

All Right Now.

"Overwork and loss of necessary sleep made me very nervous and it was with the greatest difficulty that I could execute my solos. A friend advised me to give Dr. Miles' Nervine a trial, which I did and received immediate benefit. In a few days I was entirely relieved. I recommend it to all musicians who suffer from overworked and disordered nerves."

School Notes.

Editor—Maude Hennessy.

The gentleman is solid mahogany; the fashionable man is only veneer.—Holland.

Miss Jacobs was a visitor in the high room last week.

Anna Knapp is absent on account of sickness.

Nellie and Willie Shaw are new pupils in the 1st intermediate.

Olive Mosehead handed in a very fine free-hand drawing this week.

The Drawing class have handed in some very fine drawings of houses.

Mr. Campbell visited the different rooms last Friday.

Birdie Harris is back in school again after an absence of several months.

Nellie Magner visited the grammar room Monday.

Through the kindness of Mr. Menzies we have several copies of the Scientific American.

Mars which was first observed in the constellation Gemini, is now nearing Regulus of the constellation Leo.

During the session of Circuit court which is being held by the ninth grade the only member of the class who was not a citizen took out her citizen papers.

Mr. Hartman, of Marlette and Mr. Parker, of Marine City attended the Teachers' Association last Saturday.

Mr. Hartman delivered a scholarly lecture of twenty minutes. Mr. Parker by his lively and instructive speeches added much to the pleasure of the listeners.

Mr. Roode took the Philosophy class to the depot and explained the working of the Electric Telegraph. Much good was derived.

Earl Mitchell was champion of the spelling contest last week.

School Reports.

Pupils neither absent nor tardy during the month: Grace Danielson, John and Vina Hoffman, Melvin and Mary Kenney, Earl Willoughby, Ella King, Frank Willoughby, Jennie, Ella and Susie Green, John and Donald Stevens, Howard and Frank Murray, Elva Feiger, Roy and Ray Huffman, Tressa Wiltshire. Frank Baxter, Teacher.

New Wonderland Theatre.

Wonderland is bigger, brighter and more interesting than ever this summer. Extensive preparations have been made to take care of excursionists. Plenty of room for the care of baggage and packages is provided. An immense room in which to keep bicycles has been fitted out with all paraphernalia for care of wheels. A great many new animals have been added to the menagerie including three eub lions and a baby rhinoceros, the only one in American, a family of Japanese spinning mice, the quaintest little rodents that spin like tops almost constantly and many other novelties of the animal kingdom.

The haunted swing, in which one has the peculiar sensation of swinging entirely, being head downward at times, is free to all patrons both afternoon and evening. A fine photograph parlor with 20 instruments, where one can enjoy all the latest songs sung by famous singers, playing of bands, recitations and jokes by well known artists etc., is also free to patrons.

The eden museum has been greatly enlarged and many new groups added, including a group of the most famous fighters of the Spanish war. An hour or two spent in the curio halls of Wonderland where quaint peoples, interesting curiosities of all kinds and unique and wonderful performances are given can be spent very enjoyably and profitably.

Then there is always a splendid vaudeville show given in the theater where the very best vaudeville performances are given.

Crippled by Rheumatism.

One of the saddest sights is that of a strong man lying crippled and helpless, prostrated by the withering touch of Rheumatism. The mind as keen as ever, the affections strong, a perfect man imprisoned in a distorted, helpless body.

Ath-lo-pho-ros, the wonder working and almost miraculous discovery, comes to the rescue of such afflicted.

Ath-lo-pho-ros has cured thousands in the past. It seldom fails. Fifty thousand testimonials on file at the home office prove the truth of this statement. Ath-lo-pho-ros is a positive cure for Rheumatism. Send for free treatise.

WASHINGTON, Ia., Sept. 12th, 1898.

Several years ago I was all crippled up by Rheumatism, and on getting a bottle of Ath-lo-pho-ros and taking it I was completely cured. I think it the greatest of all cures for Rheumatism. My mother was troubled with Neuralgia a year ago, and I got her to try the medicine. She did so, and on the third day was greatly relieved, and on taking the contents of the entire bottle was cured. Ever yours in praise,

OWEN O. HAYES.
