

VESTA

STORAGE BATTERY

"Costs less per Month of Service"

VITALITY

The four patented improvements in VESTA Batteries give astonishing vitality.

No other battery has one of these vital features.

Backed by real service, VESTA Batteries last longer and give complete satisfaction.

INDESTRUCTIBLE ISOLATORS LOCK PLATES APART

The Wright Garage

20% more light from Hygrade C Lamps

The Peck Co.

BARNET

A number of people here attended the service at West Barnet church Sunday morning, this was the first of the re-dedicating exercises of the week in honor of the extensive repairs and improvements recently made on the church.

Mrs. R. H. Hazleton and daughter, Ellen, are in Boston for a few days.

Roscoe Potts and wife of New York city were in town Friday on their way to Thurber's Hotel in Danville where they are to join their mother, Mrs. Alonzo Potts, and brother, Joseph Potts. Mr. and Mrs. Potts made the trip from New York in their car.

Mrs. Anna Sargent of Littleton, N. H., is visiting at her sister's, Mrs. Ada Whitney's.

Rev. Paul Moody and Mrs. Moody of New York were recent callers at the home of W. S. Brock.

The Barnet Church Ladies' Aid will give a social at their vestry Friday evening, July 16.

Mrs. Ellen Bishop of St. Johnsbury is visiting at Dr. R. H. Hazleton's.

Noel McDowell and wife are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McDowell.

Dr. and Mrs. Baker spent Sunday at L. E. Gillilan's.

Mrs. Kate Kinney is at her home here.

Miss Olive Metcalf, who is working in St. Johnsbury, was home over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira J. Albee were in Woodsville and Bradford Saturday.

Edith Wallace was a recent visitor in St. Johnsbury.

Mr. Fred Quimby made a short trip to Groveton, N. H., early in the week.

Barnet raised $20 for the Tuberculosis Prevention.

Mr. and Mrs. James McGill of St. Johnsbury were visitors at Dr. R. H. Hazleton's Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stanley of St. Johnsbury were recent visitors at W. S. Brock's.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira J. Albee and daughter, Marjorie and friend, Miss Drown, spent Monday at Lake Morey.

Laurel Dow is visiting friend at Middletown Springs, Vt.

Mrs. Charles Duncan of McInnes is with her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Phelps. Mrs. Phelps is making slow town, has been visiting old friends here for a few days past.

Mrs. Amory D. Scaver is spending a few weeks this summer with her parents in Boston.

Harry Silsby and family, Bert Rice and family, and Miss Alice Campbell of Springfield, Mass., are camping at Willoughby Lake in the Silsby cottage.

Mrs. Frank Dresser and son, Eugene, from Burlington, have been visiting her mother, Mrs. E. M. Campbell, for a few days.

Miss Edith Lewsey was in St. Johnsbury Saturday and called on Miss Joanna Fay, who is in Bright-hook Hospital.

Crescent Lodge, No. 68, F. and A. M., are having a vacation this summer, and will have no regular meetings through the months of July and August.

Miss May Campbell, who was recently operated on at the Mary Fletcher hospital in Burlington, is recovering very nicely and expects to walk as well as ever in the course of time. She will leave the hospital in about two weeks and stay for a while longer with her cousin, Mrs. Dresser, before her return home.

Miss Martha Stevens is spending a few days this week with cousins in Newport Center.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Vance have returned from their honeymoon trip, and have rooms in the Humphrey house on Park Avenue for the present.

Mrs. Clara (Stern) Zucker, with her son and three daughters from New York City, are staying with her mother, Mrs. S. Stern. The son, Ben Stern, also from New York, is here with them too.

Miss J. S. Schofield has returned from spending some time with her sister, Mrs. R. F. Eaton in West Lebanon, N. H.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. George Shorey were held in the Universalist church Monday afternoon, and attended by many of the friends and neighbors. The Rev. John Kimball, of Glover, a former pastor officiated. The woman's Relief Corps attended in a body, and the funeral offerings were numerous and beautiful. Interment was in the Lyndon cemetery.

