

BLACK-DRAUGHT STOCK and POULTRY MEDICINE

Stock and poultry have few troubles which are not bowel and liver irregularities. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is a bowel and liver remedy for stock. It puts the organs of digestion in a perfect condition. Prominent American breeders and farmers keep their herds and flocks healthy by giving them an occasional dose of Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine in their feed. Any stock raiser may buy a 25-cent half-pound air-tight can of this medicine from his dealer and keep his stock in vigorous health for weeks. Dealers generally keep Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine. If yours does not, send 25 cents for a sample can to the manufacturers, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

ROCHESTER, GA., Jan. 30, 1902. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is the best I ever tried. Our stock was looking bad when you sent me the medicine and now they are getting so fat. They are looking 20 per cent better.

BANQUET IN DENVER.

President Winds Up Day's Journey in Pleasing Manner.
Denver, Col., May 9.—The entertainment of President Roosevelt by the citizens of Denver last night was a fitting conclusion of a day of royal welcome as he journeyed through Colorado from Glenwood Springs to Denver. All the towns along the Denver & Rio Grande railroad over which the presidential party traveled centered their population at the stations to greet the president, and every evidence of hearty good will was seen and heard. The crowning event of the day came last night in the form of a banquet tendered to President Roosevelt by the Denver Chamber of Commerce at the Brown Palace hotel. It was a sumptuous affair and the president was visibly pleased. The banquet began at 8 o'clock and continued until 11 o'clock, when the president was escorted to the private car "Rocket," where he almost immediately retired to await his departure for Chicago.

Use an Engine to Chase Steer.
Jersey City, N. J., May 9.—Police-men Hollic and Connolly are prepared to teach aspiring young cowboys how to rope a wild steer in truly modern fashion. Instead of leaping upon the back of a fast horse and giving chase when a steer ran through the streets they jumped aboard an engine in the Lehigh Valley railroad yards and ordered the wonderstruck engineer to throw open the throttle. They followed the steer down the tracks, firing shots at it, with poor marksmanship. "But," so say the policemen, "after chasing that steer about a mile it fell exhausted, and we took pity on it and called in a butcher to put it out of misery."

IMITATING NOAH.

Peculiar Sect in Western Michigan Collects Animals in Anticipation of Flood.
Benton Harbor, Mich., May 9.—The peculiar religious sect living near here known as the Flying Rollers have become imbued with the idea that the world is soon to be submerged and, like Noah, Benjamin, their leader, has set about collecting animals from all parts of the world to insure their preservation after the coming of the millennium. Even now at the City of David there is a zoo that would rival that of Lincoln park, Chicago. The zoo, as it is now presented, contains, besides the monkey, gaudy plumaged birds of paradise, cockatoos, parrots, Australian pigeons and a collection of smaller sing birds. In addition to this is a billygoat, Belgian hares and sheep, and it is hoped to soon add a good specimen of dancing bear, a deer and some raccoons.

SENATE PRIMARY BILL

To Be Reported From Senate Committee on Elections.
Lansing, Mich., May 9.—Today the senate committee on elections will meet to report some kind of a primary reform measure to the senate. The indications are that the original Double-Ivory bill will be reported minus the Dickinson amendment inserted by the house and providing for the direct nomination of candidates for governor and lieutenant-governor. The members of the senate returned last night and tackled the largest general order of the session. There were twenty-five bills on the order and about ten were disposed of.

Menominee, Mich., May 9.—The bravery of Mrs. Clement Kay of Marinette saved from a bloody death at the hands of the husband and father, who while temporarily insane tried to butcher the whole family with a razor. After the officers arrived and while Kay was in another room ostensibly to change his shirt before going to jail, he stuck a pocketknife into his throat and inflicted a possibly fatal wound.

Her Neck Broken by Fall.

Saginaw, Mich., May 9.—A peculiar accident occurred at Fraser and Michigan streets, west side, which resulted in the instant death of Mrs. Emily Kringle, a highly respected woman of this city. Mrs. Kringle stepped from a street car as it slowed up for the railroad crossing and alighted while it was still moving. She lost her balance and was thrown on her head, breaking her neck.

Electric Road to Chicago.

Benton Harbor, Mich., May 9.—From Grand Rapids to Chicago, paralleling the Pere Marquette, is the route of the electric railroad in which Col. W. W. Bean, until recently owner of the Benton Harbor & St. Joseph street railway, and Charles A. Chapin the owner of several dams on the St. Joseph river and at present holding options on property near Berrien Springs, where it is said a dam will soon be constructed, are interested. If constructed, and the deal is taking on such shape that it seems more than a possibility, this line will be one of the longest in Michigan, equalling the Detroit-Kalamazoo Interurban.

THAT BOY OF YOURS.

We chaperon our girls and carefully guard them against unworthy boys, but we leave the boy to choose for himself his associates and his achievements. Girls are naturally winsome, gentle, companionable. They win their way in homes and hearts. But the boy, noisy, awkward, mischievous, is invited into few homes and feels none too much at home in his own.

About the only door that swings with sure welcome to the boy, about the only chair that is shoved near the fire especially for the boy, about the only place where he is sure of cordial greeting—is where he ought not to go. It is one of the hardest things in the world to get hold of a boy to get a sure grip on him.

He is hungry for companionship, and he will have it. You can't chain him away from it. He wants the companionship of boys and nothing will take its place. If the crime of selfishness has so encased your heart that the joys and hopes of your boy cannot enter into it, the boy is to be pitied, but so are you.
