Summer is a season of wearing out. All the vital forces are weakened by the heat. Any lurking tendency to disease may seize the opportunity.

Better give nature a little help and put the system in good condition for warm weather.

BARNEY KILLED

The Faithful Old Horse Used on T. G. Holden & Son's Delivery Cart For So Long, Is No More.

That we have not a death to record this week in the accident which hap-pened Thursday forenoon seems a little less than a miracle. Elmer Boadway, Byear old boy of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Boadway, who had been allowed to drive "Barney," T. G. Holden's delivery horse, was returning from the upper part of the town and was fairly upon the railroad track, crossing Main Street, before he was aware of the work train upon him. The horse was killed out-right, the buggv and boy caught on the pilot and carried along as far as the water tank, when the boy jumped before the train was stopped. He was picked up, dazed and covered with dust, a big bump on his head and an injured ankle, but after examination no bones were found broken and he was taken to his home little the worse for his horrible experience. It was a narrow escape however and Elmer will not care to get in the way of such dan-
