BANKING the BULWARK of BUSINESS

CONSIDER what business would be WITHOUT BANKS. No man should think of starting an enterprise before he arranged to OPEN AN ACCOUNT. HOW DOES HE STAND AT THE BANK? is a question asked at some time about every business man.

A good WORKABLE BANK BALANCE is essential to every successful business man.

Rose-Armstrong Nuptials.

Last Thursday forenoon at half past ten o'clock a quiet wedding ceremony was solemnized by Rev. Chas. Bragg at the M. P. parsonage, Yale, when Margaret E. Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Rose, three miles west of this city, became the bride of Mr. Claude Armstrong. They were accompanied by Mr. John Fisher as best man, and Miss Elizabeth Armstrong as bridesmaid. After the ceremony the company was driven across the country to Capac by automobile, where the bride and groom took the noon train for Flint and Battle Creek, returning to the home of the bride on Monday evening where they were greeted by a company of friends and immediate relatives who had brought with them many useful and beautiful presents. Those present from a distance were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wait of Sandusky, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carson of Port Huron. The evening was spent in pleasant conversation. At 11 o'clock a dainty luncheon was served after which all left for their homes feeling that the evening had been profitably spent. Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong are highly respected young people and all join in wishing them a happy and prosperous life.

A Letter From The West.

Sumas, Wash., April 27, 1914.
Mr. J. A. Menzies
Dear Sir and friend:
I would like to have the address of my paper changed to this place until further notice and if not too much trouble please mail me copies of the two last issues.
Everything is fine here and the weather is certainly great. We had a little thunder shower yesterday, April 26, the second time I have heard it since I came out here.
I took a ride on my bicycle a couple of weeks ago from Sumas to Chilliwack, B. C., up over the hills and it was some fine ride.
With kindest regards to all my friends I remain
Your friend,
A. H. Pratt.

Most Prompt and Effectual Cure for Bad Colds.
When you have a bad cold you want a remedy that will not only give relief, but effect a prompt and permanent cure, a remedy that is pleasant to take, a remedy that contains nothing injurious. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets all these requirements. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions and restores the system to a healthy condition. This remedy has a world wide sale and use, and can always be depended upon. Sold by Grant Holden.