Miss Doris Colby has gone to Newmarket, N. H., to visit her sister-in-law, Mrs. Cleon Colby, for a short time.

The Sawyer brothers, who have been living in the Dodge & Watson block, have moved from there, Guy going to Barton, where he has work, and Fred moving into the house on the Lyndon road, just below the cattle yard.

Little Miss Alice Dwinell celebrated her fourth birthday Saturday, a number of her young relatives, and older friends coming to the house to give her a happy afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watson of Utica, N. Y., are with his mother, Mrs. Henry Watson, for a short visit. The three with a sister, Mrs. John Merrill, of Newport, and another sister, Mrs. May Leonard and family, of St. Johnsbury, have been spending a week camping at Joe's Pond.

Mrs. Charles Hoffman goes to St. Johnsbury Friday and Saturday of each week now to assist in the Williamson Sisters' millinery store.

Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Leonard have returned from a month's stay in Boston, where he has been taking special medical studies. During their absence, his father and mother remained in the house, and little Miss Lois Leonard stayed with them.

Mrs. Willis Wilder of Leonia, N. J., came Friday to visit her sister-in-law, Mrs. H. L. Parker. With the Parkers, she motored Sunday to Forest Lake, near Whitefield, N. H., and will spend the week there in the cottage of her brother-in-law, Dr. Richard Wilder.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Whipple leave the last of this week for a visit to Mrs. Whipple's old home in France sailing from New York on the boat, New York.

Charles Stevens and his sister, Miss Martha Stevens, took a motor trip to Burlington the last of the week.

Misses Edith and Edna Lang are in Burlington this week, and will attend the summer school at the University of Vermont.

George A. Burnham of the Agricultural School is in Rutland, where he has charge of the musical department connected with the summer school that is in session in that city.

Mrs. Frank Pearl of Sheffield is in town, and boarding in the men who are working for the Parker and Young Company at the Folsom's Crossing location.

Mrs. W. A. Heath of Winter Haven, Florida, is here for a short time. She has been in Newport with her daughter, Mrs. Rex Thomas, and today goes to Wells River to meet Mr. Heath, who is coming for a visit to old friends here. Their daughter, Miss Jane Terrill, has already returned to her work in Bartow, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Percy Greenslade and daughter were in Canada last week, visiting friends in various towns, and Mr. Greenslade's mother returned home with them for a visit of several weeks.

John Webster has gone to Orleans to visit friends for a time.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of St. Peter's church will meet Wednesday afternoon of this week with Mrs. Daniel Gregory.

Miss Kate Smith, a former resident who has been visiting friends in town for a few weeks, has returned to her home in Boston.

Mrs. Edgar Brown has been on the sick list, and confined to the bed for nearly two weeks. She is now able to be about, but is still very poorly.

The two brothers, John and Charles Willoughby, and their wives, have been spending a few days motoring through different towns in Canada, and visiting places where they had formerly lived.

F. B. Jacques has gone to Providence, R. I., to attend the midsummer meeting of the New England superintendents of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

PEACHAM

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Forrester of California have been in town. Mr. Forrester it will be remembered attended Peacham academy years ago.

The Boston Lyceum School Concert Co. will give an entertainment in Academy Hall, Saturday evening, July 17. This is a ladies' quartet consisting of violin, cello, and piano with readings, etc., and comes very highly recommended from places where they have entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Esley and daughter, Karlene, of West Barnet, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Adams and Shirley Merchant, the Band brothers with friends from Barnet and several parties from St. Johnsbury and Barre were at the Ponds, Sunday.

Maurice Morency has been visiting his mother at Leonia, N. H. His brother, Homer Morency came home with him.

Charlotte and Carolyn Moore have come to their father's, Ed. Moore's at Peacham Center for the summer.

Rev. Isaac Moore gave an interesting talk to the children on Sunday July 11, at the Children's day.

James Allen is working for Chester Somers and William Allen is working for Edwin Harvey.

Mrs. Moses Edmunds of Concord, N. H., is at Fred Taylor's.

