An Apology

American Red Cross—Central Division
180 N. Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill.
March 15, 1918

To the Chairman of the Chapter:—
The attention of all Chapter Chairmen is called to a matter which has caused pain to Catholics, and deep regret to non-Catholic members of the Red Cross. A recent issue of the Red Cross Magazine carried a poem by Kipling in which a reflection was made on the Pope.

The mistake is fully explained in the telegram which is part of this bulletin, and Chapter Chairmen are requested to post this bulletin in the Chapter rooms, and to explain to all who have been grieved by the occurrence that another edition of the Red Cross Magazine will contain a full explanation and apology.

This telegram, from General Manager H. D. Gibson at Washington to Bruce D. Smith, Manager of the Central Division at Chicago, makes clear how the error was made:—

"In the February issue of the Red Cross Magazine there appeared a poem by Rudyard Kipling in which there is an unfortunate reference to the head of the Catholic Church.

"This poem was inserted in the Red Cross Magazine at the last minute by the editors, without having been submitted to Washington. It was regarded purely as a contribution from Kipling, and the editors did not sense the reflection on the Catholic Church which it contained.

"It is a matter of the greatest concern to the War Council and of the American Red Cross that this should have happened, and they regard it as a serious error. The American Red Cross is non-sectarian. Everyone knows the splendid help and co-operation it had had from Catholics everywhere, both in contributions and in active service in its official ranks.

"In view of this spirit it is to be hoped that the Catholics everywhere understand that the appearance of this poem was the result of oversight and error.

"Will you immediately communicate this message to all Red Cross Chapters in your division, with the suggestion that they place it conspicuously in their Chapter rooms; and will you in addition call upon the leading Catholic prelate in your city, showing him this message and explaining that the next issue of the Red Cross Magazine will contain an editorial of sincere regret for the error that has been made."

Bruce D. Smith,
Manager Central Division
Bureau of Development.

Must Buy From Dealers

Port Huron, April 6, 1918
Yale, Expositor.
Yale, Michigan

Gentlemen:—On April 2nd the following telegram was received:—
"E. L. Powers,
Port Huron, Mich.

"By authority delegated to and invested in the Federal Fuel Administration for Michigan, it is hereby ordered and directed that until further notice the Fuel Administration desires that all coal for domestic purposes be sold and distributed through regular retail coal dealers who are entitled to the entire domestic trade in order to make a fair net profit on their business. Give publicity. Signed, W. K. Prudden"

I would appreciate very much if you would have this telegram published in a conspicuous place in your paper and inform your readers that until further orders are received, it must be lived up to.

There is no question but what if the Government regulates the amount of profit a coal dealer can have—which they are now doing—they, in turn, should protect the coal dealer and see that he gets all the business.

Thanking you in advance for giving this your early attention, we wish to remain,
Yours truly,
St. Clair Co. Fuel Administrator
E. L. Powers

Moved To Larger Quarters.

The John H. Holmes Co., of Detroit, Colfield Tire Protector distributors for the State of Michigan, has been compelled to move to larger quarters and are now occupying suite 703-4-5 of the Peter Smith building.

The following interview was published in Sunday's Detroit Free Press:—

"We certainly are very enthusiastic over the prospects of our business," said Mr. Holmes, president of the company. "The people seem to have caught on all at once, that when they install Colfield tire protectors their tire troubles cease, and the drain on their pocketbook is reduced to the minimum.

"Ever since the D. A. D. A. show our business has been steadily increasing and we simply had to have more room to accommodate our enlarged office and sales force. As soon as we explain to a motorist that our protector is made of but one material—firm elastic rubber—and therefore does not chafe the inner tube, that it acts as an insulator and reduces instead of increases heat, and that tire expense is almost cut in half by using our protectors, there is not much else to do but write out an order and the motorist signs it."

Paige-Overland Co., of Port Huron, is the St. Clair county distributor for the Colfield Tire Protector.

"Y" CONFERENCE

The Meeting Held in Yale Friday, Saturday and Sunday Was a Grand Success.

The Y. M. C. A. Conference held in our city last Friday, Saturday and Sunday was an unqualified success, notwithstanding the fact that only forty-three delegates out of the expected seventy-five were present and that some of the listed speakers were unable to come.

