YALE, St. Clair County, Mich., THURSDAY, June 22, 1916

$1.00 Per Year, In Advance

SYSTEMATIZE your household expenses by opening a bank account for your wife. Give her a check book and teach her the use of it. Pay the butcher, the grocer, the baker, with a check. Then at the end of the month you'll find out just how much it costs you to run the home. When payment by check is made there never is any doubt as to whether or not a bill is paid. The check is a receipt.

Besides, a checking account will give your wife a business education. The number of ordinarily bright women who know absolutely nothing of banking is surprising. If you are a husband, father, brother, you cannot tell when death may overtake you, and it is well that your wife, daughter and sister know something of banking.

MAKE UP YOUR MIND TODAY TO GIVE YOUR WIFE A CHECK BOOK.

OBITUARY.

Be still prepared for death and death or life shall thereby be the sweeter.—Shakespeare.

The many friends of George Little were sorry to learn of his death, which occurred at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at his home in Speaker township, 2 1/2 miles north of Yale. Death came after an illness of about eight weeks duration. Following an attack of lagrippe came a fever, and gangrene set in in one of his feet. On June 1st, in the hope of prolonging his life, one of his legs was amputated, but his long sickness had affected his heart and he never fully rallied from the operation.

George R. Little was born on the farm on which he died June 19, 1870, and most of his life was spent in this vicinity. In June, 1903, he was married to Miss Edna V. Redcliffe. To this union two children were born, Frank, in Edward, aged 12, and Harry, Laverne, 7 years old.

Besides the wife and sons deceased leaves to mourn four brothers, James R., Riley Center; Frank G., Coburg, Mont.; John W., and Arthur M., Detroit, and six sisters, Mrs. Lizzie Little, Standish; Linda Little, Coburg, Mont.; Mrs. Thos. Moore, Sandusky; Ann Little, Cheboygan; Flora and Josephine Little of Detroit.

Short funeral services will be held from the home at 1:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon, and from there to Mechanic street Church of Christ, Yale, where a funeral sermon will be preached by Eld. Lewis Cady. Interment will be made in Elmwood cemetery.

The many friends in Yale and vicinity join with the Expositor in extending sympathy to the wife, children, sisters and brothers in their hour of bereavement.

The family desires through the columns of this paper to express their gratitude to the many neighbors and friends for their acts of kindness and words of sympathy extended to them during the sickness and after the death of Mr. Little.

Mrs. Joseph Foster, one of the old pioneers of this section, died at the home of her son, George A. Foster at Detroit, Minn., on Tuesday, June 13th, 1916. The body was brought to Yale last Saturday and the funeral held on Sunday afternoon from the M. E. church, Rev. Waldren Geach officiating. Interment in Elmwood cemetery.

Ellen McIntyre was born in Canada 51 years ago. When but a young girl she came with her parents to Michigan and settled in Worth township, Sanilac county. Here she was married to Jos. Foster, 50 years ago and the couple moved on the old homestead 4 miles north and 1 mile east of Yale. To the union were born four boys and one girl, two of whom, Geo. A., of Detroit, Minn., and Mrs. Andrew Paisley, of Chicago, survive.

Since the death of her husband five years ago Mrs. Foster had spent most of her time with her children, the year previous to her death being spent with her son in Minnesota. She had been in failing health for the past year.

Mrs. Foster had a large circle of old friends and acquaintances in and around Yale, all of whom are sorry to learn of her demise, and all join with us in extending sympathy to the bereaved children in their sorrow.

Those from a distance who attended the funeral were Mrs. Arthur Coons, of Detroit, Mich.; Arthur Foster, who is attending the University at Chicago; Benj. Cook, and Mrs. Andrew Paisley, Chicago, and George A. Foster, Detroit, Minn.

Caledonian Day.

The big Scotch day in Yale is an assured thing. The exact date has not been set yet but it will take place the latter part of July, and everyone we have heard mention it seems to think the event will be a red letter day for our little city.

