

Distinctive Features of Our Wall Paper Stock

Three distinctive features mark our wall paper for 1911, and we believe that each of them afford a sufficient reason for selecting papers from our stock:

- * 1st—It is most complete and is twice as large as the ordinary stock.
- * 2nd—It affords the widest possible choice. It includes the best patterns.
- * 3rd—Every pattern is of the highest artistic excellence to be had at the price we ask.

We have papers that will appeal to people of every taste, and our prices will certainly appeal very strongly to those who want to buy good papers economically. Come in and see the new papers.

Woman's Advantage

Man's at a disadvantage when he tries to claim attention; He has to rise o'er other men. Who, noting his ascension, With all the cunning that they know Attempt to keep him flying low. For woman there's an easier way And also vastly quicker: In hobble skirts but yesterday She drew the lime lights' flicker. And now she takes another spurt To glory, in a harem skirt.

A galvanized cornice has been placed on the new brick block of Elber & Barth and Henry Welch. The roof is being laid by the only a short time before the buildings will be occupied. Workmen are busy laying a cement walk in front of the block.

Married at Capac, on Friday, May 19, 1911, by Rev. Wallace, Miss Ann B. Cavanaugh and Claude Brown, both of Lynn township. The young couple left on the evening train from Capac for Detroit where they will make their future home. The Expositor offers congratulations.

The first Sunday excursion this season was given by the Pere Marquette May 21st, and was largely attended. Eight coaches were used to carry the crowd. From this point there were 91 tickets sold to Detroit and 33 to Port Huron. Next Sunday an excursion will be given to Saginaw. Fare 95c.

While George Bush and sister, Mrs. Hyde were driving along Main Street, Yale, Sunday evening their horse became frightened at the Pere Marquette train and ran away, upsetting the buggy and throwing them out, breaking Mrs. Hyde's collar bone and doing other damage. Dr. Wight was called and set the fracture.

The Ladies Bible class of the Presbyterian church held a very pleasant social and business meeting at the home of Mrs. Willard Welch on Wednesday. One feature of the business part appreciated and enjoyed by the members was a short speech by Mrs. Bowles. Afterwards raffles and flinch received attention. Mrs. Welch then served ice cream and cake.

Dusty had his hair cut Wednesday. There's nothing unusual about this item but the old man, you know, has only a few straggling locks on the top of his head, and to charge full price for the time it takes to amputate those locks is outrageous. Dusty never tries to jaw any one down on price, although he rather reluctantly handed over the two bits with the remark that even if there is only one lonely spic on the top of one's pate the barber holds his hand out for the full price.

A full supply of Root's beef supplies just received by Cavanaugh Bros. grocers. See Geo. E. Houghtby about painting that house. Estimates given and prices right.

It is unquestionably a good idea to pray for things you want but your faith will be more likely to be rewarded if you follow up your prayer by getting out and hustling for what you want.

The hot days we had last week have been equaled but once and exceeded only twice in 37 years. On Friday last week the temperature reached 82. One year ago the same day the temperature was 75.

Rev. W. H. Cole and wife are spending the week at Capac, where the members of the M. P. church have furnished a home for them. They expect to spend part of the time each week at Yale and Capac.

Beulah Benedict will give a recital in Central Hall, Yale, Friday evening, June 2. Her pupils in instrumental and vocal music will furnish the program. Admission 10c. and 20c. All cordially invited to attend.

The weather has dropped from its dizzy heights and seems to be trying to make amends for all the sweat it caused last week. We wouldn't mind if it kept its moderateness the rest of the summer.

The row of Carolina poplar trees along the south end of Tappan & Law's addition to the city have been razed to the ground and replaced by neat maple trees. It's a pity that more of those ungainly poplars were not removed.

There was a big crowd in the city Saturday evening as is the case now—days at the close of every week. These are busy days for our farmers and Saturday evening is the one time of the week when there is a general influx from the surrounding country to do the necessary trading.

We notice by the Times-Herald that the ice cream dealers of Port Huron have united and raised the price to 10c. per dish. Our dealers are charging only 5c. per dish notwithstanding it costs more to get the cream delivered in Yale. Patrons of the ice cream parlors should appreciate the low price Yale dealers are charging.

The ladies of the M. E. church gathered together in goodly numbers Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harnden, in honor of Mrs. Woodman, their departing member, surprising her completely. Supper was served and a very pleasant time was enjoyed. The ladies presented their honored guest with a handsome brooch.

The annual clinic of the Seventh District Dental Society was held in Port Huron Thursday afternoon and evening last. Beginning at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon at Hotel Harrington, a fine program was carried out, and among the papers we notice one entitled "Splints and Iyorehea," by Alice M. Doering, of our city. The clinic was one of the most successful ever held by the society.

Bryan O'Hara and Victor Clore, the two Sanilac county young men accused of robbing a Southern Pacific overland train, January 2 last, have been exonerated from the crime and the opinion handed down by Judge Murphy was that there was no sufficient cause to believe the men guilty of the offense. The suspense is now over and all the friends and interested ones are rejoicing with the boys.

The following item clipped from the Sanilac Jeffersonian refers to the young man who was so sick with pneumonia for several weeks here in Yale. We are pleased to learn of his progress toward recovery: "John Snelling, jr., was operated on Friday of last week to relieve his lungs from their congested state. A large quantity of matter was removed and it is now expected that his progress toward recovery will be more rapid."
