JACK FROST IN THE SOUTH.

$5,000,000 Damage to the Florida Orange Crop—Coldest Weather Since 1853.

The cold wave which swept over the south caused a loss of fully $5,000,000 to Florida. Young orange groves from one to four years old are ruined all over the state and many older trees killed.

The winter crops of vegetable are killed outright and the strawberry vines and pineapple plants very seriously damaged.

Reports from the interior of the state show that the cold weather has been general and has extended from one end of the peninsula to the other.

Tomatoes, cabbage, peas and all vegetables in the northern end of the state are ruined except the pineapple plantations, which are not much injured.

There was hardly a house in Jacksonville in which the water pipes were not frozen solid. All the shrubbery and tropical plants in the public parks and private gardens were killed and many trees clipped.

The temperature was the lowest since 1853.

Birmingham, Ala.: The worst snow storm ever known in Alabama came down on the blizzard. Six inches of snow fell. The weather was very severe and much suffering among the poor is reported.

Many cattle are starving in barren sections and two Negroes were frozen to death at Atlanta. At Birmingham almost all the cotton is ruined.

It is feared that much damage will be done in the mines by the bursting of water pipes and flooding the mines.

Memphis, Tenn.: From six to eight inches of snow is reported from the middle and West Tennessee, Arkansas, North Mississippi, Louisiana and Western Alabama, with a steady drop in temperature.

41 BURNED TO DEATH.

A Christmas Entertainment with an Awful Ending.

A most horrible accident occurred at Silver Lake, Lake county, Ore., at a Christmas entertainment in which 41 persons were burned to death and 19 badly injured, five of whom will die.

A large crowd had assembled in Christmas Bros.' hall to attend a Christmas tree festival. While the festivities were at their height, some one climbed on a bench from which point he expected to get a letter view of what was going on.

In doing so his head struck a lamp hanging from the ceiling, overturning it. The oil immediately caught fire and everything in the room being dry and of an inflammable nature, the room was soon a mass of flames.

The confusion was so great that the people began scrambling in a wild endeavor to reach the door. Women and children were trampled under foot and as there was only one exit to the hall and the fire being between the majority of the crowd and the doorway rushed headlong into the flames.

Silver Lake is a small village in Lake county, Oregon, of about 100 inhabitants and it is 150 miles from the nearest telegraph office.

Superintendent Byrnes Resigns.

The Lexow investigating committee, which has unearthed so much corruption in New York City municipal affairs that the whole United States has been shocked, has adjourned subject to call of the chairman.

Among the last officials examined was Superintendent Byrnes, the famous head of New York City's police, and at the conclusion of his inquisition, springing one of the biggest sensations of the entire session, by handing a letter to chairman Lexow and said that it was a copy of one that he had sent to Mayor-elect Strong early this month.

It was his resignation from the force—of which he has been a member for the last 23 years—owing to the continual conflict between the commissioners and himself in his endeavor to secure absolute discipline.

The department is honey-combed with abuses which had been growing for 30 years, and they could only be remedied by radical legislation. Local politicians, he claimed, were the curse of the department.

Although he had done his utmost to procure substantial information as to corruption and bribery, he was unable to get it and the whole department was impregnated with the belief that promotion had to be bought and merit was of no avail.

He claimed to have done a good deal toward helping to bring about the exposures. He paid a tribute to Dr. Parkhurst. Mr. Byrnes' wealth, which he estimated at $50,000, was made by speculation, he said, in Wall street, through the Goulds. His purchases of real estate were also very profitable.
