Local and Otherwise.

Rather rainy this week. Roads are muddy again. Only three weeks to Christmas. Did you give thanks last Thursday? Eva J. Black & Co. have a new adv. in this issue.

City, county and state taxes now due and payable.

Presbyterian ladies bazaar next Tuesday and Wednesday.

Lake and river boats are beginning to lay up in winter quarters.

Christmas gifts, home baking and candy at the bazaar next week.

No school from Thursday till Monday last on account of Thanksgiving.

Lute McDonald assisted in Charles Coon's meat market part of last week.

Rev. Chas. Bragg and family are moving into the new parsonage this week.

The report of the liquor dealers of St. Clair county appears on another page of this issue.

Notwithstanding the exceptional good times it is hard sledding to raise the cash to pay taxes.

The Entre-nous club members spent a pleasant evening on Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Paisley.

Many lost and found articles find their way to the original owner through a liner in the Expositor. Try one.

Now is a good time to pay your subscription to the Expositor. You need the paper and we need the money.

A year's subscription to the Expositor sent to some distant friend or relative would be a very appropriate and appreciated Christmas present.

George V. Black, a merchant at Berrie, in Huron county, well known in Yale, was married at Sarnia Nov. 13, to Miss Lillian Lowry, of Sandusky.

Mrs. Jennie Gilbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mann, is in the hospital at Los Angeles. She had been in the mountains for her health several months.

The Sanilac County Republican of Sandusky stated in its last issue that Dr. C. C. Stevens wrenched his right wrist quite badly while working about his barn.

Although a little late in chronicling the birth of a son at the home of Dolph Andrae November 21, we make the announcement this week and offer our congratulations.

Charles Lawrence and family are moving to Crosswell this week. Mr. Lawrence has been meat cutter in Chas. Coon's market for several months and while here made many friends.

Warren Boardway, Jas. Wallace and Joda Secord have returned from their hunting outing near Newberry. It was a very poor season for hunting deer, there being no snow for tracking.

The Orangemen will have an oyster supper in their hall west of Yale on Wednesday evening, Dec. 18. Lots of room for everybody and plenty to eat. Come and bring a friend. Supper 25 cts each.

Eva J. Black & Co. this week moved into their new brick building located just north of Staley & Bricker's. They are now better prepared than ever to attend to their large and ever increasing millinery trade.

Henry Morgan, aged 75 years, an old and highly respected pioneer resident of Lynn township, died Wednesday night. Cause internal hemorrhage. The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock from the Bethel church.

The roads were in such fine condition the past two weeks that H. C. Garrett, driver of the stage between Peck and Yale, has been using his automobile for his daily trips. It is rather unusual for the roads to be so smooth in November.

As the holiday season approaches the following smiling little paragraph seems very appropriate: "Smile awhile and while you smile, others smile, and soon there's mirth and miles of smiles, and life's worth while because you smile."

The annual reunion of the Andrae family was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Beecher on Thanksgiving day. Eighteen sat down to a sumptuous feast of good things and the afternoon was spent in social chat and enjoyment. This occasion is always looked forward to with pleasure.

If you know of anything we don't know and which the public ought to know, if it is worth knowing, don't you know that it is your duty to let us know it, that the people may also know? You may know, but they don't know, unless you let us know the things which you know. That will be good for all the people, don't you know.

The social dancing party given by the young people of Yale Thanksgiving night was a very pleasureable affair and the time was spent tipping the light fantastic toe to the music furnished by Hutton's orchestra. Many of those present remained in bed till a call was turned in for dinner next day on account of remaining up till the wee sma' hours of the morning.

He Got the Wrong License.

"Your license permits you to hunt deer, but it does not permit you to marry a 'dear,'" said the minister to William Reed when the latter presented a hunter's license in place of the regular marriage license. Reed was dumbfounded for some minutes and then asked his bride-to-be, Miss Julia Corlow, to wait until he could hunt up the county clerk and rectify the mistake. The couple were married several hours later in the day after the deer license had been exchanged for a marriage license.—La-peer Press.
