A GOOD PLACE TO TRADE.

FROM AN OLD FRIEND.

East Greenwood, March 21, 1905.

FRIEND MENZIES:—

Thirteen years ago I, with my wife, moved to Deford where we were well used and enjoyed life, but a few days ago we returned to East Greenwood to live with our daughter, Mrs. Charles Nichols. Now I wish to say that a friend of mine by the name of McGeorge in Cass City offered me his auto to take my wife to church which I consider a very generous offer. Now if Dr. Pollock or some other friend will furnish us with one at this place for the same purpose we may remain here, otherwise we may move back. We expect to put in the rest of our time where we are used the best. Yours,
H. J. WILCOX.

The following item clipped from the Deford correspondence of the Tri-County Chronicle shows what a friendly feeling exists in the neighborhood where Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox resided for so many years:—

"Grandpa and Grandma Wilcox, who have made their home here for about fourteen years, are moving to East Greenwood to live with their daughter, Mrs. Nichols. Although we cannot see their smiling faces any longer among us, yet they leave a host of friends who will long remember their happy, cheerful voices. We wish them happiness in the future."

May the old couple enjoy all manner of peace and happiness during the balance of their life here among us.
