A Pleasure for the Wife

The woman who does her own baking should enjoy it immensely. Baking is really a pleasure and the source of much satisfaction if the housewife has much confidence in her results. But the excellency of her baking depends almost entirely on the quality of the ingredients which she uses.

"Yale Pride" and "Belle" are milled and blended especially for home use. They are "satisfactory flours" and the wife is sure of inviting bread and pastries when she uses them.

HERE AND THERE.

Croswell needs houses to rent.
Mrs. Martha Jackson has leased and opened a hotel at Deckerville.
Telephone central at Memphis has been moved into Owen's drug store.
Deckerville high school gave the play "Breezy Point" very successfully last week.

The Presbyterian church at Croswell gave a Halloween party for its Sunday school last Saturday evening.

An organization of Boy Scouts has been formed at Croswell, twenty-five boys have enrolled as members.

The Croswell Brick & Tile Co. has made about a million brick this season which are worth from $8 to $10 a thousand.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Matthews of Croswell are moving to Peck. About 75 neighbors and friends gave them a surprise party before they left.

The big grading bee at Peck last week did a mile and a half of road and are still working. Peck people are certainly bound to have the Handy railroad.

It is reported that the Roach Canning Company has decided to move its factory from Lexington to Croswell and will erect a plant on the old flax mill grounds.

The five year old son of Jacob Wanamaker, near Croswell, died last week from the effects of drinking older which had been standing in a tin pail several hours.

The barns and outbuildings on the farm of Frank Wagner near Croswell were destroyed by fire last week with all this year's crops and machinery. Insurance partially covers the loss. The fire is a mystery.

The staff of the Richmond Review has been enlarged by L.C. Harris, editor of the New Haven Advocate, becoming associate editor and advertising manager of the Review and by Walter Fuller, a young man who has decided to enter journalism and who becomes a reporter for his home paper.

The editor of the Marlette Leader is getting a whole lot of fresh air these days by taking trips with the different mail carriers on their routes. The result gives him about two columns of write up for his paper, splendid mention of the farms and country round about and a puff for each individual carrier.

On Monday of last week while Mr. and Mrs. Van den Einde, living northwest of Armada were working in the field, leaving their two children, aged five and two alone in the house, the boy shot his baby sister with the father's gun, left standing in a corner, supposedly empty. The child died in a few minutes, being horribly mutilated by the close charge.

Walter Milbank, a Sandusky farmer, was held up in Detroit at East Lafayette Ave. and Randolph Ave. last Friday evening by two men with a gun and relieved of $20. Sunday while walking on St. Antoine St. he recognized one of the robbers, gave chase, captured him and had him held for trial on a charge of highway robbery.

WHY IT SUCCEEDS

BECAUSE IT'S FOR ONE THING ONLY, AND YALE PEOPLE APPRECIATE THIS.

Nothing can be good for everything. Doing one thing well brings success. Doan's Kidney Pills are for one thing only.

For weak or disordered kidneys. Here is reliable evidence of their worth.

E. S. Dean, prop. of music store, Maple St., Brown City, Mich., says: "I had a great deal of trouble from backache and the secretions from my kidneys were scanty and irregular in passage. I used a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and they gave me relief. I continued their use until I was better in every way. My kidneys were restored to a normal condition and the backache was removed."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Dean had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
