Street Commissioner Wilson is doing good work on Meekanic street in laying a new sidewalk along the south side.

D. S. Evans while driving along Main street on Monday was run into and upset doing considerable damage to his rig and contents.

Mrs. E. McDonald has had her dwelling house on Kenniffic street treated to a new coat of paint which improves the looks very much.

Wm. Grimes, of Speaker township, made us a present of a bag of potatoes thirty of which filled a bushel measure. We return thanks for the same.

House and lot in Yale for sale or rent. Will take a good team in part payment. For further particulars, enquire of Wm. Williams, Yale. 23-2

John Wark will be at the Rapley House every Saturday afternoon this month to pay premiums awarded at the last fair of the Yale District Agricultural Society.

Before putting up your stoves for the winter examine the chimneys and see that they are all in good order. In doing this the danger of fire will be greatly lessened.

Two lots for sale at a bargain. Lots number 2 and 20 of Block 4, Reed & McNutt's first addition to the village of Yale. For further particulars and terms inquire of J. A. Menzies, Expositor office, Yale. 11th

Frank Badley will offer for sale by public auction at his premises 1 mile south of Rosburgh, on Friday, Oct. 18, commencing at one o'clock, a lot of stock, farm implement, etc. W. H. McKenzie, auctioneer.

There will be a "crazy tea" given at the M. P. church Friday evening, Oct. 18th, by the members of the Junior Aid Society. A good time is promised and last but not least a good supper. Everybody invited to come. Proceeds to apply on minister's salary. Full particulars next week.

On Tuesday evening of last week a number of young people met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Tice and surprised them with a tatty-pull as they were about moving back to their old home in Lynn. Mr. Tice and family have made many warm friends during their short stay in the neighborhood and will be greatly missed.

E. F. Pratt has given up all intentions of selling his barber shop and seeking greener fields in the sunny South, and will remain at his old stand in Yale. Ed is an efficient workman, has a good business here, and we are pleased to have him remain with us. The agency in this village for the City Steam Laundry, of Port Huron, has been given him and he will conduct it in connection with his barber business.

How the Magnetic Springs lost a good customer is told by John V. Smith a prominent Oddfellow, Wooster, Ohio, who says, "I have doctored and doctored without benefit, for sleeplessness and nervous rheumatism with pains all over me, until had decided to go to the Magnetic Springs. Mr. Laubach advised me to try Dr. Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer and before had used all the second bottle my rheumatism and sleeplessness were entirely cured. Sold in Yale by Grant Holden."

This week F. H. Gibbs & Co., who have been in the hardware business in Yale for over a year, move their stock to Coleman where they will engage in the same line of trade. Messrs Gibbs and Mather are both business men and gentlemen in every sense of the word and it is with regret that their large circle of friends learn of their departure but what is Yale's loss will be Coleman's gain. Coleman citizens will find both these young men to be straightforward, upright and honest in all their dealings. Success to them in their new field.

A very pleasant company was present at the wedding of Miss Augusta P. Manning and Manley W. Hitehings, on Wednesday evening, October 2nd. The young couple were married by Rev. J. Horton, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Hiram Manning on North street. Immediately after the ceremony the company were invited out to an elegant repast, to which all did ample justice. After a delightfully spent evening the guests departed, and the young couple went to their previously prepared home, to begin house-keeping at once.—Port Huron Daily Times.

The body of A. Collocott, the merchant of Carsonville, was found Sunday night by Mrs. Wm. How, in a clump of bushes, about 40 feet south of the Lapeer road, near the railroad crossing. A bottle labeled poison lay near by. Collocott's face was terribly mutilated by the crows. This is the man who disappeared mysteriously from Carsonville on Sept. 9, when he took $50 from his safe, got on the train, went to Crosswell and bought a money order for $45 which he sent to his wife. This was the last seen or heard of him until Sunday night. It is no doubt a case of suicide, the cause being financial troubles, as his business matters were not in very good shape.

As Mrs. Wm. Wark and Hattie Jones were driving into town from the north last Saturday afternoon when about opposite Union block one of the back wheels of the buggy dropped off starting the horse into a run and Mrs. Wark was unable to hold him. Rushing down Main street the buggy was tipped over in front of Fitzgerald's shoe store, throwing out both the ladies. Mrs. Wark escaped without many injuries but Miss Jones was cut and bruised severely. The horse ran across the street and into the vacant lot south of Ballentine's store, where he stopped and was soon caught. The buggy was utterly demolished. It was a narrow escape for the ladies it seeming to those who witnessed the overturning almost a miracle that they were not killed outright.

FAIR---RACES.

There are several kinds of fairs. For instance, Fair and Square Dealing. You always find it at our store. Again, there is the county fair, the Yale Fair, and the Fair of Yale. To the latter we extend a hearty welcome to call and examine our line of fine PERFUMES and TOILET ARTICLES.

As to races, there is the foot race, boat race, horse race and human race. The last named race can always be found at our store in large quantities inspecting our large line of DRUGS, BOOKS, STATIONERY and CONFECTIONS.

GRANT HOLDEN,

STATIONERY YALE.

Money to Loan. Fred A. Farr, Attorney, Yale.

Girl for laundry work wanted at the Rapley House, Yale, at once.

Commercial printing done at the Expositor Job Rooms neatly, quickly and cheaply.

George McIntyre has painted his new house on Kenniffic street and it now presents a very neat appearance.

A few of Yale's Odd Fellows attended the laying of the corner stone for the LOOF temple in Port Huron Tuesday.

J. A. Davidson & Co. call attention to their extensive stock of carpets and curtains on which they offer special bargains.

