

For the Farm and Home..

Cold, wintry weather calls for many Drug Store items such as Household Remedies, Recipes and Prescriptions needed in home. Others are Stock Food, Poultry Food, and many remedies along that line. We enjoy a nice trade from the farmers in this vicinity, because we always provide them with reliable goods at right prices. We solicit the trade of all the people in this territory. If it isn't convenient to call in, just telephone or mail your order.

Phone Promptness

WE'RE live wire butchers. We help you save time. If you have a phone use it to order your meat supplies. You'll find we are exact on this end of the wire. Phone orders are carefully received and as carefully put up as though you stood right by us. Some butchers don't want to be bothered with orders over the wire. They say it's too much trouble, and mistakes occur too often. But you heard us say we're live wires, didn't you?

Local and Otherwise.

Colds are prevalent. Lent starts February 17. He sure and hea: Husted. If you don't know how to laugh Husted will teach you. Fred T. Palmer is in Chicago this week on business. Burnell Wight was home from Alma College over Sunday. Helen Bradford was home from Alma College over Sunday. W. H. Learmont has been at Posen this week on business. Mrs. Rufus Remington's condition of health remains unchanged. Mrs. V. A. Lacy entertained a dinner party last Thursday evening. Mrs. E. H. Drake does not gain in health and strength very fast. Mrs. H. A. Sawyer, who has been sick for a long time, does not improve. T. D. Nichol, of Strathroy, Ont., is in Yale on a visit to his many friends. Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Herbert were Detroit visitors Monday and Tuesday. Meta McDonald of Brown City visited young friends in Yale over Sunday. Rev. Chas. Bragg will not go to Flint to assist in revival services until next week. A. E. Jackson was over from Capac on Wednesday. Ab reports a good hotel business. Ruth Menzies left Thursday morning for a visit in Detroit, Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor. Saturday morning last the thermometer at the high school registered 12 degrees below zero. Geo. W. Gardner and wife have returned from a visit to friends and relatives in Ontario. James B. Blackford, who has spent the past couple of months in California, returned home the past week. After you have heard Husted's "Mark Twain" you can read his writings and appreciate them more. Mrs. James Wallace and Rada Rapley were called to Strathroy this week on account of the illness of a relative. Mrs. John Bright has been quite sick with a severe cold for the past two or three weeks. She is much better now. Jason Clark and father-in-law of Saginaw were in Yale the first of the week calling on relatives and friends. A sleighload of young people drove out to Wm. McIntyre's Roseburg Tuesday evening, and enjoyed a very pleasant time. Mrs. L. H. Leslie and child left for Grand Rapids last week where her husband has a position and they will make their home. Lafe Stoner of Detroit was in Yale today on his way to Sandusky to see his child who is sick at the home of its grandparents. No school in any of the grades of our public schools the rest of the week on account of the teachers attending the institute at Port Huron. Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Youngs on Saturday, January 23, 1915, at Marine City, a daughter. Mrs. Youngs will be remembered as Hazel Moore. Will Sayles was the lucky person to have his picture shown on the canvas at Princess Theatre and being present received one dollar. Who next? J. I. Rosenthal expects to go to California either Saturday this week or the first of next week where he will spend a few weeks attending the exposition. Freddie Holden and Mayme Currier went to Detroit today to hear the three stars, William Gillette, Blanche Bates and Marie Dorin in the play "Diplomacy" at the Detroit. A dance and oyster supper will be given in Brinkman Hall, Avoca, Friday evening, February 12, to which the public is cordially invited. Music by McKanlass. Bill $1.50. We learn that Mrs. Stephen Curvin, of Crosswell, whose home was formerly in Yale, was taken to the Port Huron hospital last week where she underwent an operation, performed for cancer of the nose. Harvey Middleton, while splitting wood the first of the week, cut his foot quite badly, the axe glancing from the stick of wood and imbedding deeply into his instep. He will be laid up for some time. Oscar Williamson and Vera Land were married this (Thursday) afternoon at Yale by Rev. Lester Clark. They were supported by Curtis Todd and Mamie Todd. The Expositor extends congratulations. The Detroit Tribune has been merged with the News and discontinued. Those who subscribed for the Tribune will get the News instead. The News is a first-class daily paper and you will not be disappointed in the change. The W. W. B. C. met at the home of Mabel Martin on Monday evening, Feb. 1, for the purpose of electing officers: President, Mabel Martin; secretary, Dorothy Lane; treasurer, George Bendie; correspondent, E. J. Stetson. Refreshments were then served, after which all went home. Why would it not be a good plan for the Citizens' Improvement Club to give a banquet sometime in the near future? This would excite interest in the organization and no doubt bring about much good. If we remember rightly the one given a few years ago was a decided success. The above is only a suggestion from the Expositor and should be taken for what it is worth. Those who are interested are invited to express themselves. Donald J. Black, of Greenwood township, has circulated his petition and secured sufficient signers to get on the ballot in next spring's election for the nomination of county road commissioner in St. Clair county. Dan is a man who has had many years experience as highway commissioner of his township and his work shows that he knows how to build good roads. This section of the county should be represented on the commission and we know of no better man than our friend from Greenwood.