The officers have heard from Duncan McPhail, leader of the Scotch band in Detroit, and have taken up with him the matter of date, terms, etc., and hope to be able to give more definite information next week.

We will have two or three pipers and at least four dancers, and the games will be the best ever pulled off in Yale. In the evening a big Scotch entertainment will be held in Central hall.

Alumni Banquet

The reunion of the Alumni this year, on Friday evening last week, was as always a happy and successful affair. One hundred and thirteen sat down to a feast of good things at the Methodist Episcopal church prepared by the ladies of that church.

The usual program of toasts was dispensed with on this occasion and after the banquet with only an address of welcome by the president, Freda Holden and response by the president of the graduating class, Frank D. Bendie, all adjourned to Princess theatre where a special play was given.

Dispersion Sale.

Geo. A. True, of Armada, has decided to go out of the dairy business and will sell his entire herd of sixty-nine head of cows and young cattle at the farm one-quarter mile north and three-quarters west of Armada on Monday, June 26, 1916, commencing at 11:30 a.m. Free lunch will be served at noon. Terms, one year's time, at 7 percent interest. Jas. M. Haviland, auctioneer. An itemized list will be mailed on application.

Special bargains in men's and boy's suits for the 4th at J. I. Rosenthal's.

Commencement Night.

When the curtain rose at Central hall on Thursday evening last week, the scene disclosed to the crowded room full of interested spectators was very effective. The walls were hung with ribbons of pink and green crepe paper, the class colors, with a bank of heavy greenery at the back and a mass of ferns along the footlights.

The eighteen pretty girl graduates all dressed in white, with the half dozen young men interspersed to make the right balance, sat in two semi-circles. Prof. Drouyor occupied a seat at one end of the row and Prof. McKenny, the speaker of the evening, at the other.

The ladies were introduced by the superintendent in a timely little speech and the audience settled down to listen to the President of Ypsilanti Normal. His subject was "School and Life," and in a clear, plain, concise talk, he evidenced his views in regard to the necessity and value of education and the immense importance it stood for in our life. Prof. McKenny is not a brilliant or flowery speaker, but his fine personality holds his hearers to the last word, and his last word is as good and effective as his first. He was well liked and his address was considered most excellent.

Diplomas were awarded the graduates by Mr. Drouyor in a few well chosen words and with several selections of music by McKenias orchestra. Commencement exercises were over for another year.

Later the floor was cleared and the evening prolonged with dancing until one o'clock.

The commencement exercises of the Eighth Grade graduating class of the Roseburg school was one that will long be remembered by those who had the pleasure of attending.

The exercises were held in the Methodist church, which was crowded to the limit by the many friends and relatives of the Class of '16.

The commencement address was delivered with great eloquence by Rev. J. O. Wood, of Brown City, assisted by Rev. Traver, of Peck. The subject was based on the class motto, "We have left the bay; the ocean lies before us." It was handled ably and well—much valuable advice was given to the graduates which will help them to realize the responsibilities of life and the great opportunities which lie before them.

After the address Anson Dafos, the director, made some very pleasing remarks, commending the graduates and teacher, Miss Wood, for the splendid work accomplished during the year, after which he presented diplomas to Marie Wellman, Bernice Badley, Rosetta Gingrich, Viola Herbert, John Webb and Leila Hinkley.

The colors were pink and white, the color scheme being carried out in all the decorations. The church was beautifully decorated with pink and white crepe paper and pink and white flowers in abundance. The girls were dressed in uniforms, the same being middy blouses and pink ties and carried pink and white carnations, the class flower.

After the presentation of diplomas the entire audience joined in singing our national hymn, "America," and Rev. Traver pronounced a very impressive benediction.

Many were the congratulations and best wishes which the graduates received as they embarked on the ocean of life.

On Thursday the class and teacher met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Wellman and had the class picture taken, after which Mrs. Wellman served lunch. Mrs. Hawley Badley and Mrs. Wood, teacher's mother, were present. The afternoon was enjoyed by all.

