GRANDFATHER VET SPEAKS

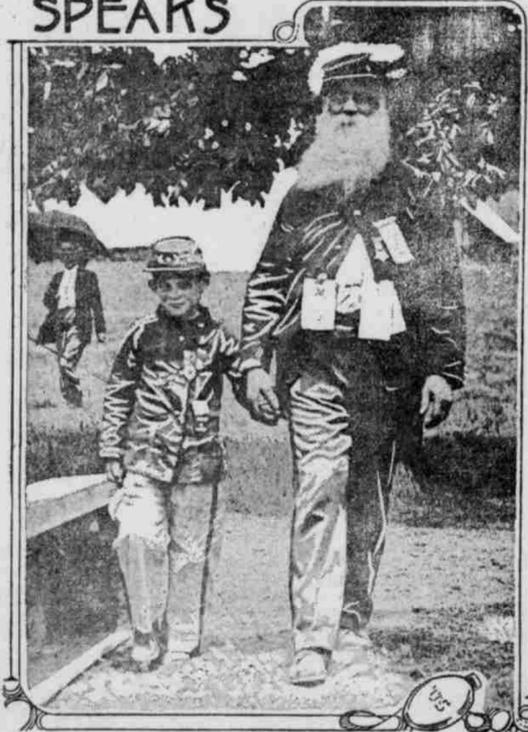

Photo by American Press Association.

My granddad fought in '61,
The year that saw the war begun.
He kept it up till '65
To keep our dear old land alive.
He says to me, "Should danger come,
With whistling fife and roll of drum,
Don't stop to argue 'bout the right,
But answer duty's call and fight!"

Decoration Day Program

Monday, May 31st

Memorial Day will be observed in Yale on Monday next. As usual the school children, together with the Boy Scouts and Sons of Veterans, will march with the Old Soldiers to the cemetery bearing flags and flowers to decorate the graves of the brave men who fought for the saving of our country.

The march will begin in front of the Paisley Hotel on Main Street at 10:00 o'clock, local time. Judge Tappan, who is to be orator of the day, will speak to the veterans at the cemetery as well as in the hall in the afternoon.

Following is the program which will be given in the afternoon at Central Hall, beginning at 1:30 o'clock, local time:—

Invocation.....	Rev. Waldron Geach
Song.....	Second Grade
"The Flag".....	James E. Ryan
Recitation—"Flowers for the Brave".....	Helen Palmer
Recitation—"Memorial Day Flowers".....	Grace Menzies
Recitation—"Dies for the Flag at Last".....	Pauline Fead
Chorus—"Salute the Flag".....	Ten Girls

The Clifford Band, which has been engaged for the day, will lead the march in the morning and at the close of the afternoon program in the hall will lead the crowd to the City Park where the usual game of ball will be played between Emmett and Yale. The High School team is now playing winning ball and lovers of the National game may feel assured of first-class entertainment at the diamond.
