BANK TALKS

To Those Who Have No Bank Connections:—

You cannot accomplish much in a business way without the aid of a bank. And when it comes to the question of whether or not you should have some bank connections, there is only one answer. Any business will derive some benefit from a bank's service.

A bank is not a luxury for the rich man; that idea is fast disappearing. The people from all classes are beginning to recognize the importance of a bank connection.

The bank helps the small boy to save, and the interest paid increases his savings; the farmer is afforded great convenience by the checking account. Every individual is aided by one or more of the bank's departments, just as demands require.

Wm. H. LEARMONT, Cashier.

By the YALE STATE BANK,
Yale, Michigan.

The service that a bank gives to its customers places within their reach every advantage to carry on financial matters easily.

Many persons are timid about opening a bank account because they think their knowledge of banking is limited or perhaps they consider their amount of money too small.

To any such persons, we wish to say that the opening of a bank account is very easy; we explain all details and make it simple for you. We also encourage all who have small sums to open an account. We furnish a pass book and checks, and necessary instruction. Even though you are not ready to open an account, call at the bank and talk it over with us.

A PLEASANT GATHERING

St. Clair County Association Order Eastern Star Meets in Capac.

Fourteen members of Yale Chapter O. E. S. attended the St. Clair County Association held in Capac Friday, Feb. 26th. A delightful lunch was served at noon by Capac Chapter.

All chapters of St. Clair county association was well represented, besides a good many members from chapters of other counties.

The work was beautifully exemplified in the afternoon by officers selected from the different chapters. Worthy Patron W. A. Cavanagh and Electa Mrs. Chas. Rounds from Yale Chapter also the other officers deserve much credit.

At six o'clock an elaborate banquet was held at Hotel Palmer. Noble Hunter editor of the Capac Journal presided as toastmaster and toasts were responded to by the following:—

Maybe I Was.

When I see a youth with his pants turned up and his beautiful socks on view And over one eye perched a little round hat, with a ribbon of mauve or blue, And the fourteen rings and seven pins that he got at the dear girl's feet, I say, "Oh, Lord, I was I ever that big a fool?"

When I see a youth with his gloves turned down and a cigarette stuck in his face And a loud check coat and a horse-cloth vest and a half an inch wide shoe lace, And a bunch of hair that hides his ear, and a line of senseless drool, Then I paw the award, as I say, "Oh Lord, I was I ever that big a fool?"

High School Lecture Course.

The Bostonia Trio, one of the best small musical companies on the road, will appear, for the first time in Yale, on the evening of March 12th.

The entertainment will be of a high order and while with its variety it is bound to please all, yet our most fastidious music lovers will be delighted as each of the Trio is an artist.

"The musical excellence and exceptional variety of the program of this organization is the product of the varied talents, thorough culture, wide experience and long concerted work of its members. Violin, piano, soprano and baritone in solos instrumental and vocal, duets, trios and quartette ensemble, inimitable child impersonations a short comedy sketch, scenes from operas and a grand finale of piano, voices and violin, make up a brilliant and popular program of greater variety and merit than is usually given by a larger company.

Winifred Townsend is one of Chicago's most artistic violinists. After having studied with America's best teachers winning the College Gold Medal under Bernhard Listemann, Miss Townsend went abroad where she became a pupil of Geiselo, the great Spanish-French violinist, who praised her ability in highest terms. While in Paris Miss Townsend played with great success at the "Atelier reuniones" where solo artists appear weekly, and since her return to America has had most gratifying success in all her recitals and concert tours.

Miss Fannie Townsend, the talented soprano and reader, has one of those rare voices which though high and clear has a mellow, sympathetic quality usually heard only in a low voice. One of her vocal teachers, a pupil of the great Marchesi, said of her voice "that it had the most beautiful quality she had ever heard." Both Miss Townsend's songs and readings are always received with the greatest enthusiasm, and her numbers give to the program the variety of a quartette company instead of a trio.

Mr. Ralph Walker always delights the audience with his rich, powerful voice and fine interpretation of the composers. In addition to the splendid vocal training he received in St. Louis, he also became one of the fine organists of that city. Mr. Walker has also composed many beautiful songs.

The reserved seats will be on sale next Monday evening March 8th, at 7 o'clock, at Pollock and Hennessy's.

N. J. Drouyor.