Miss Wood and her mother left on Saturday evening for an extended visit in Flint, Lansing, Battle Creek and Detroit.

Suggestions to Auto Drivers.

Marshal Henry requests the Expositor to warn auto drivers to use caution at all times. Speeding on the streets of Yale is prohibited. Auto drivers must have their headlights lighted at night, but the rear light also. Licenses for 1916 must appear in conspicuous places in both front and rear of auto. When you expect to remain in the city for a time, park your machines on an angle to the curb about three feet apart.

By keeping in mind always the suggestions mentioned above will save being brought before a justice of the peace and possibly being compelled to pay a fine.

Yale Expositor.
Dear Friend James—I see by your paper that Yale is to have a Caledonian Day this year. I am very glad to note that you are endeavoring to make it a big success. I have spoken to a number of Scotch people here and they will all drive over, including our townman, Alex McConachie, who has taken a number of prizes for the best dressed Kiltie.

Trusting it will be a big success, I am,
Yours very truly,
Jack Joss.

Work of County Agriculturist

The canning demonstrations that are being held this week, cow testing association affairs, and miscellaneous farm visits claimed attention last week. While considerable rainy weather was experienced, it was possible to get about in six different townships in the western and southern portions of the county. Calls were made at the farms of the following people: A. J. Smith and William Campbell of Lynn township; Albert Tosch, R. E. Cannis, F. A. Fotta, Albert Balden and Henry Fajlas, Mussey; George Beck and Wesley Stringham, Berlin; John Day, Frank Foley and John Judge, Riley; Wesley Boes, William Humphrey, B. J. Smith, E. W. Lewis, Dr. Mudge and the County Farm, Wales township.

An interesting experiment has been located on the farm of B. J. Smith of Wales township. The Botanical Department of the Michigan Agricultural College is carrying out a series of experiments in each of the 12 counties in the state in connection with bean disease work. The plan is to test the value of Early Wonder beans, Idaho-grown Michigan beans, and carefully picked Michigan-grown beans, in the control of bean diseases. Two quarts of seeds of each of these varieties are furnished by the Department and will be planted in the field with the grower's own seed stock surrounding them on two or three sides. Prof. Muncie writes that it is hoped that these experiments will prove (1) the superiority of carefully picked seed from ordinary seed, (2) the value of an early maturing disease escaping variety such as the Early Wonder, (3) that the amount of disease in the field can be materially decreased by using Idaho-grown Michigan seed.

It is also pleasing to know that the Cow Testing Association is gradually spreading over the whole county; and it now has members in each of the following townships: Lynn, Mussey, Berlin, Wales, Kimball, Clyde, Port Gratiot, Grant, Burtchville, Port Huron and St. Clair. The Association was very glad to add the name of Geo. Berk of Berlin township to its list of members last week.

The next meeting of the Association occurs on August 4th, and it would be a splendid plan to hold it on the farm of one of the members. While the County Agent's office is open at all times to such functions, it is believed that a dairy farm will be found to furnish a more satisfactory environment and add immeasurably to the pleasure and profit of the occasion.

C. L. Brody, County Agent

PLAN TO COME

To the Big Fourth of July Celebration at Yale. It Will Be a Hummer

Present indications are that the big celebration to be held at City Park, Yale on July 4th will be a grand success. The committees in charge of affairs are putting forth every effort to make this one of the biggest celebrations ever held in this part of the state. Judge Comand, Rev. Crisman and others will speak. There will be a monster auto parade, athletic sports of all kinds and a real fast ball game. McKenias band of Port Huron will furnish music during the day. Grand display of fireworks in the evening. Complete program next week.

INDIANA MAN'S EXPERIENCE

Great relief was apparent after the first dose of Foley Kidney Pills and in 48 hours all pain left me. Foley Kidney Pills made kidneys active and healthful and stop sleep-disturbing bladder ailments.
