OUR NEIGHBORS.

Facts and Fancies Picked Up By Our Correspondents. Jeddo.

Cessia Hillock, 12 years of age, of Jeddo, is reported missing from her home since last Wednesday. The girl has been living with her uncle, Thomas Hillock, in the country five miles from Jeddo. Last Tuesday she had some difficulty with her school teacher and on Wednesday morning she secured $8 from a bureau drawer and walked to Jeddo and took the train to Port Huron.

From Port Huron Cessia took a Rapid Railway car to Detroit, arriving there about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Where the girl went after she left the car at the corner of Michigan and Woodward avenues is a mystery. Her uncle and the police have searched all over Detroit for her but cannot locate her.

The girl is described as five feet five inches tall, weight 140 pounds, with brown eyes, light brown hair. She wore a hat trimmed with ribbons and a feather on the left side, short blue-black, tight-fitting jacket, bicycle skirt and a pair of heavy soled shoes.

A SOLDIER'S BOY.

By RUTH GIBFORD, Earl School, Chicago, Ill.

The snowflakes they were falling, The howling winds did roar; When a soldier's boy, most frozen, Came to a lady's door. He saw her at her window, It filled his heart with joy, "Take pity on me, lady, A soldier's homeless boy." "My mother died last summer, My father is in the wars; He has fought in many a battle; He is covered with wounds and scars. My picture is in his knapsack— He carries it with joy, Oh! shelter me, dear lady, A soldier's homeless boy." "The snow is faster falling, I'll perish ere the morn, Oh! shelter me, dear lady, From this impending storm. Deny me not, I pray you, 'Twould rob you of all joy To find me in the morn, A homeless little boy." The lady left the window And opened wide the door, "Come in, then little stranger, And never wander more. For my own son has fallen— My only hope and joy, Long as I live I'll shelter A soldier's homeless boy."

HOME AND CHILD

Does your horse "feel his oats"? What a difference between the grain-fed and the grass-fed horse! The first strong and full of ginger, the second flabby, weak and out before he begins to feed. Feeding makes the difference.

Children are not all alike. One is rosy, bright-eyed, full of life and laughter, another pale, weak and dull. The latter one again is responsible for the sickly children need special feeding. They don't "ask for" Scott's Emulsion, but just the right richness to their diet. It is like grain to the horse. The child gets new appetite and strong digestion.

Scott's Emulsion is more than food. It is a strong medicine. It rouses up dull children, puts new flesh on thin ones and red blood into pale ones. It makes children grow. Scott's Emulsion makes ordinary food do its duty.

This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle. Send for free sample. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl St., New York. 50c and $1. all druggists.