Charles Shepard of Spencerville, Me. and Lewis Shepard of Sanford, N. H., visited their uncle, W. S. Sanborn last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Nichel and daughter, Mary Louise, and Mrs. Esmering of Sanford, Florida, are visitors at G. A. Stoddard's. Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Brown and two sons of St. Johnsbury were also visitors there Sunday.

Miss Bernice Blanchard has returned from Wilder bringing her little nephew.

Mr. and Mrs. Hansen of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., are boarding at Mary Bailey's.

Harrison McLaughlin has bought the Methodist parsonage.

Mrs. Dugald Stewart who has been ill for some time passed away Friday. The burial was Sunday afternoon.

Fred Goshalt captured another lake trout at Caspian lake last week weighing ten pounds.

Quite a number attended moving pictures at St. Johnsbury Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson are doing their haying at their farm in St. Johnsbury.

Norman Blair has been quite sick the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Foon of St. Johnsbury were visitors at Albert Peck's and last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Eeden were at Thetford the last of the week. Mrs. Eeden remained for a week.

Mrs. Liddle and two daughters of McInnes visited her father, Mr. Guthrie, at East Peacham recently.

WEST BARNET

Mr. and Mrs. Eben Strobbridge, Mr. and Mrs. John Strobbridge and family, Mr. and Mrs. Linwood McLam and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Norton and Robert Strobbridge motored to Edgar Strobbridge's at East St. Johnsbury Monday to spend the day.

Peter Paris returned to Boston Monday after a visit to his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Blanchard, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Carter and daughter of Tilton, N. H., Albert Carter and housekeeper and Mr. and Mrs. William Hoyt and son of Lowell, Mass., are in town to attend the re-dedication of the church.

George Blain returned to Tilton, N. H., Saturday after a week's vacation here.

Mrs. Carrie Roy is visiting Mrs. Emma Hastie.

Mrs. Lula Watson and daughter of Danville visited at Emma Hastie's Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Steele and daughter of Manchester, N. H., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steele spent the Fourth at Robert Steele's.

Mrs. Margaret Fitzgerald visited at E. S. Manchester's Friday.

Miss Ruby Blain left Tuesday for Auburndale, Mass., for the summer course in music.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Warden, Mrs. A. D. Warden and Mrs. George Blain were in St. Johnsbury Friday.

Mrs. Dudley Fitzgerald was in St. Johnsbury, Thursday.

Harley Bushway has returned to his home here after a visit in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Roy and family of Danville were at George Blain's Wednesday.

Miss Ethel Brown is working for Jennie Judkins.

The opening services of the church began Sunday with communion of this church joined by the Barnet Center church. In the evening a sacred concert was held.

CONCORD

Mrs. Mianda Kinne of Barre is visiting her brother, D. H. Morton for the week.

Visitors in St. Johnsbury Tuesday included Miss Genevieve Sargent, Mrs. Thad Wheaton, Miss Pearl Lane, Mrs. O. W. Baker, Mrs. Edith Brooks.

Mrs. Jennie Barnett has sold her house to Thaddeus Wheaton.

Mrs. Charles May is visiting relatives in New York.

Miss Marion Hastings has gone to St. Johnsbury where she has a position with the Cowles Co.

Haven Blodgett of North Stratford, N. H., and Mrs. Flora Baird of St. Johnsbury were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Jennie Marrett, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 by Rev. N. S. Hill only near relatives of the bride and groom being present. After the ceremony lunch was served by the bride's mother, Mrs. Barnett. Mr. and Mrs. Blodgett will reside at North Stratford.

Mr. and Mrs. K. F. Richards, Miss Grace Hutchins, Edith Bennett and Harry Bennett were in Barre and Williamstown, Thursday.

NORTH DANVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Allen and family, Mrs. Eliza Allen and Miss Stella Allen of St. Johnsbury Center spent the day at Molly's Pond in Cabot, Monday.

Miss Elsie Snelling who has been the guest of Florence Clifford for the past week has returned to her home in Bethel.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Langmaid and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Emmons were in Greensboro Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Wells of St. Johnsbury were the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ranney Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Riva Bunker of Lynn, Mass., are visiting at Frank Lyman's.

