The mill is equipped with the latest improved machinery, guaranteed to produce the best product possible. Chas. Tunis who was with S. O. Welch & Son, Yale, nine years with the Yale Milling Co. and recently with the Wayne Milling Co. will have charge. Avoca business men and citizens may well feel proud of this industry locating in their midst as it will do a great deal towards bringing trade to their town. Success to the enterprise and its proprietor J. G. Brown.

"Little Jake" (Jacob Seligman), aged 73, a former Saginaw clothing merchant and banker, whose name was at one time a household word in Michigan, despondent from failing health shot and instantly killed himself last Monday in his beautiful home at Silada, Col., which he had just completed and moved into a week previous. Tales are still told here of his picturesque business methods and eccentricities. He built the Majestic building in Detroit, and as he expressed it, had bought and sold "everything under the sun except salt." Little Jake was one-half inch less than four feet tall. He was a member of the Elks and his remains were brought to Saginaw by that order for burial.
