the 81st anniversary of his natal day.
 Mrs. Emily E. Woodward is planning to give up the apartment she is occupying in the house on Church St. which she so recently sold, and will move into the house with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Colby, as soon as necessary arrangements are made.
 Mrs. Guyda Comerford has finished her work in the Edmunds drug store.
 A number of the friends of Miss Phillis LaFrance met at Mrs. Harold Sherer's on South street last Friday and gave the young lady a surprise "shower" in honor of an approaching birthday.
 Catherine Clarke spent the week end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey E. Kelsey, on the Wheelock road.
 The Rev. Rutherford Moore of Randolph is in town for a few days, with his wife and son, who have been spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jay S. Butler. They will all return to Randolph the last of the week.
 Rev. Edward A. Lewis preached his farewell sermon to the parishioners of the Universalist church last Sunday, as an account of the Memorial Day observances, there will be no service in any of the churches next Sunday. He expects to join Mrs. Lewis at Exeter, N. H., very soon, having visited her there last week. The church will probably be supplied during the summer, as no regular pastor has been assigned. During the short time that he was in charge, he has been here, they endeared themselves very much to the people, who found him a most satisfactory preacher and pastor, and much regret that he could not remain with this church.
 Memorial Sunday will be observed in Music Hall by a union service of all the churches, as usual. The sermon is to be by the Rev. H. J. Simpson, those will be music by a male quartet, and it is hoped there will be a good attendance. Monday will be observed as Memorial day, and in the morning the Sons of Veterans and Ladies' Auxiliary have charge of the exercises, which will be carried out in the usual way, the members of the patriotic orders, citizens and school children, with the band, marching from Music Hall to the Center, where the graves will be decorated.
 Monday evening the American Legion has charge of the program for a camp fire, and is planning a most attractive program. Among other interesting things will be music by the institute orchestra, speaking by the Rev. W. J. MacFarlane, and other good things.
 Excavations are being made in Church street, next to the Edmunds block, for the installing of the new public scales, which the village trustees are just putting in. Oil has been ordered for the streets, but it may not be possible to procure it this year.
 Mrs. Lillian Chase and daughter, Ethelind left here for Boston Saturday, and started from there Sunday night for Los Angeles, Cal., where they plan to make their future home. They were accompanied by Miss Catherine Emery, who will probably remain for the coming year.
 Two food sales Saturday entered to the hungry people, one in the Episcopal Parish House, and one by the Pythian Sisters in the Grand Army Hall. In both cases there was not food enough to half supply the demand, for of good cooking there is never a surplus.
 There is a dance in Music Hall Thursday evening, when Henault's new five piece orchestra will play for the benefit of the American Legion boys. As with all their entertainments, a good time is assured.
 The children of the graded school are very busy rehearsing for the Memorial concert which they are to give in Music Hall on Wednesday evening, and will also show the progress they have made in their musical studies the past year, under the able teaching they have had.
 Fred Leavitt of Greensboro was in town with his car Sunday, and called on his friends here.
 The ladies of St. Peter's Auxiliary will have a whist party and social in the parish house Tuesday evening, to which their friends are cordially invited.
 Mrs. Lewis Huber and son, Robert, have come to join their husband, and father, the Rev. Mr. Huber, who is the new Episcopal vicar. They are spending a few days at Charles E. Willoughby's, while some work is being done at the rectory, but expect to go to housekeeping in a day or two.
 Mrs. Catherine Bowker, who has been caring for her aunt, Mrs. F. W.

Silsby, during her last illness, has returned to her home in Lunenburg for the present.
 Cards have been received announcing the marriage of James Wilson Bayton, of Georgetown, Conn., a former instructor in the Agricultural School, and Miss Marjorie Breckenridge, of Brooklyn, New York.

NEARLY KILLED BY INDIGESTION
 Restored To Vigorous Health By "FRUIT LIVER"
 CHAS. F. HARGRELL
 South Royalton, Vermont
 "About three years ago I began suffering with indigestion. Food was in my stomach, causing me to feel that I had terrible heart burn, and pains in my chest and arms. My heart became enlarged. I had loss of breath, the action of my kidneys was irregular, the acetotic scanty and scalding.
 I was knocked out, and could do nothing, when I read about 'Fruit Liver' and sent for a box. I used a few and thought, 'well they will do me all the other remedies have tried' but to my surprise a gladness, I had not experienced. I continued the use of 'Fruit Liver' (or Fruit Liver Tablets) with the result that a dozen boxes made me feel like a different person."
 CHAS. F. HARGRELL
 50c a box, 3 for $1.50, 6 for $3.00. At dealers or from FRUIT LIVER LIMITED, GARDENBURG, N. Y.
