Death of Mrs. Copeland.

Died at her home in Brockway village, on Tuesday, Sept. 25th, after a long and painful illness, Mrs. Robert Copeland, aged 65 years.

The deceased came to Michigan some 23 years ago. She was born in England, and in early life came to Canada, where she was married to Robert Maynard, who died in 1881. To this union were born one daughter and six sons: Mrs. Anna Bullard, of Toronto, Ontario; Edward; George; of Alpena, Charley; of Tonawanda, N. Y.; John, of Lexington and William and Joseph of Brockway. In 1885 she was married to Robert Copeland in Greenwood, who died about seven years ago. Soon after her second marriage she came to Brockway, where she has since resided.

She was a member of the Brockway Presbyterian church, and her funeral was held in its edifice on Thursday, Sept. 27th, the service being conducted by her pastor, Rev. Wm. Sidebotham, of Yale. The interment was made in the Lett cemetery.

The children of Mrs. Robert Copeland desire us to return thanks in their behalf to all the friends and neighbors who so kindly and willingly aided them during the recent sickness and death of their beloved mother.

After weeks of greatest anguish,
Our dear mother's pain is passed;
In the bosom of our Saviour
Peacefully she sleeps at last.

For the ones she's left behind her,
Oh, sweet God! how deep the woe?
As we miss our loving mother
From the earthly home below.

How the death of our dear mother
Opens grief within our hearts;
May the Saviour, who has stricken,
Help us each to bear our parts.

We extend the mourning children
Sympathy that's true and tried;
May they know we sorrow with them
For their mother who has died.

Now, remember, friends of mother,
She has only gone before;
And is waiting for her loved ones
On the bright and happy shore.—J. H. R.

A Case of Salt Rheum and Scald Head Both Cured.

Windsor, Ont., Jan. 10, 1900.
128 Windsor Ave.

Dr. D. C. Warner—I have used your Compound of Seven Cures for a bad case of salt rheum. I used eight bottles. The disease has entirely disappeared. I also used it for my little girl, aged 10 years, for scald head, and six bottles of Seven Cures cured her; her hair is growing beautifully again.

Yours very truly, T. Brown.

Mellon Ferguson is proud of the new wheel chair he received this week, which is a present from a number of Yale's citizens. Herman Zinzo and August Milbrandt deserve the credit of securing the donation.

If you are not now enjoying perfect health, consult Dr. G. Munch, the Detroit specialist, when he comes to Yale on Oct. 25th. The Doctor has many wonderful cures to his credit. See adv. "No cure, no pay," in another column.

J. B. Paisley entered Sunola T. in the green race at Capac Thursday and won first money in three straight heats. Geo. W. Bell's stallion St. Ilario took first prize. Reported that a big crowd attended but the fair was a failure.

After a day or two to catch its breath, the news grew strong enough to mount our office stairs—with the cigars—and dump upon our editorial table the big chunk of information that a fine boy had arrived at Leslie Silverthorn's last Friday. Its weight strained the table somewhat, but Leslie says it's all solid truth, and the only trouble is that the lad makes a noise like a Bryanite crying for a postoffice.
