OUR HOLIDAY REMINDER.

We wish to remind you that in extent and variety our stock far exceeds that of previous years. And as the stock is large, probably the most distinctive thing about it is that everything is of worthy quality—is worth giving. By buying such a large stock, we are able to make a big saving on the price. Our stock is too large to give you a definite idea of its size and high character in this space, but can give you the following list to choose from:—

Pocket-Books and Purses	Toilet Sets	Military Brushes
Hand and Stand Mirrors	Perfumes	Holiday Stationery
Albums	Ebony Goods	Vases
Stag Horn Novelties	Fancy Calendars	Music Carriers
Ink Wells	Fine China	Cut Glass
Soap Boxes	Manicure Sets	Pictures
Work Boxes	Xmas Cards	Xmas Cigars
Books	Bibles	Prayer Books

...ANY ARTICLE NOT IN STOCK WE WILL ORDER AT YOUR REQUEST...

Calumet is so carefully and scientifically prepared that the neutralization of the ingredients is absolutely perfect. Therefore, Calumet leaves no Rochelle Salts or Alum in the food. It is chemically correct. "For your stomach's sake" use Calumet. For economy's sake buy Calumet.

$1,000.00 given for any substance injurious to health found in Calumet.

Local and Otherwise.

Catching on bobs. Splendid sleighing. Christmas next Wednesday. Harry Thaw's trial is set for Jan. 6. Calendars for 1908 are being hung up.

Leap year 1908. Here's your chance-girls. Yale stores are all dressed in holiday attire.

We wish all our readers a most merry Christmas.

The schools close today for a two weeks' vacation.

Regular meeting of Yale Chapter, O. E. S., next week Wednesday evening.

Get in on the Expositor's paid up subscription list before the New Year.

A marriage license has been issued to Henry Taft, of Algonac, and Hettie Carless, Yale.

Knapp & Minnie made another large shipment of poultry on Thursday to Eastern markets.

Wm. Owens and wife instead of coming to Yale will spend the winter in New York State.

The sleighing this week is excellent. Perfect Yule tide weather. We hope it continues for a time.

The Epworth League subject for Sunday evening is Christmas. Miss Mina Montney leads. Come.

If you want to know just where to spend your holiday money properly read the advertising columns of The Expositor.

Don't economize by not taking your home paper. You're not saving enough. Deprive yourself of something that costs more.

Owing to the extra amount of advertising this week, we find it impossible to give our readers the usual amount of reading matter.

We might mention just as a hint to some liberal hearted subscriber to the Expositor that we haven't bought our Christmas turkey yet.

John Robertson, treasurer of Greenwood township, will be at Pharis's store Fargo, Monday, Dec. 23, for the purpose of collecting taxes.

We are glad to be able to say that Charlie Wells is doing very nicely after his attack of appendicitis and it is hoped he will soon be around again.

A piano has been added to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Boudway on Mechanic street. It is a very acceptable Christmas gift to the family.

The Thumb of Michigan has been taken into winter quarters and we are now enjoying splendid winter weather with a fine bunch of snow thrown in.

Henry Pearce has been suffering for the past two or three weeks with a very lame leg which he injured while at work at the post office. The Dr. thinks the ligament of the leg were strained.

Dick Windsor was taken with a severe pain in his back Monday morning while shovelling snow and was compelled to remain at home for a couple of days. He is back to work in the barber shop. It is very seldom that Dick has a holiday.

At the special meeting of the O. E. S. Wednesday evening Nels Heard, Robert Reid and Bruce Lothian were initiated into the Order. A social time was enjoyed after the business meeting and refreshments were served.

Anxious friends were very much relieved and pleased when a turn for the better came in the serious illness of Mrs. J. E. Beavis. Each day now there is a little improvement which all hope will continue and that she will quickly regain her health and strength.

Will Stark is around Friday morning with his face covered with smiles. Cause—a nice fur robe presented him by his patrons on route 7. Will wants us to tender his heartfelt thanks to the people for their act of kindness and wishes them all the joys of Yule-tide.

Sheppard Stanley, living 3 1/2 miles north of Yale or three miles east and 1/2 mile south of Melvin, will dispose of a quantity of farm stock and implements by public auction at the premises next Monday, Dec. 23rd. Sale commences at one o'clock p. m. sharp. George Clayton, auctioneer.

A New Year's Ball and Supper will be given at Webb's Hall, Avoca, on Tuesday evening, Dec. 31, 1907. The best of music will be furnished by Carnegie's Orchestra of Yale. Supper will be served at the Avoca House by Middleton & Zinzo. A general invitation is extended to everybody to attend and have a good time. Bill only $1.00.

Tuesday's Port Huron Daily Times contains a notice of the death of Donald MacDonald, of Strathroy, whom many of our young people will remember as having spent some weeks visiting at the Rapley home in Yale and with the Hayes family to whom she was related, a few years since. Miss MacDonald was only nineteen years of age and died of consumption at the home of her uncle in Strathroy, both parents having been dead a number of years.

WILL RETIRE FROM BUSINESS.

After due consideration, and a business life of nearly 32 years, I have decided to go out of the mercantile business, and with this in view will offer my entire stock of goods to the public at reduced prices, giving to you the benefit rather than giving it to my successor in business.

You know our business methods. All our goods are marked in plain figures. These figures will remain unchanged, and a discount of from 10 to 35 percent will be given you. This sale will be an honest square deal in every respect.

We have a large stock of choice suits and overcoats for men, boys and children. Our stock of underwear and gents' furnishings is large and complete. Fur coats for ladies and gentlemen. Now is your time to buy W. L. Douglas shoes and Lambertville rubbers. These goods are seldom sold at reduced prices, but we reserve nothing.

We have a large assortment of mitts, gloves, hats, caps, mufflers, suit cases, woolen shirts, raincoats, working jackets, sox, in fact everything you would naturally look for in a clothing store. You can save money on every purchase.

Call and be convinced at Yale Clothing House,
J. C. Holden, Prop.

The young ladies of the N. M. A. were pleasantly entertained at Miss Mathews' home last Friday evening. The Misses Brotherton and Davidson will entertain this (Friday) evening.

Rev. E. R. Worrell, D. D., associate secretary of the general assembly's committee on temperance of the Presbyterian church, will preach in Yale Presbyterian church next Sunday. In the morning he will speak on temperance. In the evening he will deliver a sermon appropriate to Christmas.

"The Missouri Girl" company which held the boards at Central Hall last evening was fairly well patronized. The show was not as good as expected and had it not been for the characters "Zeke" and "Daisy" there would not have been much to it. These two people took their parts well and their funny sayings called forth rounds of applause in every act.

Call in and Settle Soon. I have placed the accounts due the Newell Furniture Co. in the hands of the First National Bank for collection. Please call at the earliest possible moment and settle same.

Light pair of bobs for sale cheap. Call at Reid Bros. livery. 35—Harold Jarvis, Detroit's great singer, will appear for a second time in Yale, January 8, 1908.
