See us today about that account of yours. We do all kinds of banking.

Remember:

It is usually the unexpected that happens. You can never know when your home may require the services of the fire department. Friends can carry out your furniture, but only you can save your papers of value. If you keep them in a safe deposit box in our fire-proof vaults you can know they are safe, not only from fire, but also from theft or loss.

Smith-Fuller Nuptials.

A very pleasant wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Smith at high noon on Saturday, Sept. 15th, 1917, when their daughter Evalyn was united in marriage to Mr. Franklin Fuller by Eld James S. Wood.

The bride was beautifully attired in gold silk taffeta and was attended by Miss Ruth Spring who was dressed in blue silk poplin. The groom was attended by Mr. Allen Smith, brother of the bride. After the marriage ceremony was performed a delicious dinner was served.

The following guests were present—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fuller and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Flynn, of Croswell, Mr. and Mrs. F. Easton, of Emmett, Mr. and Mrs. Shotwell, of Pontiac, Mr. and Mrs. Sess, of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, of Yale, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Campbell, of Avoca, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Gillam, of Fargo, Mrs. Lydia Smith, of Port Huron, Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall, of Fremont, Mrs. Jas. S. Wood, of Brown City.

The bride received many valuable and useful presents. The happy couple left in an appropriately decorated auto for Detroit and other points. Both young people are highly respected and have the best wishes of their many friends.

Congratulations are many and hearty from his Yale friends on his marriage.

Mr. J. A. Menzies,
Yale, Michigan.

Dear Sir:—Please find enclosed P. O. Money Order for $1.50 in payment for another year's subscription to the Expressor.

Crops are only fair on account of the dry season, although they are better than we expected. Potatoes are a good crop. Hay and grain cutting is about done, and threshing will start soon. Some are still in their hay, in fact they cut hay in this country until they have a heavy frost. All wild hay. I do not farm very heavy. Have 20 head of cattle, six horses and twelve sheep, besides pigs and chickens. We milk cows and sell the cream. The price of cream at present is 40c.

We do not want to miss a copy of the Expressor. Although there are many new names since we resided in Yale, yet it still seems like hearing from home to get the Yale paper.

Yours truly,
A. A. Tomlin

Wedding Reception.

A pleasant evening was spent last Thursday, Sept. 13th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Kettlewell, in Speaker township, when a number of relatives and friends assembled to give Elmer Osborne and bride a good time before leaving for their home in Detroit. A dainty supper was served and the bride was the recipient of many valuable and useful presents from her friends.

Mrs. Osborne will be remembered as Miss Hazel Kettlewell and Mr. Osborne is a mechanic in the Ford automobile plant in Detroit. Both are well known and popular young people of Speaker township and the best of good wishes go with them to their new home.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Mr. Drouyor gave an inspiring talk to the High School pupils Thursday morning—the first of the year. He congratulated them upon being in the High school, saying he believed it to be the best place for them.

The rhetorical divisions have been made. Watch for the announcement of the first program.

The American history class studied President Wilson's reply to Pope Benedictus XV this week.

Bertha Clyne and Muriel Will visited High School this week.

Eva Kettlewell has entered High School.

Miss Smith's Ancient History classes enjoyed written lessons this week.

This fine weather makes the students pine to be out of doors.

The students are all admiring the beautiful windows in the new Methodist church.

The Physics class are studying the various motions.

The Chemistry class have commenced laboratory work.

Mr. Sharpe, of Bay City, agent for the American Book Co., visited school last week.

The assignment given in English X was as follows: "Supposing you have all the money you need, write a description of your ideal home."

MY IDEAL HOME

In the north, way up in God's country, where man has not interrupted nature's ways with snorting engines and huge, dingy cities; where nothing breaks the silence but the call of the bird and beast to their mates, and the swish, swish of golden pines as they are caressed by loving breezes; where the fragrance of spruce and hemlock fills the air; there, with Indian Jim, the trapper, the deer, the birds, and the beaver, that built a birch dam across the silver trout stream, for my neighbors, and all the great outdoors for my grounds, stands my ideal home.

It is a cosy bungalow, with a huge stone porch, and a cement walk leading from it to my canoe in the stream. The low, red roof forms a strange contrast to the green background; the green walls peep through the wood-bine creeping over them; and, as the thin, blue smoke curls lazily from the chimney, I deem it indeed a home—Ray Alexander.

Look! Listen! Who is Coming?

It's Baldwin's six-piece orchestra. After having closed a successful season at Weese Beach where, it is said, even the fish came out of the drink to listen to them, I have secured this well known orchestra for Thursday evening, Sept. 27, when we will have another of those good times that makes the old grow younger and sends the young into transports of joy. This is going to be one of those times like you read about and say: "Gee! I wish I had been there." Don't miss it. All cordially invited to attend and all soldiers in uniform and accepted drafted men admitted free. Bill, including refreshments, $1.50. Wm. F. Barr, mgr.

REV. F. L. CRANDELL, Pastor.

"How sweet on a clear Sabbath morning to list to the clear ringing bell." We trust you will be one who will accept the call of the Sabbath morning church bells.

Our pastor will preach from the subject, "The Secret Place." In the evening, "Peter's Shadow" and we can promise the time will be well spent while listening to these discourses.

The young people of the W. W. class spent a very pleasant evening at the home of Lloyd Silverthorn on Thursday last.

The study of the Lord's prayer was resumed at the Thursday evening prayer service. No books on earth will bear the amount of studying that our Bible will, and yet how little time we spend on it. Let us study our scriptures daily. A number of the ladies of the Aid Society contrived a real surprise for Mrs. Green at the home of Mrs. C. Barr on Monday evening. We are sorry to lose Mrs. Green from our society but the best of good wishes go with her to her new home in Capac.

A Good Recommendation

The business man has confidence in the boy or other employee with a bank account. He knows that any one who can save for himself can save for him, and that money saved stands for character.

It does not mean how much you have saved, but the fact that you have shown a determination to do a certain thing; that a savings bank book is in itself a good recommendation.

You can have this kind of a recommendation by coming to the First National Bank and opening an account. One dollar will do to start and you can add more whenever you have it.
