Drowned in Detroit River

Word was received in Yale Wednesday morning that Elmer, the 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Gough, of 1456 Helen Ave., Detroit, had been drowned the previous afternoon in Detroit river. He was in a canoe with two companions, and when near the middle of the river the boat was capsized by a swell opposite Belle Isle. The other two were saved, but young Gough disappeared, and up to the present time his body has not been recovered.

Besides the parents Elmer leaves one brother, fifteen years old. These people are well known, Mrs. Gough being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fry, of this city, and the father is a cousin of George Gough. Mr. and Mrs. Fry left Thursday morning for Detroit.

The drowned lad was a lieutenant in the Eastern high school cadet corps and was one of the most popular students in the school.

The Expressor sympathizes with the relatives in their sad affliction.

FOR SALE—Eight-room house, double lot, located on North street, Yale. House in good condition. For full particulars enquire at Expressor office, Yale.