Representatives were here from St. Clair, Algonac, Marine City, Port Huron, Memphis, Smith Creek and Capac. They were met at the train by the local Y. M. C. A. and conducted to the Presbyterian church, where a banquet was given by the Presbyterian ladies, eighty-seven men and boys being served, tickets having been sold to the business men to make out a required number. After the meal, John Cawood of Brown City acting as toastmaster, several speakers were introduced, and all spoke on topics of interest, the text of the conference being from the Bible quotation, "He that loseth his life for My sake and the Gospel's shall find it."

Dr. R. R. Bryan, of Lapeer, who was to have given the conference sermon on Sunday evening, gave his address on this Friday evening, considering three points or conservation, food, money and lives.

Harry L. Campbell, our soldier boy home on a furlough, gave a very interesting talk and showed something of what a soldier's program for a day consisted of, also explaining the meaning of many phrases used in army life.

Other good speakers were Mr. Moore, of St. Clair, Mr. May, of Saginaw, Ross Fox, of Port Huron, and Mr. Cawood.

The big meeting of the Conference was held Sunday evening at the Methodist Episcopal church, which was open to the public and the church was well filled.

Walter H. Witt, of Brown City, was the speaker of the evening and he gave a remarkably strong talk of the Y. M. C. A. in war work. His enthusiasm and feeling are almost without bounds and he thoroughly impressed his audience. He praised the Y. M. C. A. as the only organization prepared for the great work and put forth an earnest plea for the loyal support of the county organization that more men could be developed along this line for the work.

A splendid union choir furnished good music throughout the evening which was greatly enjoyed.

Acting upon the plea of Mr. Witt for the support of the Y. M. C. A., a campaign was made among the business men on Monday to raise $30,000, and the following liberally contributed with promises of others to follow:—C. S. Cochrane, Alex Pollock, L. R. Fuller, Edward Andree, W. G. Wight, E. F. Fead, F. W. Andree, W. H. Learmont, T. U. Wharton, Grant Holden, John Holden, C. H. Palmer, Jno. Hutton, H. T. Hennessy, F. D. Mathews, H. E. Beard, C. E. Richards, Fred Taylor, V. A. Lacy, W. V. Andree, Walter Andree, Emerson Cooper. The total amount already pledged is $320.

The total receipts of the conference registration fees and the banquet charge to the business men amounted to $79.25, more than enough to defray expenses.

Change in Business

The plumbing and tin-smithing business conducted by John H. Mathews in the Bowles building, corner of Main and North streets since last October, was this week purchased by Edward Toft, who has been in the employ of the former.

Mr. Toft is a first class plumber and tin-smith and the former patrons of this establishment may feel assured that their needs will be taken care of properly. The stock will be kept up as heretofore and all jobs will be looked after promptly.

Mr. Mathews does not know what he will go at just now, but whatever business he may go into, the best wishes of a large number of friends go with him.

Dissolved Partnership

The elevator firm of Middleton & Doelle was dissolved by mutual consent during the past week. The firm held interests in the elevator at Peck and a 1/2 acre farm one mile south and one and a quarter mile west of Yale. Mr. Middleton takes over the interest in the Yale and Peck elevators and Mr. Doelle the interest in the farm.

Don't forget the public supper in the parlors of the Methodist Episcopal church next Wednesday evening. Everybody invited. Splendid menu.

War and the Weather.

The Almighty makes the weather, not man, and if the weather doesn't suit us, we have to wait. The farmer knows what a day's rain will do to the way of upsetting plans. One can't plow in the mud and a cutting of hay or wheat may be damaged or ruined by one night's downpour.

The war department, too, is up against the weather in France. Three inches of rainfall may make the country impassable for half a million men and horses and motortrucks and ruin the chances of victory or bring defeat. When the war department has the weather to worry about, don't add to its worries by withholding money and, consequently, supplies. The purchase of Liberty bonds will help Pershing a lot this summer.

Germany Buy Bonds; Why Not You? Germany's last loan was over-subscribed. The Germans are determined to win this war. We have more money than they, and we must spend it. Lend to your government by buying Liberty bonds. Crush Germany's armies under the weight of American dollars.