Mrs. Christine Towne of Danville visited at Freeman Allen's Wednesday.

Harry Daley of Boston who has been visiting at B. A. Clifford's for the past week returned to his home Saturday.

Mrs. Eliza and Miss Stella Allen of St. Johnsbury Center are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gadagsee spent the fourth in Andover, Mass., with their daughter, Jennie Gadagsee.

Miss Ena Cross is working at Joe's Pond in West Danville.

Miss Edith Clifford visited her aunt, Mrs. C. C. Massey in St. Johnsbury over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Allen and family visited at Mrs. Eliza Allen's in St. Johnsbury Center Sunday.

ST. JOHNSBURY Local News

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Porter of West Burke are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a seven and Mrs. Valmore LeBlanc.

E. C. Smith and W. E. Kendall have gone to Skinner, Me., fishing for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wood and daughter from Springfield, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Irving Tyler and son of Littleton and Mr. and Mrs. Willie Wood and son from Warren, N. H., are spending a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Wood.

Miss Anna Wick from Youngstown, O., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. McCurdy.

Born at the Moore Sanitarium Monday, July 12, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Valmore LeBlanc.

Henry Lanthier of Lowell, Mass., is visiting friends and relatives in town for a few days.

J. D. Partridge of Springfield, Mass., has been visiting his sister, Mrs. George C. Cary. Mr. Partridge, Mrs. Cary and the children have gone to Pemaquid Beach, Me., where they will spend a month at their summer home.

Heath Macdonald of Danville has sold the Ainsworth farm to Byron Brown.

Mrs. George Gagnon has gone to Island Pond for a few days to visit friends.

Miss Madeline Randall went Saturday to Rutland where she will teach dramatic expression and folk dancing at the summer school of teachers.

Miss Ethel Perowne has returned to her government position in Washington after spending three weeks at her St. Johnsbury home.

Bloomfield A. Palmer, and son spent Sunday with Mr. Palmer's parents in Wilder.

Miss Maude H. Sprague gave an afternoon tea Monday in honor of Mrs. Philip H. Stone of Pasadena, Cal. Mrs. Margaret N. Heywood and Miss C. H. Lincoln served in the dining room assisted by Miss Lillian M. Pearl. About 30 ladies were present and a most delightful afternoon was spent.

Albert J. Blake has purchased of B. W. Morrill his shoe store at the corner of Railroad and Portland streets and already taken possession.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Leavitt of Worcester, Mass., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Atwood and cordially greeted by their many friends.

Dr. Fanny T. Carleton has returned from Chicago where she attended the national convention of Osteopaths.

Mrs. B. A. Palmer and daughter, spent Sunday with friends in Morrisville.

Miss Mildred Smith is spending two weeks among her friends in Worcester and Boston.

George Wheeler, Harry Wheeler and Charles Bonnett attended the ball game at Sherbrooke Saturday.

Stanley F. Garfield is spending two weeks at Abenakis Springs, P. Q.

Mr. and Mrs. Omer Duval are leaving tonight for a two weeks' vacation. They will visit Montreal and from there take the boat to Nicolet to visit Mr. Duval's birthplace. From there they go to St. Anne Beaupere. Charles Prevost will assist in the market during Mr. Duval's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Powell of Springfield, Mass., have been visiting his brother, A. E. Powell and his sister, Mrs. J. E. Drown. This was Mr. Powell's first visit to his old home town in 15 years.

Mrs. John Coombs of Sherbrooke, Que., celebrated her 69th birthday at the home of her son, William Coombs, Monday evening. Among those present were John Coombs and family and Archie Campbell and family. Mrs. Coombs received a sum of money as a birthday gift. Refreshments were served and a very delightful evening passed by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lafoe of West Charleston, Mrs. Orrilla Savers of East Concord, Mrs. Gertrude Carpenter and Miss Josephine Carpenter of Lunenburg, A. E. Greenwood of Hartford, Ct., were recent visitors at the home of J. E. Greenwood on Oak St.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Greenwood, who have been ill for the past two weeks with the grip, are better. They are under the care of Dr. Fitch.