Richards..... 10 99 Moved by Bricker and supported by Lothian that a four foot cement sidewalk be constructed on the north side of Park avenue from the bridge to the city limits.—Carried. Upon motion council adjourned. Fred T. Palmer, Clerk.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS. (Continued) George McIntyre is in Brown City today on business. Under-Sheriff Windsor of Port Huron was in Yale last week. John Staley and wife were visiting Detroit relatives and friends last week. A Hustedism: "A man who has no laughter in his soul is fit for treasurers, strategems and spoils." A Gleaner dance will be given in McKinney Hall, Old Brockway, Wednesday evening, Feb. 10. McKanlass will furnish the music. Bill including supper $1.00. All cordially invited. Mr. and Mrs. Wm Beers left for California the past week. They will make their home somewhere along the coast. Their son Roy accompanied them as far as Chicago returning home the first of the week. Sunday and Monday were very disagreeable days. Snow the first day turning to rain and then on Monday came freezing cold and blustering weather. Tuesday and Wednesday were much nicer. A sleighload of twenty-five friends and neighbors met at the home of Art Russell Tuesday evening, February 2. The evening was spent in dancing and games. A midnight lunch was served, after which they all went home, well satisfied with the evening's enjoyment. Delegates elected Monday evening to attend the Republican Co. convention at Port Huron tomorrow are:—1st ward, James McColl, Oscar Denison, J. E. Beavis; 2nd ward, E. P. Fead, R. Bruce Lothian, W. F. Ruh; 3rd ward, Thos. U. Wharton, Geo. W. Elston, Leslie Silvertorn. The "Trey O' Hearts" an interesting serial story, will be started in the Expositor next week. On the 18th of February the Princess Theatre will put on films of the "Trey O' Hearts." Be sure and read this story then go to the Princess Theatre and see it shown on canvass. Admission 10c and 15c. Tuesday, Feb. 2, was Candelmas day. It was cloudy and if the bear and ground hog came out they failed to see their shadows in this neck-o'-the-woods. If the old adage comes true the backbone of winter is broken. We may look for a lot more cold weather before the balmy breezes of spring reach this section. Richard W. Passmore has sold his general delivery outfit to Phil Beadle, who will take care of delivering through out the city the goods bought from the different business places. You can depend on him giving you the same prompt service as did his predecessor. Dick will move onto the farm recently purchased by him as soon as the weather will permit.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS. (Continued) M. E. Church Notes W. H. M. S. with Mrs. Sorgatz Tuesday, Feb. 9th, at 2:30 sharp. Good program. Ladies come and become interested in this work. Circle No. 2 is planning for a "War Program" in Central Hall, Feb. 22. Save this date, please. More particulars later. You won't want to miss it. Something different. The ladies had an all-day meeting with Mrs. J. M. Smyth. A potluck dinner, tied comfortable, business session and social time. Sunday school roll of honor for January:—Neil Smith, Helen Harris, Lucille Stevens, Jack Etchells, Elizabeth Smith, Nina Drouyor, Arlene Newell, Winston Smith, Eugene Etchells, Roscoe Martin, Max Harris, Naomi Blackford, Nellie Stevens, Thelma Ingram, Florence Geach, Marie Drouyor, Alex Holden, Edna Stevens, Clara Andreae, Ben Knapp, Isla Evans, Miss Roy, Miss Buck, Miss Harvey, Miss Fogg, N. J. Drouyor, Rev. Geach, Mr. Roy, Mr. Loeey, C. Stevens, Mr. Fogg, Miss Mathews, Mrs. Wm. Palmer. Teachers' conference with Clara Andreae Monday evening postponed on account of the inclement weather. All teachers and those anticipating to teach are wanted at these meetings. The Junior League has elected the following officers:—President—Janette Curtis 1st Vice—Pauline Fead 2nd Vice—Neva Ostrander Treasurer—Allene Learmont Organist—Mildred Ruh Sixteen present last Sunday—nearly every one had their bible. Flax Seed for Sowing We have a limited quantity of flax-seed to give out to farmers for sowing purpose. Any one desiring to grow flax will kindly call at the mill at an early date and secure their seed. The James Livingston Flax Co. Ltd. 44- Paper Day Feb. 19. Collectors will be on all streets. Stack your papers ready. They will appreciate your kindness.
