Junior Play At Central Hall On Friday evening, April 28. All cordially invited to attend.

Easter Sunday next. Plenty of rain again this week. Coal man's innings are out, ice man next. We had a rain nearly every day last week.

Watch for the new millinery next Sunday. Harry Williams has been quite sick this week.

Eldon Martin and wife were in Port Huron Tuesday. A good shower last Sunday afternoon. Caught many out.

Shut up your chickens or your neighbor will shut them up for you. Fred J. Chamberlain, of Jeddo, was in Yale Tuesday calling on friends.

Horse bills and cards printed correctly and promptly at the Expositor office. Mrs. Helen Reid is home from a visit to Port Huron friends and relatives.

Cold west winds prevailed the first of the week, reminding one of fall weather.

The grass on the lawns around the city is quite green and will be ready to cut soon.

Mrs. F. D. Mathews entertained her mother, Mrs. Rooney, of Brown City, over Sunday.

Edgar Barr, who has been in Detroit for some time, has returned to his home in Yale.

Supervisor Shutt, of Lynn township, was in Yale Monday morning on his way to Port Huron.

Dr. Judson Black, of Richmond, secretary of the State Veterinary Board, was in Yale last Friday.

Norman A. Bryce, of Deckerville, was here the first of the week on a visit to his mother and brother.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Merrill of Brockway township, on Sunday, April 16th, a daughter. Congratulations.

E. H. Drake returned from Lutz, Florida, Tuesday night. He has fished up considerably and looks hale and hearty.

Jas. Cogley has traded his house and lot on Second street, Yale, to John Gardner for his 80-acre farm in Speaker township.

Rev. E. H. Bradfield went to Battle Creek Tuesday to attend the Synod Home Mission meeting held in that city Wednesday.

Bert Jardine and wife will start Monday next for Los Angeles, Calif., reaching Yale on Friday. They expect to stop over at Chicago one day.

Mrs. Jas. Cogley has been at Kalamazoo the past week attending the golden wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McHugh.

J. F. Crye's sale at the Great Northern hotel last Saturday proved to be very successful. A large crowd of people present and everything went well.

In a letter from Chas. H. Tunis of Clinton he instructs us to change the address on his Expositor to Hedford, Mich., where he has a position as clerk in the Burns hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Maloney, of Detroit, will celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding on Saturday, April 22. Here's wishing them twenty-five years more of happy, prosperous wedded life.

H. J. Downer and wife, of Bay City, brother of Mrs. L. B. Presley, and sister Mrs. C. B. Lindsay, of Owosso, have returned home after being called here on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Presley. She is some better at present.

Benjamin Evans is now staying at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Knapp, north of Yale. Although quite strong physically, his memory is becoming faulty, and as he seems perfectly contented in his new home, it is likely that he will end his days there.

The following delegates were elected at the Republican ward caucuses held Saturday evening last to attend the county convention in Port Huron on Tuesday of this week:—1st ward, N. B. Herbert, A. Windsor and Henry E. Welch; 2d ward, J. A. Menzies, E. F. Fead and George McIntyre; 3d ward, Thos. U. Wharton, Ed Sheehy and John Bright.

Word was received in Yale Monday of the death of John Brink, a well known resident of Capac. He was stricken with apoplexy that morning and died shortly after. He was born in Lynn township in 1847 and had served in the civil war. He was prominent in business and political circles of Capac and the county. Mr. Brink is survived by one son, Allie Brink, and two grandchildren. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon. Interment in Capac cemetery.

Edward Andreae, president of our business men's association, called together a few of Yale's citizens on Wednesday evening and talked over plans of procedure in soliciting the bonus and rights of way for the electric railway. No definite conclusion was arrived at, only that a mass meeting of the farmers and citizens of Yale be called for Tuesday evening next in Central Hall at 7:30 when J. H. Alledyce and others would be present. At that time there will be some action taken.

Several from Yale are attending the Seventh District Republican Convention at Port Huron today, also staying to hear ex-president William H. Taft speak on "World Relationships," at the Majestic theatre in the evening.

Special services at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning. The ordination and installation of Elders and the communion. Union services with the Methodist Episcopal church in the evening. Sacred concert.

We neglected to mention last week that Principal Albert Reynolds had been obliged to give up his position in our schools on account of ill health. His place is being filled by Frank Main, a Mt. Pleasant Normal graduate.

Friends of Will Ruh were sorry to learn that on Sunday he received a telegram announcing the sudden death of his mother in St. Paul, Minn. Mr. Ruh left Monday morning for Bloomington, Ill., to attend the funeral services.

The ladies of Mechanic St. church of Christ gave a supper in the little building just south of Windsor's barber shop last Friday evening which proved a success in every way. Plenty of provisions were provided and all who partook of the meal were more than pleased with the goodness of it.

Several intimate friends of Sue Evans planned a little gathering in her honor at the home of Mrs. N. E. Herbert on Tuesday evening. A pot luck supper was had and a very pleasant time enjoyed. The gathering was in the nature of a surprise and also an expression of good will towards Miss Evans, who left on Wednesday evening for Orange, N. J., where she expects to again take up her profession of nursing.
