A very cordial welcome to everybody by both minister and people. Come and see! Please note hours and be on time.

Bazaar.

Next week Tuesday and Wednesday, December 10 and 11, you will find Christmas goods for sale at the Presbyterian church. A special attraction will be the Japanese art booth. There will also be a home baking sale and home made candy. Don't fail to patronize the bazaar.

Establish Big Summer Resort.

A. E. Goodson, of Detroit, has just purchased a good sized piece of land in Worth township, with a long frontage on the shore of Lake Huron. He is a brother of Walter H. Goodson, secretary of the Port Huron & Northern railway. The new owner intends to subdivide the property and establish a big summer resort, and with the assistance of an experienced landscape gardener, lay out the property to the best advantage. This is one of the indications that the plans of the P. H. & N. to build the interurban railway from Port Huron to this town are surely going to be carried out—Sanilac County Republican.

Contesting the Will.

The contest over the will of the late Alice O'Leary, which is now being heard by Judge Law in circuit court, is causing more than usual interest. The nieces and nephews of the deceased are making a fight in the courts for the estate, which if they do not win, will be divided up among a number of charitable institutions.

About 15 years ago, Alice and Eliza O'Leary, maiden ladies, moved to Port Huron from their home in Brockway township. Four years ago Eliza O'Leary died, leaving her estate to her sister, Alice. Last spring Alice O'Leary passed away, leaving about $25,000, mostly in personal property.

Vote in Yale.

After the recent election the Expositor neglected to publish the vote cast in Yale on the "amendment of charters of cities and villages" and "woman's suffrage." Although a little late we give it below as furnished in the official canvass by the board of canvassers of the county:

	Amendment	Suffrage
	yes	no
First Ward	72	62
Second Ward	72	49
Third Ward	88	68

The Tom Thumb Wedding.

A well filled house was the result of the announcement of the wedding to come off in Central hall last Friday evening, and a well satisfied audience left at the close of the entertainment.

About sixty children from two to nine years of age, made up the characters of the wedding party.

Margaret Cameron, not yet three years of age made the daintiest of brides, as little Miss Midget, Stablesford only a trifle older, took his part as Tom Thumb, the groom, finely. The maid of honor, bridesmaids, best men, fathers and mothers, grandmas and grandpas, old maid aunts and cousins and other wedding guests, minister and wife and ushers, not one over nine years old and most of them about five or six. With their grown up costumes and manners the little tots captivated the audience.

Miss Wieland, the director of this charming little play, is a most capable young lady and with but two rehearsals fitted the youngsters for their parts as well as though they had had a week's practice.

Proceeds of the evening amounted to $68.00.

Voice Culture.

Mr. George S. MacComb of Port Huron, teacher of voice culture, will be in Yale every Saturday. Pupils desiring to take lessons may leave their names at the Expositor office. Terms reasonable.

Death of John Lothian.

It came as a surprise not only to his family but to his many friends. Death always comes so. However long anticipated, its coming is that of a "thief in the night." In the case of Mr. Lothian the attendant circumstances were doubly saddening for it occurred when Mrs. Lothian was away from home visiting friends in Croswell, their home prior to their removal to Detroit. It came as comes the lightning from a summer sky; and almost in a moment, on the evening before Thanksgiving he "was not for God had taken him."

By birth Mr. Lothian was a Canadian his native town being Simcoe, one of the most beautiful sections of central Ontario. Born October 6th, 1848, he had just passed life's sixty-fourth mile post, and but for the single weakness that took him away—valvular ossification of the heart—he would have been good for a score or more of added years. Many years of Mr. Lothian's life were spent in Brockway whither he came with his parents in early childhood. He was also well known and universal-ly beloved in Ansonia where he spent a number of years. From Ansonia he removed to Croswell some years ago, and thence eight or ten months ago to Detroit where he had hoped to make a permanent home.

A loving wife, four sons and three daughters, as well as a number of brothers and sisters in this city, mourn his loss. The memorial service was conducted on Sabbath afternoon last in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sayles by the Rev. Dr. Hunter of the First Presbyterian church and his body laid at rest in Elmwood cemetery. His many friends love to think of him today as
Sheltered in the shadow
Of the Eternal Throne.
For many courtesies Mr. and Mrs. Sayles as well as Mr. Lothian's family return their sincere thanks.

Still a Mystery.

We have this week received from Edward Newell an explanatory letter concerning the sad death of his son Charlie, also a newspaper clipping giving the funeral services and an "extra" of the Centralia-News-Examiner, the whole of one page being devoted to the foul murder, the substance being about as we published it last week.

"The mystery of Charlie's death will likely not be cleared up soon, but a reward of $1000 and other rewards have been offered by both state and county. If anyone would like to read the particulars concerning the tragedy which has filled the hearts of our former townpeople with grief, the papers will be found on our desk."

Taxes Now Due.

The assessment roll for the state, county and school is now in my hands and I am ready to receive taxes at my residence. Pay your taxes early and save percentage.

JACOB MILLER,
City Treasurer.

The assessment roll for the township of Brockway has been placed in my hands for collection and I may be found at the First National Bank in Yale every Friday and at my home the balance of the time.

Many Cases--Few Failures, Many Cures.

Probably no other ailment has received as much attention from scientists as has Rheumatism. Thousands suffer from Rheumatism where other diseases can claim only hundreds.

It attacks the rich and the poor, the fat and the lean, the young and the old, the robust and the frail, the strong man and the weak woman.

Some cases baffle the skill of the most scientific practitioners. One treatment will cure four cases, and fail utterly on the fifth. No one can honestly promise that any one remedy will cure all cases of Rheumatism. In this store we have calls for and sell scores of remedies for Rheumatism. We have watched results in many cases and because of what we have seen them do we recommend DIKE'S RHEUMATIC COMPOUND for internal treatment and DIKE'S RHEUMATIC LINIMENT for temporary relief for the intense pain. Come here for all Dike Preparations.
