OBITUARY.

Be still prepared for death and death or life shall thereby be the sweeter.—Shakespeare.

Mrs. E. F. Law, wife of Judge Law passed away at the family residence, 901 Prospect Place, Port Huron, on Sunday morning, Jan. 23, 1916, following an illness of about ten days with pneumonia.

Miss Clara Boice was born in Grant township, near Jedd, January 4, 1852. On December 7, 1887, she was united in marriage to Eugene F. Law, at Saginaw. At that time Mr. Law was principal of the Yale Public Schools. A little daughter came to brighten their home for a short time, Hildah Mae, who died Nov. 13, 1893, at the age of nearly three years.

Mrs. Law's pride centered in her home, and she was a woman of many fine characteristics and made numerous friends. She was a member of the L. O. T. M. M. and the Eastern Star. A husband; mother, Mrs. Eliza Pace, of Detroit; four brothers, Edgar and Theodore Boice, of Port Huron, Oscar L. and James A., of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. Laura Seachard, of Seattle, Wash., survive her.

The funeral services were held from the home Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. Rev. T. R. McRoberts being the pastor in charge. Interment in Lakeside cemetery.

Yale friends of Judge Law sympathize with him in his sad bereavement.

Mrs. Thomas Thompson died at her home in Melvin on Thursday afternoon January 20, 1916, aged 64 years. The funeral services were held from the Baptist church on Saturday and the burial made in the cemetery nearby.

Deceased's maiden name was Paulina Vankiviar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Vankiviar, now deceased, and resided on a farm north and east of Yale for many years. She was twice married.

Marion Louisa Vaughn died at her home near Roseburg on Friday, Jan. 21st, 1916, at the age of 68 years. Deceased was born at Vienna, Ont., February 22, 1848.

The funeral was held from the home Tuesday afternoon and interment was made in the Fremont cemetery, Rev. Traver officiating.

A husband, two daughters and two sons survive to mourn the loss of a loving wife and kind mother.

Resolutions of Condolence.

WHEREAS, In the death of Alice Jean Drake, another name has been stricken from the membership roll of Yale Chapter No. 64, Order of Eastern Star, and another name added to the roll on the great white book above; another place has been made vacant in our Chapter room and another filled in the House of Our Father, Therefore be it

RESOLVED, That we, as members of this Order, extend our deep sympathy to the family mourning the loss of wife and mother, and that we, bowing in humble submission to His will and with faith in His promises say to them, "All is well." Therefore be it

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of Yale Chapter No. 64, O. E. S., a copy be sent to E. Harvey Drake and family and another be made for publication. Elizabeth Menzies, Euphemia J. Howell, Berenice Fuller.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks in gratitude to the many friends and neighbors who so lovingly rendered assistance to us by unceasing acts of kindness in our sorrow, also for the floral offerings. Though we feel we cannot repay, their kind deeds shall never be forgotten.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. McGrogory and family.

Clubbing Combination.

Clubbing propositions just now seem to be "the vogue" and while we do not like it from a class point of view what can we do when "they are all doing it." We have just gotten a price on a combination that looks as good as any and better than some. The Expositor, The Michigan Farmer, Poultry Success and Home Life at the following low price:

The Expositor, weekly, 1 yr. $1.00
Michigan Farmer, weekly, 1 yr. 50
Poultry Success, monthly, 1 yr. 50
Home Life, monthly, 1 yr. 25

Regular price 2.25
Our price $1.40

How does this proposition look to you? We accept old and new subscriptions. Take advantage of this liberal offer at once as it will last only a limited time.

Notice to Automobile Owners.

You are hereby notified that by the 1st day of February, 1916, every owner of an automobile or motor car must have a license from the state permitting him or her to operate same. This notice is final and shall be observed. A word to the wise is sufficient.

John Henry, city marshal.

SIX-YEAR-OLD HAD CROUP

"I have a little girl six years old who has a good deal of trouble with croup," writes W. E. Curry, Evansville, Ind. "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar, obtaining instant relief for her. My wife and I also use it and will say it is the best cure for a bad cold, cough, throat trouble and croup that I ever saw." H. T. Hennessy, adv.

The High School Tattler

GRADE NOTES

The following pupils of the seventh and eighth grades have been excused from all final examinations because of the high standard of their work:—Berneice Evans, Howard Ruh, Pauline Feard and Max Feard.

Final examinations began Wednesday in the grades.

The 5th grade has the flag this week. Have you seen the artistic border in the sixth grade room? The drawing class designed it.

Four pupils have re-entered the 3rd grade: George Marshall, Burdette Snover, Naomi Lancaster and Daisy Bryce.

Harold Winn, Rosetta Lancaster and Joe Herron, who have been absent from the fourth grade because of sickness, are again in school.

Harvey Hydorn and Rosetta Bryce have the mumps, and are absent from the second grade.