Special communication of Brockway Lodge No. 316, F&AM at Masonic hall, Yale, Saturday evening, Oct. 12. Work on M. M. degree.

E. M. Cady, of Port Huron, has announced himself a candidate for the office of Superintendent of the Poor for St. Clair county now held by Nelson Roberts.

Steve Windsor has moved his tailor shop into rooms upstairs in the McKenna block where he is prepared to do first-class work at reasonable prices. Call and see him.

Dr. Warner Cornell, of the firm of Drs. Warner & E. A. Cornell, eye, ear, nose and throat specialists of 111 Huron Ave., Port Huron, will be at the Rapley House on the last Friday of each month. His next visit will be Friday, October 25th.

Tuesday was an exceedingly cold day and overcoats were in good demand. A slight flurry of snow fell in the afternoon. Wednesday morning it was noticed that there had been a heavy frost during the night. Ice half an inch thick was found on pails of water standing outside and everything presented a frostbitten appearance.

An exchange says: "Patronize the man who advertises. You do not visit your neighbors unless asked to, and do not attend a wedding or party without invitation. Then why should you intrude on the privacy of a store-keeper without an invitation? Buy of the live business man who not only invites you to come and see him every day, but educates and keeps you posted on what is popular in his line of goods."

Daniel Foley, proprietor of the Maplewood Stock Farm, located near Mt. Salem postoffice in Emmet township, has as fine a lot of stock as you will find in many a day's travel. Among his thoroughbreds are Shorthorn cattle, Shropshire sheep and Berkshire pigs, all of which are registered. Should any of our farmers wish to purchase first-class stock they can do no better than buy of Mr. Foley. If you have a day's time to spare it will more than repay you to go and look over his farm and stock. You will find Mr. Foley a very hospitable gentleman and the day will be well spent.

Catherine Easton died at her home in East Greenwood on Friday morning October 4th, at the advanced age of 70 years. The funeral services were held at the Crosswell Catholic church Sunday, October 6th, and her remains buried in the Crosswell cemetery. Rev. Fr. Kose conducting the services. A very large number of friends and relatives accompanied the remains to the grave and paid their last tribute of respect to the departed. Three sons, George, William and Joseph, all of Greenwood, and four daughters, Mrs. Sarah Rich, Mrs. Maggie Willey, of Greenwood, Mrs. Elizabeth Gibbons, of Grant, and Mrs. Catherine Brown, of Brockway, besides a very large circle of friends are left to mourn the departure of a kind and loving mother and a faithful friend. The husband of deceased, David Easton, died two years ago last winter. A vote of thanks is tendered by the children to all those friends and neighbors who did so many kind acts during the sickness and after the death of their mother.

There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purposes for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Hardly a week passes but some member of the family has need of it. A toothache or headache may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia quieted. The severe pain of a burn or scald promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third of the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen, which can only be done when Pain Balm is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved without paying a doctor bill. Procure a 50 cent bottle at once and you will never regret it. For sale by Will Lennon.

James Rath presented us with a basket of the finest apples we have seen this fall. We feel very thankful to him for the same.

Every mother should know that croup can be prevented. The first symptom of true croup is hoarseness. This is followed by a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the cough has developed it will prevent the attack. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Will Lennon.

The supervisors of St. Clair Co. will hold their annual session at Port Huron this month, commencing next Monday. A member of the Board of School Examiners will be elected during this session. The supervisors would be doing just the right thing if they should elect E. S. Black, principal of Yale schools, as a member of said board. Principal Black has given entire satisfaction in our schools for the past two years and was re-engaged for this year, which is surely a good recommendation. Mr. Black can be depended upon to do what is right if elected and every way in his power would advance education in the county. His work in our schools shows him to be a first-class educator, thoroughly upright and conscientious.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

Things That Interest Church Goers.

Elder J. H. Paton will preach in Brick Chapel next Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock and evening at 7:30.

Prof. F. A. Wagner, of Detroit, will preach at Menerey's Corner, (Church of Christ), next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All are invited.

There will be regular services in the M. E. church next Sunday morning and evening. Evening subject:—Second discourse on the Parables of Jesus.

Quarterly meeting in M. P. church October 12 and 23. Services to begin Saturday at 2:30 p. m. Rev. R. Rutledge, of Capac, will take charge of the same.

The Ladies' Aid in connection with Brick Chapel will meet at Mrs. E. R. Beecher's next Wednesday afternoon at the usual hour. A full attendance is requested.

Rev. Kirkland preaches at 5:00 o'clock in the Brick Chapel Sunday afternoon. After this Sunday the services are to be held at the usual time in the evening.

The following plan has been outlined for special services in M. E. church during the autumn and winter months: Special meetings will open in Brockway church on Sunday, November 18, and in Yale commencing with the week of prayer. It is hoped that all will plan accordingly.

Rev. John Williamson, D. D., will give a Bible Reading in the M. E. church next Wednesday afternoon and evening. Dr. Williamson is one of the few great Bible readers of his age; as pastor and presiding elder in Chicago; as preacher and Bible reader in the great summer assemblies, he has a world-wide reputation. His presence among us is a rare privilege for all who are interested in the exposition and application of the word of God. All are cordially invited irrespective of creed or church relations. Admission will be free, but a silver collection will be taken at the evening service.

We have been studying wood and varnish, and oil and upholstery, and workmanship as applied to Furniture. It has taught us how to buy. We always get the worth of our money, so we can always give you the worth of yours. Many an honest dealer has to charge you more than we do, because he paid too much himself. Ignorance is less provoking than dishonesty, but it costs you just as much. Need we point the moral?—When you come to us you get the benefit of what we know.
