GOOD CLOTHES DEALER

Letter From San Diego

San Diego, Calif., Nov. 19, 1915
Mr. J. A. Menzies,
Yale, Mich.

Dear Sir:—I came here thinking possibly I might stay three months, but after finding the climate so perfectly delightful and all flowers and shrubbery so beautiful, think I will stay right by it here, until spring anyway, not go back where I will see nothing but snow and cold, freezing weather for the next five months, so if you will please send the Expositor to 1108 E. street, San Diego, Calif., until further notice you will greatly oblige me.

Those who fail to see the Exposition here are surely missing a great deal, for it certainly is wonderful. The grounds are so perfectly grand it does not seem possible that they could be made so beautiful in such a short time. Only four years ago where the buildings and grounds now are was one great big canyon covered with nothing but boulders, sage brush and cactus.

I did not intend to write to such a length when I started, so must close. It certainly is a garden of Eden here and it seems as if I was in another world. Yours respectfully,
E. Elizabeth High

Kerosene Oil Test.

Last week the Standard Oil Co. salesman made a burning test of their Perfection kerosene and the oil being shipped here in carload lots. Two lamps were secured and a pint of the Perfection oil placed in one and a pint of the competitor's oil placed in the other. These lamps were set in the show window of the McComber store in full view of passers by. Perfection oil burned 14 hours and 14 minutes, 12 minutes longer than that of the competitor. The wick used with Perfection showed less charring and the chimney was in better condition. It must be remembered that Perfection oil sells at 8 cts. per gallon and the competitors charge 9 1/2 cts. From the test made the oil that sells the cheapest is the best. Walter Smith, agent for the Standard Oil Co. in Yale, is a resident property holder and therefore pays taxes, buys goods of our merchants, and does more than that to build up and make our little city better. Our motto: Trade at home.

The Mennonite meetings held in the Brick Chapel during November closed last week. Considerable interest was taken in the services, and the pastor, F. A. Jones, feels that a lot of good had been brought about.

Dr. J. C. Webster, of Peck, was in Yale, Tuesday, calling on friends. The Dr., since locating in our neighboring town, has earned a very lucrative practice and is enjoying success and prosperity. He is a young man of ability and well liked by a large circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George McIntyre entertained the Entre Nous club at their home Wednesday evening. A beautiful 6:30 turkey dinner was served, after which 500 was played. Mrs. J. B. Paisley won lady's honors and Dr. B. Clynne gentleman's.
