A Pleasure for the Wife

The woman who does her own baking should enjoy it immensely. Baking is really a pleasure and the source of much satisfaction if the housewife has much confidence in her results. But the excellency of her baking depends almost entirely on the quality of the ingredients which she uses.

"Yale Pride" and "Belle"

are milled and blended especially for home use. They are "satisfactory flours" and the wife is sure of inviting bread and pastries when she uses them.

Security Calf Food!

We wish to call your attention to Security Calf Food, a food especially prepared for calves. Young calves require proper food (and just as much so) as young babies require proper food. Security Calf Food is put up to take the place of "Mother's Milk," for young calves, as "Baby Foods" are put up to take the place of "Mother's Milk" for babies.

Security Calf Food replaces the whole milk from the time the calf is three days old and at the cost of less than 2 cents per day. Your calf requires from eight to ten quarts of milk a day. This is worth from 2 to 3 cents a quart and it will cost you from 20 to 30 cents a day to feed your calf with whole milk, while you can raise or fatten your calf on Security Calf Food for less than two cents per day and raise just as good a calf. Security Calf Food does not have to be cooked or bothered with.

We guarantee to refund in cash for every pail or package of Security Calf Food that does not give perfect satisfaction. SECURITY REMEDY CO.

State Veterinary Department.

The following letter is received and as soon as a complete analysis of the ensilage is made the report will be published:—

East Lansing, January 28, 1915
Dr. J. B. Stevens,
Yale, Michigan.

Dear Dr. Stevens:
Your letter, also the package of ensilage, was turned over to me yesterday. Noting your request for an analysis to determine if possible any deleterious effects that might have been occasioned through feeding this ensilage. I must inform you that it will take considerable time. Of late considerable trouble of this kind has come to my attention, and we are making an investigation along just such lines as you request. We will therefore use your ensilage along with other samples and if we arrive at any information we will so inform you.
From your description I believe that you have encountered with a case of forage poisoning, and there is little thus far that has been discovered in the way of relief, mortality usually being pretty high.
In the meantime I beg to remain
Yours very truly
H. P. Lyman, Dean.

Mark Twain Entertainment.

Mr. Charles Husted, the lecturer-eclectic and characterist, who will give an entertainment in Central Hall on Friday evening, Feb. 12, comes from a distinguished family of public men. The paternal family begins with John Hus, the Bohemian reformer and religionist. A number of his relatives were noted on the field of battle, one James Husted distinguishing himself for an act of bravery at Waterloo under Wellington. His grandfather was a noted labor leader in England. Others in the family have been Members of Parliament, Congressmen, Jurists, Educators and Authors. His father, Rev. J. T. Husted of Grand Rapids, is one of the best known Congregational clergymen in the middle west.

The maternal family is connected with the aristocracy of Europe. His mother is the first cousin of the late Baron Springer of Sweden, and is related to the ruling houses of England and Holland. Mr. Husted's grandmother was an aunt of the late Samuel Clemens (Mark Twain).
Mr. Husted himself is a full-fledged American, combining the temperamental and public spirit of the paternal side with the artistic and humorous qualities from the maternal side. He is very broad-minded, a clean-cut thinker and a forcible and entertaining speaker.

It has been said of him that "Mark Twain cast down upon him his mantle—because he was to be his successor." As a Chautauque attraction, Mr. Husted is classed with the best. As a characterist he has received the best of training, having been associated with many of the leading dramatic artists in this country.
This entertainment is to be given in the interests of the Public schools and we are assured of something away above the ordinary. It is filled with sparkling wit and humor and is bound to make you feel better. Come out and enjoy an evening with Mark Twain and us. Usual prices. Reserved seats on sale Monday evening at seven at Herb's.

Auction Sale.

Home, Sweet Home....

Are you thinking of buying a home in Yale this season? If so, it will pay you to see me about one. My business is contracting and building. At present I have some very desirable bargains to offer in newly built residences. Very attractive and strictly up-to-date. Can sell on reasonable terms and the price is right. Give me a chance to figure on that new building of any kind you expect to erect this spring or summer. Now is the time to talk it over. Come and inspect my work, both in building and drawing your plans, then let me explain to you my system of contracting, assuring you of a square deal.