Elsie Hauweghen of the first grade has the measles.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Final examinations are in order.

All the teachers attended the county institute at Port Huron Monday. Mr. Pittingill conducted the meeting and gave two addresses—"Efficiency" and "America First." Dr. Benton of the University of Vermont was speaker of the day. He gave short addresses on "Some Teachers I Have Known," and "The Teacher and the Patron," in the morning. The subject of the afternoon was "Educational Infanticide."

A class in American Literature will be started next semester.

The German II class begin the classic, "Hoher die Kirche," next week.

The Caesar class are ready for Book III.

The ninth graders will begin the study of the Odysey in their work in English next week.

Merle Heath and Van Hydorn have the mumps.

Clark-Brennan Nuptials

Sacred Heart church was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday morning, January 18, 1916, when Miss Rose Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Clark, of Greenwood township, was united in marriage to Albert Brennan, of Kenosha township. Rev. Fr. Melting read mass while Misses Leona Holcomb and Ella McGrettan sang in a pleasing manner, "O Promise Me." The bride was attired in a traveling suit of navy blue, worn with a large black hat and a corsage bouquet of roses. Miss Clara Brennan, sister of the groom as bridesmaid, was also attired in a suit of blue. Miss Brennan wore lilies of the valley. Geo. Clark, brother of the bride, was best man.

Following the ceremony at the church a fine three-course dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents. Only the immediate relatives were present. The gifts received were numerous and beautiful. Among them was a ten dollar gold piece from Fr. Cullinane, of Detroit.

Following a two-weeks' wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Brennan will be at home to their friends in Kenosha township where the groom has a home in readiness.

Birthday Gathering

A very pleasant evening was enjoyed Tuesday, January 25th, 1916, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mitchell, 2 1/2 miles north and 1/4 mile east of Yale, the occasion being Mrs. Mitchell's 72d birthday. She had a beautiful cake with 72 candles on it and her age in gilt letters hung above the cake. The evening was spent in visiting and playing games. The guests departed for the several homes in the early morning, all reporting a good time and wishing their host many more happy birthdays.

Annual Meeting Held

The twentieth annual meeting of the Michigan Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Company of St. Clair and Sanilac counties was held at the head office in Yale on Wednesday of this week.

The auditors' annual report shows a nice business for the past year with fewer losses than the previous year.

Below we publish the newly elected officers:—

President—Thomas Grimes, Yale
Secretary—Norman B. Herbert, Yale
Treasurer—Wm. Hodgins, Yale
Directors—3 years, Elmore Putney, Sandusky; T. E. Pringle, Evergreen. 2 years, Daniel Foley, Emmett; Edward Harris, Fremont. 1 year, T. F. Ryan.

The auditor's annual report will be published in next week's Expositor.

For Township Treasurer.

I desire to announce to the electors of Brockway township that I will be a candidate for the nomination of township treasurer at the caucus of the Republicans the coming spring. Many of my friends have urged me to get into the race, and I solicit the support of all who can assist me in securing the nomination. Your help will be appreciated.

Respectfully yours,
John W. Donaldson

Work of County Agriculturist

The most important event in the affairs of last week was the meeting at this office on Monday for the purpose of completing the organization of the Cow Testing Association. Officers were elected, the route for the tester planned and business matters of the association arranged. Nearly all of the members were present and all were very enthusiastic over the work and anxious to get it started at an early date. It was voted to name the organization the St. Clair County Cow Testing Association No. 1. Lester Cole of Jedd was elected president and Charles Babcock of Port Huron, secretary and treasurer. Mr. H. B. Hale of Caledonia, Mich., was employed as tester for the first year, beginning February 1st.

Four days of the week were occupied in assisting with the farmers' one-week school at New Haven for the Agricultural College. A limited amount of school and institute work is occasionally required by the State of a County Agent outside of his own county, and these four days at New Haven together with one day at Crosswell February 7th probably constitute the greater portion of the outside work done this year.

Up to the present time it has been possible to arrange for only one of these schools in St. Clair county. This will be held at the Gleasons' hall in China township from Jan. 31st to Feb. 4th. The three lines of work taken up will be dairying, farm crops and home economics. Mr. B. P. Robinson, Saginaw County Agent, will assist in the work in farm crops, and Miss Paulina Raven, extension lecturer for the Agricultural College at East Lansing, will conduct the work in home economics. A number of interesting booklets entitled "The Tree Planter's Guide," have been received from the Michigan Agricultural College for free distribution, and the same can be had by applying at this office.

The St. Clair County Farmers' Federation has decided to hold another series of farmers' institutes during the week beginning February 14th. It is planned to call these meetings at places that were not reached by the institutes held during the early part of this month, and the dates and programs will be announced in the near future.
C. L. Brody, County Agent.
