In thinking of the foreign missionary work the great question arises before us "Had we not better induce our missionaries to stay home in our own land and go to work?" The Thaw case in all its horror, cites us to have more base creatures such as Evelyn Thaw have we? How many more Harry K. Thaws have we that can be provoked to a murderous jealousy by the evil story of an evil mind of a fairly goodlooking woman, a woman that never presented a beautiful thought during her existence, but posing to bring out the animal in human nature.

Can Mae Maclezie or any of her kind bring her out of her present thought or manner of doing. For clinging to Maclezie who is proven an outcast, a questionable woman, instead of coming up to a higher altitude of thought proves that Evelyn's past career was just as she wished it to be. She did not want to be a good woman but a good actress. Her end has been filled. She is a frail nothing between two men, producing the greatest drama that has been brought to light upon this or possibly any other country on the globe.

Can any weak intellect such as usually go out to foreign missions, reach Evelyn Thaw the strategist, or her kind? I say weak simply for the reason they are not well read. Our missionaries should be men and women such as the judges of the supreme benches, professors of our seminaries and schools, and particularly theologians. Men and women of great minds who ever found who live close to and closely study the divine law, such as these can reach the tenderloin districts of each little hamlet at home. Then from that to each village, town, to the largest cities, and say in a masterly way what is best for the frequenters of the Waldorf to do.

Come again to the missionaries. Ask them any question beginning at the least of nature's laws, such as the analysis of the air we breathe, or the water we drink, which plays such a part in our existence. Or how we get our seasons; or why they are, or why we get different colors from the same soil, or why we have the rainbow, or what produces it, or why a serene good life is more essential than one filled with brain storms. Or why is a pure mind in woman better at home attending strictly to her virtuous duty, than a depraved mind travelling over the face of the earth with a man other than her husband.

Or a highly sensitized mind in the forest listening to the sounds of the leaves as they are stirred by a gentle breeze, and hearing the sweet strains from the feathered songsters, and giving thanks back to the Infinite Intelligence for the privilege of doing so. Better thou listen to the great share of ministers laboring so hard to get you to understand a superstition. Of all these things our missionaries know but little. But they will say with a vengeance, "Revenge is sweet saith the Lord." That word revenge should be erased from our language and entirely forgotten; and the word compassion more thoroughly understood. While our country is filled with horse thieves, highway robbers, grafters in every institution, political pulls, murder pollutions, and our states prisons, insane asylums, homes for the feeble minded, as vast as they are, all filled to overflowing, let us in the name of good common sense keep our pignies at home, until we ourselves come somewhere near right thought and living, before attempting to show our ignorance.

We are all shivering with the cold same as you.

Theodore and Mrs. Wurzel will be at home to their friends after this week.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

It is the most earnest desire of our Company, that every dealer selling our goods shall thoroughly understand the meaning of the guarantee, and further it is our desire that every purchaser of National Cable shall understand it in the same light. Our guarantee contemplates a refund to the purchaser of an amount equal to but not in excess of the purchase price—should the property or properties upon which National Cable has been installed, be damaged by lightning, or a repair of the damage at our expense, should any occur, this and this only does the guarantee mean. You will notice that our guarantee says, we will either refund the amount paid for the rod or we will repair the damage. The reason we make this provision is to protect ourselves against the acts of unscrupulous persons who could damage a building to the extent of a few dollars' report it and stand ready to prove falsely that the injury was the result of lightning, and then make a claim against us for refund of the full amount paid. For this reason, we added the second clause which gives us the right to repair the injury and thus remove the incentive to do any damage, which might be done with the idea of securing a cash refund.

We could not if we desired to do so, legally guarantee to any one to a greater extent than we do now, unless we should comply with the Laws governing Insurance Companies in the different states in which we are doing business. To the best of our knowledge this has never been done by any maker of lightning conductors. We well know that there are manufacturers who claim to guarantee for as much as $50,000 regardless of the value of the building. This on the face of it looks fraudulent to any one who will consider a moment. Such a guarantee placed on a $300.00 building which at the same time is covered by $200 of valid insurance, would certainly be hazardous to the interests of the Insurance Companies, if both amounts were collectable. It would then appear as if the Insurance Companies were not protected by the State Laws, but the fact is they are fully protected. In other words, a guarantee for more than the amount paid for a lightning rod is absolutely worthless and uncollectable in any court. Beware of the man offering a $500 guarantee or so-called reward.

Rest is the great restorer. We tire our muscles by exercise and then rest to restore them; yet a great many of us do not stop to think how little rest we give our stomachs. As a usual thing no part of our bodies is so generally overworked as our digestive organs. A tired and overworked stomach will give signs of distress to which we pay no heed until at last dyspepsia takes hold. Indigestion is just a warning, and if we heed the warning we can easily avoid further consequences. Kodol is a most thorough stomach relief. It digests what you eat and gives the stomach the needed rest and greatly assists in restoring it to its normal activity and usefulness. Kodol is sold on a guaranteed relief plan. It is sold here by Mathews & Wight.

Laxative Iron-Ox Tablets

Cure Biliousness

The most common causes of biliousness is some perversion of the functions of the liver, or the retention of bile in the bile duct.

YELLOW BILLOUS SKIN IS AN INDICATION OF BILIOUSNESS.

"Laxative Iron-Ox Tablets are the best I have ever used. They have cleared up my yellow skin as no other remedy has ever done, and I am 40 lbs. heavier than when I commenced taking them." (CAPT. J. G. CULVER, Soldier's Home, Wash. D. C.)

Laxative Iron-Ox Tablets tone and strengthen the bowels, and stimulate the secretions of the liver. If the bowels and liver are active and working harmoniously waste matter and poisons which cause biliousness, stomach trouble, headache, backache, colds and rheumatism cannot accumulate in the system.