Mrs. George Ingraham of Lyndon Center has been visiting Mrs. W. S. Marten a few days.

Miss Mary B. Shorey attended the funeral of her cousin, Mrs. George Shorey, at Lyndonville, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nourse and Mrs. Ida Nourse of Providence, are visiting Mrs. Charles Bennett.

A large number of friends entered the home of Bernice Matthews to celebrate her 19th birthday Saturday evening. Cake and coffee were served.

Dr. Frank M. Walsh and family leave tonight for a two weeks' stay in Atlantic City.

Raymond Spaulding of Morrisville is spending a few days with his cousin, Dwight Smith on Deer avenue.

Miss Josephine Grace of Omaha is the guest of her cousin, Miss Mary H. Grint.

W. S. Jeffers of Lyndonville was a business visitor to St. Johnsbury Tuesday.

Israel Cohen and J. S. Rosenberg of Burlington were in town Tuesday and returned to the Queen City with a new Packard car which the purchased of the C. H. Goss Co.

Mrs. Jesse Allen and daughter, Evelyn, of Hartford, Conn., have returned home after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bailey.

Mrs. V. R. Weed, who has been away the past five weeks visiting relatives and friends at Andover, N. H., and Barre, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Lenora Lane and daughter, Rita of Orleans are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Luther Brown.

Col. Charles W. Butler and family have taken a cottage at Joe's Pond for a couple of weeks.

Fred W. Kelley has returned from Chicago where he attended the national gathering of the Elks.

Claude Roundy, who has been visiting friends in town for a few days has returned to Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roleau are spending two weeks at their cottage at Caspian Lake.

Mrs. Hattie Wagner toured from North Adams, Mass., through the White Mountains Tuesday and on her way home called on her sister, Mrs. Elsie M. Harvey, and niece, Mrs. H. E. Buleh. On her return trip to North Adams she was accompanied by her two nieces, Mrs. Grace Wilkie and Miss Ethel Hayes.

Henry Byron of Cliff Street, the oldest employee at the E. & T. Fairbanks factory, sustained an injury to his back at the plant Tuesday when he was struck by an ice cake which fell from above him, striking him a glancing blow as he stood on a ladder. He was hurried to his home and it was found that no bones were broken. His many friends are glad to know that he escaped severe injury.

C. E. Kirk has sold a four tenement house on Marion avenue to Dugan & Son.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baker of A. Cliff, P. Q., and Miss Nellie Miss Mae Bailey of Waterville Sunday visitors at the homes of George and Harry Webster. Mr. Mrs. R. E. Webster and Mr. M. ensie from Northfield were also the party. Mrs. Mackenzie, who been visiting here several weeks turned with them.

Norris D. Blake and wife gone to their camp "Lincoln Lo at Lake Eden for a few days.

The St. Johnsbury band will their twice postponed concert at Railroad street park this evening.

The case set for trial in municipal court today against the man err for disturbance of the peace in of St. Johnsbury's barber shops recent Sunday, was postponed cause of the difficulty of securing stenographer.

Help Wanted

We want young men to learn the various trades in this plant, good pay while learning.

We also want following tradesmen:

Machinists	Millwrights
Painters	Blacksmiths
Electricians	Carpenters
Metal Pattern Makers	Moulders
Drop Forgers	Pattern Makers

We can also use several women on light assembling and machine work.

E. & T. Fairbanks & Co.

St. Johnsbury, Vermont

Employment Dept.

You Can Get Good Accommodations at the

LAKE SHORE HOUSE

by the day or week.

Garage Connections and Livery

Also Boats to Let

Tel. 15-5

West Danville, Vermont

Here's What

One of our many hundreds of satisfied customers says about our

Dry Cleaning and Sanitary Steam Pressing

Dear Mr. Brown:

A mighty good job it was and the H. C. of L. doesn't appear in the price. Thank you.

Danville, Vt., July 7, 1920.

If you want the highest class work done at fair prices patronize us.

C. E. Brown

109 Eastern Avenue, St. Johnsbury, Vermont