

For the Farm and Home..

Cold, wintry weather calls for many Drug Store items such as Household Remedies, Recipes and Prescriptions needed in home. Others are Stock Food, Poultry Food, and many remedies along that line. We enjoy a nice trade from the farmers in this vicinity, because we always provide them with reliable goods at right prices. We solicit the trade of all the people in this territory. If it isn't convenient to call in, just telephone or mail your order.

Prepared Meat

Perfection

Of course every butcher has a perfect right to brag about his sausage, bologna, chopped meat and other things of that sort.

He knows very well what's in them, and the buyer doesn't.

We could tell you things about certain kinds of sausage, for instance, that'd fairly bark with interest.

Only safe way is to trade with a reliable butcher—one whom you know will give you a fair deal. Can we serve you?

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Frank Andreae March 3rd.

Art and Pearl Marshall were arrested Monday and taken to the county jail at evening by Deputy Sheriff Chas. Cavanagh. The charge is for stealing grain from J. W. Donaldson, John Dohman, Joe Rose and others, which was sold at Brown City. There was about sixty bushels in all. The young lady pled guilty in court and we are informed that they were let go on good behavior.

A decided improvement has been made to the Yale Bazaar by increasing the floor space eighteen feet, the interior repainted and redecorated and a larger stock of new goods added. Harry Williams is hustler and is giving the purchasing public the best value for their money. Notice his new adv. in this issue of the Expositor and after reading the bargains go to the store and take advantage of them.

The play, "Erin Go Bragh," given by the Emmett Dramatic Club in Central Hall Tuesday evening, Feb. 9th, drew a large crowd. Each character played his or her part well and the drama was interesting and instructive throughout.

Immediately after the play an old-time dancing party was given. Music by McConnell-Gardner five-piece orchestra. Dancing continued until 2:30 next morning and was enjoyed by all.

In a letter from Walter Duquette dated Feb. 3, he writes:—"I saw your adv. in the Expositor so I thought I had better pay up for the Expositor and save you a postage stamp. Enclosed find a one dollar bill. How's everything in the old town? We have had a very mild winter in this part of Montana. Am running camp for the Polly Lumber Co. and being home for a few days thought I would take advantage of the opportunity and send enclosed dollar and save you the stamp. Yours as ever."

'American Boy' & 'Menz Ease'

Ask the Man or Boy Wearing a Pair

The Menz-Ease and American Boy are strictly high grade shoes, and a proof of their quality is that we gladly refer you to any man or boy wearing them. As you probably have some personal friends among these many Menz-Ease and American Boy customers of ours, just ask them what they think of the shoes. They'll be glad to tell you, and we have enough confidence in the shoes to feel sure that after getting their opinion you will buy the Menz-Ease or American Boy the next time you need a pair of shoes. Don't be deceived by imitations. The name Menz-Ease or American Boy on the yellow label and sole is your protection against shoes claimed to be "just as good." For styles we carry look at south window or drop in and we will show you.

John Borland is Eighty-Three.

John Borland Sr., pioneer merchant and banker of Imlay City, was eighty-three years old on Saturday, January 30 and a family gathering to celebrate the event was held that evening at the home of his son, John, on Main street. The event became known to the business men of the village, who decided to surprise him and marched in on Mr. Borland fifty strong, to extend their congratulations and respect. Each one as he stepped up to shake hands presented Mr. Borland with a cent. The surprise was complete and Mr. Borland for a moment was quite overcome by his emotions. The self invited guests remained only long enough for a greeting and a shake of the hand and departed, wishing the veteran banker many returns of the day.—Imlay City Times.

CARELESS CORSETING can quickly destroy the charming lines of the most beautiful feminine figure. This is a serious consideration that should dominate every woman's mind. Be careful of your figure and the figure you pay for a corset. In our new JCC models you can now find the exact corset best suited to you, at the price suited to your purse. There are some very attractive new models awaiting your inspection.

MANCHESTER PERCALES are good percales and sold at a fair price. You might buy percales at a small per cent less and perhaps they're Manchesters and perhaps not. Well posted persons purchase Manchesters. Good merchants carry them. We're modest, but we carry Manchesters and sell them at a shilling per yard.

PLAIN COLORED GINGHAMS are here for the forehanded housewife who prefers to get out the early sewing before it's time to plant the sweet peas. A dime a yard does the trick. All colors.

WE'VE TAKEN A WIPE at prices on a lot of odd towels that usually retailed at 25c each and offer you a choice of the lot, and as many as you wish at 16c each. Many of these are good, substantial huck-a-bucks and well worth the earlier price. Now they can be classed in the super bargain list.

OUR BARGAIN TABLE is still conspicuous with its load of low priced merchandise that we wish to dispose of and you ought to be having the benefit of. Why not look it over, pay your money and take your choice. Every article is seasonable now.
