Choir Banquet

The ladies of the Presbyterian church gave a banquet to their choir on Monday evening at six-thirty in the church dining room and the event was one long to be remembered.

Each member of the choir was given the privilege of inviting one guest, and the long table was laid with covers for thirty-four.

The two beautiful bouquets which lent such a charm to the table appointments, were kindly furnished by Mrs. E. R. Beecher. The menu which we give, seemed to find great favor with the guests as their good appetites and fine compliments to the cooks testified.

Roast Chicken Dressing
Mashed Potatoes Gravy
Brown Bread Rolls
Radishes Pickles
Cranberry Sauce
Fruit Salad Wafers
Orange Sherbet Cake
Coffee

After the inner man was satisfied, a program of toasts was given with Rev. E. H. Bradfield as toastmaster, and this feast was enjoyed as much as the preceding one. Mr. Bradfield filled the position as admirably as only he can, and the toasts were responded to excellently.

"The Tenors".....Helen Bradfield
"The Altos".....Charles Palmer

M. P. Church Notes

REV. CHAS. BRAGG, PASTOR
The Cantata, which was given Christmas eve, was well attended and enjoyed by all. Santa Claus was there, his usual jolly old self, and greatly pleased the little folks.

Rev. Herbert Donnenworth, of the Erie Evangelical church will occupy the pulpit in the M. P. church Sunday next.

Rev. and Mrs. Bragg left for Tecumseh Monday morning where they will officiate at a marriage ceremony.

We hope everyone will put forth an extra effort to be at church services and Sunday school next Sunday and start the new year right. A good New Year resolution:—"I will be more faithful to church and Sunday school."

The Ladies' Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. Freeman Thursday afternoon.

The W. W. B. C. are pleased to have Mabel Reddcliffe and Hilton Goheen with them again.

Forty members of our Sunday school have been present every Sunday the past month.

of God." For the evening at 6:30. Subject, "John Knox."

—snow blockade.

study class.

Should have more people attending the Sabbath school and church services

Rev. E. H. Bradfield, Pastor.

Annual J. Hop

The Juniors gave their annual hop on Wednesday evening of this week in Central hall. Great pains and much labor the young people had bestowed upon the decorations and the result was extremely pleasing. Festoons of green and white crepe paper formed a huge canopy for the ceiling and the posts were wound with the same.
Evergreen trees made a nice background on the stage.

The party was not a very large one, due probably to much sickness and many colds in the city and surrounding country, but the Juniors say they cleared expenses with a small margin left, and the otherwise success of the party was assured.

Hutton's orchestra furnished good music for the occasion.

A midnight collation of ice cream and wafers was served.

FOUND—At the 10 cent feed barn,
