Journalistic Misery.

We hear it currently reported that another newspaper is to be started at Brown City. The idea seems absurd but people do most absurd things sometimes which no one can see the reason for. But here is this case. Brown City is but a small village, a hustling, active, go-ahead, little village to be sure, but with no more need for another paper than a cat has for the superfluous tail. This quixotic movement is emphasized by the fact that Brown City already has one of the brightest, cleanest and best conducted country newspapers in this part of the state, and has a wide-awake hustling management that would be easily daunted. Any energetic, progressive business man cannot help but make occasional enemies as the bees and drones never did get along together very well. Bro. Howse seems to have been unfortunate in arousing some one's ire. But any enterprise that owes its birth to a grudge or spite rather than business judgment is sure sooner or later to die the death it merits. Ere long our eyes will catch a Detroit News liner—For sale cheap, a small country newspaper outfit. Address XYZ, Brown City, Mich.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

Things That Interest Church Goers.

YPSCE rally and program at M. P. church tonight.

Rev. Tom Thompson, of Melvin, is now holding special meetings in the Maple Valley district.

The hour of regular services at M. P. church have been changed from 7:30 to 7:00 p. m. Please bear this in mind.

Rev. Cooper will talk on the following subject in M. P. church next Sunday evening: "Hiding childhood from danger."

The topics of next Sunday's sermons in the M. E. church will be: morning, "The Life-giving Vine"; Evening, "The Hidden Treasure."

A new Farrand & Votey organ has been placed in the audience room of the M. E. church, by the Sunday School. The old organ will do service in the chapel.

The choristers are beginning to have their choir in a perfected shape and the public may expect inspiring music in connection with the public services in the M. E. church.

The first Sunday of each month will be reception Sunday in the M. E. church. Any persons desiring to unite with the church will be publicly received on that day.

It is the wish of the choristers that the members of the congregation should provide themselves with Hymnals and join in the singing. The pastor can secure Hymnals at special rates for cash.

The first quarterly meeting of this conference year will be held in the M. E. church next Sunday morning. Love feast at 9:30, preaching at 10:30 followed by the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

The Epworth League Reception which was to be given last Tuesday evening was postponed for one week in memory of Miss Anna Brown, a former member of the League. Preparations are being made for a pleasant gathering next Tuesday evening to which all young people are invited.

Appreciating the inspiration of good singing in connection with the social and special meetings of the church, the pastor of the M. E. church has obtained a supply of "Songs of the Soul" which can be purchased for fifteen cents a copy. These will be used both in Yale and at Brockway during the coming special meetings.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Caillotte, Druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken down with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We don't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial bottle at Grant Holden's Drug Store, Yale.

Wine for Weakly Persons.

Weakly persons use Speer's Port Grape Juice because it gives tone and strength to the system. It is superior to all other wines.

For Sale or Exchange.

FARMERS READ.—A Thorough-bred Tanworth boar for service 1 1/2 miles south of Yale. Terms of service, $1.00. Spot cash. 51—WM. WELCH.

Death's Untimely Frost.

Last Monday evening, after months of patient suffering, Anna Brown, daughter of David Brown, peacefully departed this life. The change did not come as a surprise to herself, and it had been long known by relatives and friends that the "Angel of Death" had marked her for his own, and so, for many weeks they had been closely watching and waiting the shadows grow longer, until her bright, young sun should have forever set.

Anna Brown was one of the brightest and best young ladies of Yale. She was not only a special favorite in her home, but in the large circle of friends and acquaintances who knew her but to love her, she will be sadly missed and long and sacredly remembered. The eighteen bright, brief summers that blossomed along her pathway grew unnumbered flowers with which to strewn her grave.

She graduated from the High School in the class of '94, the other members being Mary Pearce, Julia Grinnell, Lillian Cooper, Maud Freeman, Lulu High, Leah Darcy, and Justin Cavanaugh, giving promise of eloquent powers of high order.

Miss Brown was a member of the Epworth League of the M. E. church, where her funeral was held on Thursday at 1 o'clock, Elder J. H. Paton officiating. The services were tender and impressive. The flowers that adorned the casket, the gifts of loving hands and hearts, were many and beautiful.

Two sets of pallbearers, one of young ladies, the other of young gentlemen, tenderly waited on the bier that bore her remains to Elmwood cemetery, attended and honored by a large concourse of true, weeping friends. Truly the memories of the good is blessed.

Scarcely Eighteen.

Scarcely eighteen!
And her dear form lies hid
Under the weight
Of the coffin lid.
Scarcely eighteen!
And grave clothes to wear,
Crossed are the white hands,
Smoothed the dark hair;
Cold is the forehead,
And wondrously fair.
Scarcely eighteen!
How youthful to die,
Hope in the bosom
Was so glowing high;
The hand gave promise
Of a beautiful flower,
But we saw it wither
And fade in an hour.
Scarcely eighteen!
Get passed from the strife,
The turmoil, the endless
Commotion of life.
Scarcely eighteen!
Yet entered the joy
Of the glorified saints
In Jesus employ:
Singing the song
The Redeemed only sing,
Casting a crown
At the feet of the King.
Washed in his blood,
And safe in his rest.
Why then, Lord, dost take her,
When scarcely eighteen,
We praise, oh! we praise thee,
Our cherished one,
For the promise we find
In thy comforting word:
That all who are clothed
In thy mantle of love
Shall meet her one day
In thy presence above.
And then, Oh! how clearly,
By each shall be seen,
Why thou, Lord, dost take her,
When scarcely eighteen.

Lines composed on the death of Anna Brown, who died Monday, Oct. 28th, 1895.

On the Sick List.

Mrs. Henry Martin is convalescent.
Mrs. Henry Pearce is still seriously ill.
Miss Lou McNair has been quite sick during the past week.

May Drummond has been quite ill for the past few days.
Lillian Springer was among the sick ones the first of the week.

Mrs. A. E. Jackson has been under the care of Dr. Clyne this week.
Lulu Gowan is again able to be out after an illness of several weeks with inflammation of the bowels.

Wallace Adams had an attack of inflammation the first of the week but is now on deck again at the harness shop.

Frank Spring, near Roseburg, has about recovered from his recent attack of typhoid fever, being cared for by Dr. Will H. Gowan.

Tonsillitis is causing Hiram Holcomb an employee at the Yale Woolen Mills, to take an enforced rest this week—if he chooses to call it a rest.

P. G. Lathrop was at Lapeer last week on a visit, and was called home on account of the sickness of his son Hod. Hod's all right now.

Mrs. Frank Gillam was taken suddenly ill one day last week. Frank came home from Alpena Saturday and has not yet returned. Mrs. Gillam is gaining slowly.

Mrs. Hackett, of Everet, who suffered a severe stroke of paralysis last spring and has since been an invalid, was brought to Yale last week and will make her home with her niece, Mrs. Martin Menerey.

C. Mrs. T. S. Clark, of Bay City, who has long been an invalid is making a most satisfactory recovery under the careful nursing of Mrs. Robert Tenslow, of Speaker, where she is being treated by Dr. Will H. Gowan.

Cure for Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle and give this remedy a fair trial. In case of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Fifty cents and $1.00 bottles at Grant Holden's drug store.

Wall Paper.
